

B OUTFIT SNOWS UNDER WESLEYAN IN SECOND GAME

Callihan, Plock Sparkle In 35-6 Carnage of Plainsmen.

Coach Lawrence Ely's Nubbins annexed another victim to their subjugated list when they pummeled Nebraska Wesleyan, 35 to 6, Friday night at Wesleyan bowl. The Husker reserves practically carnaged the small but aggressive Plainsmen team, iterally pushing them around the entire rectangular. Kenneth Shindo, dexterous sophomore end from Grand Island, tallied the first "B" touchdown. About midway in the first quarter, Marvin Plock, fleet reserve halfback, ran the ball 30 yards and planted it on his own 45 yard line. An end-around play by Shindo brought the sphere to the Wesleyan 42 yard stripe, then an aerial heave from Ernie White, quarterback, to Shindo put the albino sphere over the goal line. Bill Callihan's attempt at conversion was successful, giving the Elymen a 7-0 margin.

85 Yards by Plock.

This lead, however, was short-lived, for the next touchdown was manufactured almost as fast as one could have said Jack Robinson. On the following kickoff the ball was fielded by Plock who, thru some laudable blocking, scampered like a frightened rabbit 85 yards along the sidelines

CLARK TO ADDRESS OMAHA CREDIT MEN

Uni Instructor to Discuss Monetary Situation Of Nations.

"International Razzle Dazzle" will be the subject of Dr. John D. Clark's address at the luncheon meeting of the Omaha Association of Credit Men Thursday at 6 p. m.

As guest instructor in economic law for the first semester at the University of Nebraska, Dr. Clark has appeared before many Nebraska audiences.

In his talk Thursday he will touch upon international exchange, devaluation and the general monetary situation.

to the pay territory. Callihan then nonchalantly sent the ball zooming thru the uprights to make the count 14 to 0 for the Nubbins.

The second period was still in its infancy when the "B" squad obtained another counter. A 60 yard drive, featuring ruthless line plunges by Callihan and Phelps, and a lateral from White to Fischer gave the Cornhuskers six more points. The educated toe of Callihan again brought an extra marker, making the score read 21 to 0 for the "E" clique.

Plainsmen Score.

With gander in their hearts, Coach Farley's cohorts resolved to get their portion of the touchdown dessert. Recovering a fumble by Bill Cline, late in the second quarter, on the Husker 15 yard chalk-line, Dawson Hawkins, diminutive Wesleyan tailback, pushed the ball over for the initial Methodist reckoning. Hawkins' extra point boot was snowed under, thus giving Coach Ely's charges a 21-6 lead at the intermission.

The third quarter was cluttered with thrills but was much devoid of scores. Time after time the Huskers would penetrate deeply into the Plainsmen's haunts, but nary could they register a counter. The dearth of "E" tallies in this canto can be explained very easily; the Wesleyan secondary of Hawkins, Staley and Shuman thwarted all Nubbins endeavors to make yardage.

After contributing three extra points, Bill Callihan, who had been smashing the Wesleyan forward to smithereens, came thru with a touchdown. With the aid of Plock and White, Bill crossed the goal to make the score read 28-6 for the Nubbins.

Lloyd Grimm, end from Omaha, was responsible for the last counter of the fray for the reserves. Thurston Phelps, adept quarterback from Exeter, flung a 30 yard pass into the cool ozone, and lo and behold the pellet landed into the waiting arms of Grimm. His catch was eccentric in that he had to reach overhead to get his cohesive fingers on it. Phelps' placekick was good. Nebraska "B" 35, Wesleyan 6.

Frequent fumbles marred the performance of both outfits, and many of these lapses were costly, especially for Wesleyan. Dawson Hawkins, Art French and Chet Arthur were the limelights of the Methodist coterie; Kenneth Shindo, Ascher Brown, Bob Ramey and Perry Franks were the stand-outs in the reserve line. Bill Callihan's pile-driving line smashes and Marvin Plock's lengthy and speedy jaunts were the highlights in the "E" backfield.

KANSAS TWO-MILERS SWAMP SCHULTEMEN

Dual Distance Meet Ends 36-19 in Favor of K-Staters.

Coach Henry Schulte's two-mile team opened its fall track season yesterday by dropping a 36-to-19 dual to the Kansas State squad at Memorial stadium. The marathon run preceded the heart-palpitating Nebraska-Indiana football contest.

Captain Redfield and Wheelock, highly vaunted Kaggie runners, tied for first and second, both being timed at 16:05. Another K-Stater, Sweet, garnered unto himself a third while Bob West, Husker representative, captured fourth place.

