

Rallying Fans to Give Cornhuskers Sendoff at 4:15 Today

PEP CLUBS, BAND TO ESCORT SQUAD TO M. P. STATION

Bradley Requests Boosters To Assemble at East Stadium.

Rallying Cornhuskers, acclaiming the prowess of their football team and urging them on to further conquest, will gather at the north end of the east stadium today demanding that the scraps of the Sooners accompany the Nebraska footballers when they return from their invasion of Norman Saturday.

At 4:15 the pepsters, headed by the band, Corn Cobs, and Tassels will escort the team, loaded in two chartered buses, to the Missouri Pacific station at 9th and S streets where the Huskers will embark for their trek into the realm of the Oklahomans.

Title Depends on Game. "We expect the largest attendance of the year at this rally," declares Ted Bradley, chairman of the student rally committee. "The Big Six title hopes of the Huskers depend on the outcome of this clash with the Sooners Saturday. If we can hurdle this last barrier, we should take Missouri and Kansas in our stride. Oklahoma presents the only team in the conference powerful enough to stop us."

A win in this game will mean much as to whether or not we defeat Pitt. Bradley continued. He added that Biff Jones has been pointing for Nebraska since the humiliating 19-0 defeat the Huskers plastered on his boys last year. Everyone Attend.

"For the sake of the team, the school and our reputation, every student should come to this rally," Bradley urged. "The entire squad will be present and the psychological effect of a huge rally is apparent."

Kenny McGinnis, game captain, will be called on to stifle any premonitions Huskers followers may have as to the outcome of the game.

Starting at 12th street in front of the stadium, the rallying Cornhuskers will proceed south to R street. At this point, the group will turn westward to 9th and then south again to the M. P. station.

GOLD PUTS DAMPER ON DRILL OF TWO-MILERS

Arctic Blasts Give Edge to Normans Where Sun Shines Freely.

Arctic-like zephyrs greeted Coach Henry Schulte's cross-country runners yesterday as they went thru their chores, preparing to face the Oklahoma two-mile team Saturday at Norman, Okla. The dual will be held as an added attraction to the Nebraska-Oklahoma football battle.

Old Man Weather has put a crimp in the Huskers' practice rounds, and this week he deprived them of two rehearsal days because of his cold, unsoothing blasts. Down in Norman, home of Coach John Jacobs' Sooners, the sun has been shining glare, offering the Oklahoma squad clement weather for its practice periods.

Oklahoma has already won two trans-country meets this year while Pa. Schulte's performers dropped their opening engagement to Kansas State, 36 to 19, last week. The personnel of the two squads is evenly matched, with a slight advantage to Mentor Jacobs' outfit.

In an attempt to thwart the victory parade of the Normans, Coach Schulte has selected Willson Andrews, Fred Matteson, Fred Koch, James Knight and Bob Allen for his starting lineup. Andrews and Matteson are major letter winners. Koch, Knight and Allen are sophomores who have had little or no experience in dual competition.

Chi Omegas, Raymond Hall to Meet in Finals

Finals of the soccer-baseball intramural tournament will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock when the Chi Omegas meet Carrie Belle Raymond Hall. The former's team won the right to compete in the finals, by defeating the Kappa Alpha Thetas last evening, 11 to 5.

YOUR DRUG STORE Our New Soda Fountain Service will please you. Special noon lunches. Call us for delivery on lunches day or night. We deliver free.

The OWL PHARMACY P St. at 14th Phone B1058

33 HUSKERS OFF TO DEFEND TITLE AGAINST SOONERS

Big Six Crown May Depend On Outcome of Game At Norman.

BIBLE WORKS ON PASSES

Oklahoma Pointing for Revenge Win Over Nebraska.

Three teams strong, Nebraska's Cornhuskers will entrain for Oklahoma this afternoon to settle this season's biggest conference argument—who is to be the 1936 Big Six football champions. From all appearance it will be a long, bitter argument starting at 2 o'clock in Owen field.

"This is the year that Oklahoma can beat Nebraska" is the watchword that is floating around Soonerland. While in Huskerland, Coach Bible's men are well aware of the fact that Oklahoma is putting in its bid for the championship, and Nebraska is decidedly in the Sooner path.

