

NEBRASKA CAMPUS SOCIAL WHIRL

SEEN ON THE Campus.

Helen Ann Rex smiling happily in English class... a bright yellow brushed wool sweater... rushing around accompanied by Charles Reilly... Marjorie Crabbill and Dick Kosman comparing identification pictures... and going into gales of laughter... Mr. Stokes excusing class Tuesday with almost no voice left at all... Tassels and Corn Cobs high pressuring prospective customers for tickets for the Rally Dance Friday night... Mary Priscilla, Kappa Delta, with a bandaged foot after an altogether too strenuous soccer baseball game... the bright green feather in Speed Jacobson's hat looking perky in decided contrast to Speed... lies, at least forty of them buzzing around the seats on the landing in South... Elizabeth Broady's black wool crepe dress, with hem attached in red and puffed sleeves... Marilyn Petersen explaining to Bob Funk that it would be impossible for her to go to Russia this week... too busy... Little Jeanie Feltor getting well slowly at Lincoln General hospital... D. U.'s cheering loudly speech made by Eloise Benjamin on the Tassel-Cornob party... and midweek enthusiasm flares up anticipating a big weekend.

Alpha Phi's to Give Game Party.

Friday night before the Indiana game, members of Alpha Phi who were initiated last year will entertain the rest of the active chapter and the pledges at a house party. The pledges will be the guests of honor. Chaperons for the party are Mrs. and Mrs. D. E. DePitro and Mrs. Schmittel.

Acacia Mothers Club Meets.

Mothers of the local chapter of Acacia met for luncheon at the chapter house Tuesday noon. Ten attended the luncheon and business meeting which was held afterward. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. White, Mrs. O. D. Dean and Mrs. Earl Owens.

Sigma Delta Tau to Hold Formal Tea.

Sunday, Oct. 13, Sigma Delta Tau will entertain all house mothers and pledge class presidents on the campus, honoring their pledge class. Tea will be served from 3:30 until 5:30 and Frances Katin, Jeanne Behr and Mrs. Madeline Baer will stand in the receiving line.

Ten A. O. Pi's Hold Dinner in Omaha.

In the way of a celebration or rather a consolation, ten members of Alpha Omicron Pi met for dinner Saturday night in Omaha at the Paxton hotel. The girls were all visiting in Omaha over the weekend.

Chi O Seniors Take Sneak Night.

Along with the members of several campus pledge classes who skipped out Monday night observing that peculiar tradition of sneak night... sneaked the members of the Chi Omega senior class... we wonder if they will be subject to any of the usual punishments?

Kappa Phi Entertains.

Kappa Phi, Methodist girls' club, will entertain guests at a party Thursday evening in Ellen Smith hall at seven o'clock. The affair, which is scheduled as a Mutual Admiration Gathering of Celebrated Women, will be attended by girls in the costume of famous personalities. Miss Jenny Hearsen is chairman of the event.

Beta Alliance Gives Tea for Mothers.

Monday afternoon at the Beta Theta Pi house members of the Alliance organization entertained at a tea honoring the mothers of the new pledge class. About thirty-five attended the affair and several out-of-state mothers were present.

Sturdevant-Hickman.

Leona Ruth Sturdevant and Virgil Carl Hickman were married Sept. 8 in Wamego. Miss Sturdevant has attended the University of Nebraska.

Rosenfield-Speier.

October 10, Harriett Rosenfield and Milford R. Speier were married in Omaha. Both are graduates of the University of Nebraska where Mr. Speier is affiliated with Zeta Beta Tau.

Seen on Ag campus: A beautiful bright yellowish-orange tree near ag hall... Ann Getsip keeping tennis records for Mrs. Danielson... Students already planning what they will wear to the farmer's formal... Miss Metzger at the Y finance dinner... Velma New trying to find someone with a tennis racket... Harriet Adam's shoes being quite the topic of discussion in ec class... Merle Hendricks combing his hair with a pretty lil' pink comb... Tom Aitken had fun this weekend being footloose and fancy free... Miss Carse kindly giving some girls a ride down town... Zook entering the library with a most bewildered look... Gladys Morgan entering the cafeteria with the ag boarding club... Pauline Walters dashing around making preparations for the Y. W. tea... In spite of everything Betty Stewart and Howard Peterson are going steady again... Ag girls' intramural team playing soccer baseball... Russell Stout and his characteristic nod.

