

NEBRASKA CAMPUS SOCIAL WHIRL

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS.

Virg Yelkin having voting difficulty without a number on his identification card... Virginia Anderson accompanying Leland Hale and Pat Glen to the Temple, talking busily... Henry Remington explaining in his individual way just why he was standing in front of the Beauty Queen exhibit... Student Council members, on their big day, busy as bees in a hive in the Temple box office... the studied nonchalance of the faces of Honorary Colonel candidates... Carol Clark seated on the library steps... sweaters in the morning and heavy coats in the afternoon... Bob Beghtol drinking long at the drinking fountain in Law college... Eddie George complaining bitterly that he had lost his identification card... Mary Louise Dow and Jay Campbell taking the peace ballot very seriously... in fact discussing it all the way home... a masterpiece of photography... Harry Stiecker's face on his identification card... Pat Lahr flying from the polls to a class with one eye on the R street traffic... and the first real fall feeling day.

Gamma Phi's Honor Three Law Students.

Active members of Gamma Phi Beta entertained at a formal dinner Monday night at the chapter house honoring three Gamma Phi Beta members in law college. Delta Rohn is a freshman; Anne Pickett, a junior, and Joan Browder is the only senior girl in law college.

Preston-Reed.

LOST ANYTHING? TRY UNIVERSITY'S LOST AND FOUND DEPARTMENT FOR EVERYTHING FROM DICE TO SHOES

The Regents Bookstore may have some stiff competition if there is ever a public sale of all the textbooks and notebooks left in old crannies by college boys and Josephines. Gym clothes too, and tennis rackets are things one wonders about being lost, and unclaimed. Ladies gloves repose in a large drawer, both singly and in pairs.

Collection Shows Drouth Results. Raincoats, rubbers and umbrellas lying on the lost and found shelves suggest that a few Nebraskans decided the drouth was to be permanent. Football games, of course, leave a collection of blankets, and even one gaily flowered sofa pillow was left as a memento by one fan this year. Ladies are quite indiscriminate about where they put their coat belts, while one gapes at the man who left his overcoat and never called for it. Fountain pens, pencils and wrist watches are too common to more than mention.

For the benefit of those who may have lost some article or who expect to lose something in the near future, they should inquire at the lost and found department in the west stadium, stating when and about where they believe they lost it. If the department does not actually have it there, sometimes it is able to trace it down in some other building. Anyone finding any lost articles should leave them with a janitor in some class building. He will then see that it reaches the lost and found desk which has been located in the stadium for over a year now, formerly having been managed by the Daily Nebraskan.

SEVEN ORGANIZED HOUSES FILE FOR DISPLAY CONTEST

(Continued from Page 1.) won by Sigma Alpha Epsilon whose decorations depicted a huge spider web with Nebraska taking the form of the spider and the Kansas Jayhawk becoming hopelessly enmeshed. Honorary mention was won by the Delta Upsilon who represented a museum with the Jayhawk as an extinct animal, and by the Delta Sigma Lambdas who decorated their house to look like a theater with the one day attraction "Plucking the Jaybird."

Present Entries.

The Greek houses who have already entered the contest are as follows:

- Alpha Tau Omega.
- Delta Upsilon.
- Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
- Beta Theta Pi.

Smoke-O

...that's the whaleman's signal for a smoke

And on land and sea, from coast to coast... with millions of smokers, men and women... when they take time out to enjoy a cigarette it's

"Smoke-O... pass the Chesterfields"

Chesterfields are milder... and what's more they've got a hearty good taste that leaves a man satisfied.

...it's Smoke-O for Chesterfields everywhere