The other transcountry men finished as follows: Matteson (N), fifth; Miller (KS), sixth; Isle (KS), seventh; Koch (N), eighth; Knight (N), ninth and Henrickson (N), tenth.

Ball Bearing

With Ed Steeves

GRID SCORES

Here are some football outcomes that may be interesting to Nebraskans:

Oklahoma 14, Kansas 0; Marquette 13, Kansas State 0; Michigan State 13, Missouri 0; Iowa State 33, Cornell college 0; Minnesota 26, Michigan 0; Duquesne 7, Pittsburgh 0; Tulane 28, Colgate 6; Alabama 0, Tennessee 0; Dartmouth 34, Brown 0; Duke 19, Georgia Tech 6; Southern Methodist 16, Vanderbilt 0; Northwestern 14, Ohio State 13; Notre Dame 27, Wisconsin 0; Pennsylvania 7, Princeton 0; Yale 12, Navy 7; Southern California 0, Washington State 0; Washington 19, Oregon State 7; UCLA 17, California 6; Texas A. & M. 18, Texas Christian 7; Cornell 20, Syracuse 7; Rice 13, Georgia 6; Fordham 20, Waynesburg 6; Army 32, Harvard 0; Holy Cross 13, Manhattan 7; Iowa 0, Illinois 0; Purdue 35, Chicago 7; Oklahoma A. & M. 6, Washburn 0.

can really do when put to the test! The said test came and some of the smartest quarterbacking ever was pulled by Signal Barker Johnny Howell. For three downs he ran battering ram Francis thru the center until the Hoosiers were all hovered over Charlie Brock, waiting for the bone crushing full to take his last crack over pivot. Instead, Howell passed to the disregarded Ron Douglas standing alone as an onion eater. Score 13 to 9, Nebraska at last.

On top of this P B K quarterbacking Indiana took the longest chance ever and lost. Instead of punting on the fourth as expected they hurled a spiral incomplete, Huskers' ball on the Hoosier 37. It wasn't a bonehead, however, not in the parlance of good football, for they knew they could hold and did it. If they had connected, the scorer might have changed some figures.

Still playing this weird football, our invaders are still trying to pass their way down the field from the goal post shadows. Probably the queerest procedure of any big time elevens, for the still remains seven minutes to score. If they succeed in this mad campaign of pigskin and caution tossing succeeds our hats are off to the gods of football, the Hoosiers; if not, hail another Husker score. Whew! They finally punted!

To Bo McMillan go a near substitute for orchids with his ever ready strategy. Knowing that the Huskers have been known to lapse in death bed moments, he began inserting fresh replacements and for a minute it looked like his mission was not fruitless.

Again Charley Brock went in to snag two interceptions. Thus giving him a total of seven in three games.

A graph of play of this highly spiced game today would no doubt show that Indiana play was an animated old faithful, never varying in play potency, while Nebraska action was on a steep incline starting from cellar and ending stellar. A feature of all day was a pair of duels, one between Sam Francis, whose presence bolstered his mates into a spirited victory rally, and Vernon Huffman, greasy Hoosier quarter. The other tussle was quarterbacking, again starring Huffman versus Johnny Howell. Strange and strategic was the style of signal calling as both teams finessed to the finish. Huskerites can now go home and sleep well in their trundle beds since Nebraska has safely crossed the psychological swamp 13 to 9.

Dean O. J. Ferguson of the college of engineering will appear on the program of Interprofessional Institute at the group's national convention in Council Bluffs, Iowa this week end. He will talk on "Crowding in the Engineering Profession."

Dr. George Condra, director of the conservation and survey division, Dean W. W. Burr of the college of agriculture, and Dr. F. D. Keim, chairman of the department of agronomy, will speak at Howells, Nebraska Monday on problems pertaining to the development of soil and water resources of that part of Nebraska.

"Swing" in Fashion

College rhythm blithely expressed in

Romantic Styles

Trip the light fantastic in style. Exquisite swirling skirts will thrill you! Dresses that will make your dates memorable . . .

Frocks that feature:

- ..the Rustle of Taffeta
- ..the Enchantment of Velvet
- ..the Gleam of Metal
- ..the Sleekness of Satin
- ..the Elegant Smartness of Crepe

Black, White and a gorgeous array of colors.

10⁰⁰ to 39⁰⁰

KAMPUS KORNER...THIRD FLOOR.

GOLD & CO.

Bar B-Q Ribs Wieners
Baked Ham Hot Chili
Hot Corn Beef Fried Chicken

Home Baked Cookies and Cakes
Fresh Always

12th Street Delicatess
B1533 232 South 12