The Ag W. W. C. A. staff invites everyone to their meeting Wednesday at five in the home ec parlors. The topic of discussion at the heads of the young political clubs will speak.

Delian Union to Hold Hour Dance.

The Delian Union Literary Society will hold an hour dance on Friday night, Oct. 16, room 303 in the Temple building at 9 o'clock. A program consisting of various musical numbers, skits and a short talk will be given. All unaffiliated students are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Johnson-Miller.

Announced Saturday in Omaha was the approaching marriage of Doris Johnson and Gay Miller. The ceremony will take place November 26 at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Omaha. Both Miss Johnson and Mr. Miller have attended the University of Nebraska. Miss Johnson is a member of Delta Gamma and Mrs. Miller is affiliated with Kappa Sigma.

Scroggin-Paine.

Recently announced was the marriage of Margaret Scroggin and Howard C. Paine, which took place in Beatrice September 23. Mr. Paine is a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

Saturday in Kansas City, Mo., Emil Dean Birnhook and Albert Drier of Crete were married. Mrs. Drier is a former student of the University of Nebraska and is a member of Phi Omega Pi.

MARSH SETS NOV. 15 AS PICTURE DEADLINE.

Yearbook Editor Requests Students to Plan for Appointments.

Emphasizing the need of student co-operation in order to make possible a complete representation in photographic panels of the Cornhusker, Bill Marsh, editor in chief, again urged students to have their pictures taken as soon as possible. The deadline set by which all pictures must be taken is Sunday, Nov. 15. Appointments can be made with Townsend studios who are doing the photographic work for this year's annual.

Special emphasis is made regarding this year's offer by the business staff of a copy of Baird's "Manual of American Fraternities." One of these books will be given to each fraternity and sorority that has a 100 percent representation of their juniors and seniors in the class sections.

Pictures charged for placing photographs in the fraternity and sorority groups will be $1, and $2.25 is the price for a class picture, but a special offer is being made allowing the printing in both sections for only $2.50.

Miss Doris Hayes, who received her M. A. degree here in botany several years ago, was in Lincoln visiting her parents. She addressed members of the botanical seminar Wednesday evening on the international botanical congress held a year ago in Holland.

Prof. Jiles Honey, chairman of the department of mechanical engineering, will show his Mexican pictures at the Ithram club meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday noon.

AUTHORITIES NAME 118 ASSISTANTS FOR DEPARTMENT WORK

Graduate Students Working For Advanced Degrees Receive Posts.

Announcement of the names of 118 university graduate scholars, fellows, and graduate assistants, who will act as assistants in the various departments for the coming year was released Saturday by school officials. All persons who were selected for the positions are working for advanced degrees at the university, according to the report issued.

In addition to representatives of Nebraska schools, colleges and universities, graduates of colleges in Texas, Missouri, Iowa, Ohio, Kansas, Alabama, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Illinois, New York, Indiana, South Dakota, Michigan, and Wyoming are included in the list.

Following is the complete list of students, their degrees and their department. All persons are graduate assistants unless otherwise indicated:

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN FIRST HOME SESSION

Rev. Henry Schedules Series Of Fireside Meetings at Campus Church.

First of a series of "home and fireside" meetings, scheduled for all Presbyterian students of the university and their friends this semester, will be held this evening from 7 to 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian student manse, according to an announcement made by Mr. R. B. Henry, Presbyterian student pastor.

Emphasizing the fact that there are over one thousand students enrolled at Nebraska who are connected with the Presbyterian church, Mr. Henry explained that these regularly scheduled meetings will be held in an informal manner in order that both new and old students may become acquainted.

No definite program will be planned for the gatherings at which Mr. Henry and his wife will act as host and hostess, and discussion of topics of interest to the group attending the meeting will occupy the larger part of the hour, in addition to the social entertainment, Mr. Henry announced.

COUNSELORS TO HOLD MASS MEETING TODAY

Leaders of Hobby Groups To Be Introduced by Miss Bannister.

At a mass meeting of all women students interested in hobby groups, at 7 o'clock tonight, at Ellen Smith hall, Majorie Bannister, president of coed counselors, will introduce the heads of the various hobby groups and will explain the program for the year.

Betty Magee will have charge of the scrapbook hobby group; Virginia Nolte of the dramatics group; Dorcas Crawford of the knitting group; and Virginia Fleetwood of the charm school.

Publicity chairman for the organization is Hrylu Petersen. Miss Elsie Piper sponsors coed counselors.
