$2,500 TO BE GIVEN TO PERPETUATOR OF ROOSEVELT'S WORK

Author Acquainting Public With U. S. Problems To Get Award.

Some book written for the general public dealing with some phase of American life or foreign relations will receive the Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Award of $2,500 next spring. The Memorial Award is made annually to the author if the best book manuscript on any political, economic, or social part of present American life or government. Its purpose is to continue the work of the late Theodore Roosevelt in acquainting the average man with the problems of the nation. For that reason, the winning manuscript must be written so that the ordinary man can understand and appreciate it.

Since it is also the hope of the committee to encourage young writers to write on subjects of national importance, the manuscript chosen must be written by an American citizen who has not had a non-fiction book of his or her own writing published before. This does not apply to the publication of a thesis for a degree, of pamphlets, or of magazine articles.

The manuscripts considered will be read by a distinguished committee of judges who will select the winning manuscript. The judges are: Dr. Harold Willis Dodds, Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, Dr. Harold Glenn Coulton, Dean Roscoe Pound, and Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.