Mentor Bible has labored all week attempting to instill into the Huskers the feeling that Nebraska's continued grid success hinges on the outcome of the Sooner fray. Judging from the seriousness that the Cornhuskers have shown during the past two days, they are apparently conscious of the "crucialness" of the Oklahoma game.

Wednesday's scrimmage revealed that the three Scarlet and Cream eleven are in fighting mood. The cold weather made the Huskers hasty and Coach Bible nodded his approval of the scrimmage. He hopes to give all three teams an opportunity to go up against the Sooners.

Have Aerial Attack. "Forward passing and lots of it," was Coach Bible's order for Thursday's practice. Nebraska's pass attack against Indiana last week didn't pan out so well, and Coach Bible is hoping to see the Husker aerial attack click against the Sooners. In the three games played this fall, Cornhusker passers have completed eight forward plays out of 28 attempted, leaving 16 incompletes. Four tosses were intercepted.

Johnny Howell, Harris Andrews, Sam Francis, Ernie White and Les McDonald are Coach Bible's hopes in the pass-tossing department. Harris Andrews is the long-range passer on the squad, while Sam Francis and Johnny Howell specialize in spot passes.

Most of Thursday's practice time was spent in pass preparation, but Coach Bible and his assistants found time to send the varsity against the frosh in a dummy scrimmage. Yearlings, using Oklahoma plays and formations, tried line smashes, end runs and forward passes against the varsity's defense.

An early workout will be staged Friday afternoon, during which the Cornhuskers will run thru their plays in a secret signal drill before they board their special train.

Francis May Start. It's not official but Sam Francis will probably start the game at fullback for Nebraska. He has had a good layoff that helped to put his sprained ankle back in shape. Coach Bible will start his regulars Saturday afternoon, and when and if the situation presents itself he will let the reserves go into the game. Elmer Dohrman and Les McDonald, ends; Ted Doyle and Fred Shirey, tackles; Game Captain-Elect, Ken McGinnis and Bob Mehring, guards; Charley Brock, center; Johnny Howell, quarterback; Lloyd Cardwell and Ron Douglas, halfbacks; and Sam

Ball Bearing With Ed Steeves

Tomorrow when the not all victorious, but all successful Huskers trot out of Memorial stadium they will have shorter home odds on them than ever before. The reason is the same decrepit explanation as has been present all year. The Huskers have simply been playing themselves into a deeper and deeper rut all year. First they took on Iowa State. This was a fairly easy opener. Second, was Minnesota in the toughest and poorest place on our schedule. Next came the Hoosiers of Indiana catching the Nebraska boys with their trousers dragging and almost toted home the bacon. Now comes Oklahoma, the strongest of all conference foes.

Nebraska, though they may be in the fittest pink of condition, are still a bit unprepared. Even now needs a little relief. A "breather" in the parlance of football coaches, Oklahoma is not it.

Though the victory over the Hoosiers was only a slight four points last week it was a billion tally morally for Husker customers. They went expecting anything. A loss to Minnesota could have done three things. It could have made them despondent. It could have inspired them to bigger and better things. Or it could have caused them to underrate every other team because of Minnesota's potency. Last year it did the first; this year, thank the powers, the second; but the third possibility still remains with tomorrow's foe. Dropping from Big Ten competi-

Francis, fullback, will be in the starting Husker lineup.

Breedren Tops Sooners. Oklahoma will have an all around backfield on the field Saturday afternoon. The Sooners have a triple-threat in Bill Breedren, 201 pound fullback, who runs, passes and kicks with equal ability. In Al Corrotto, who plays halfback for Oklahoma, Major Jones has a good blocker. Jack Baer calls the signals from the left wing position and is a crafty ball carrier. Otis Rogers has been getting the nod for the other wing back post.

The Sooners have a plentiful supply of backfield reserves. Elmo "Bo" Hewes, who was lost to the Sooners in their Kansas game last week because of injuries, will be in shape and may see action against the Cornhuskers. Webber Merrill, Nate Anderson and Earl Crowder top the list of reserve backs.

Reading from left to right, end to end, Major Pete Smith, Ray Brown, Connie Ahrens, Bill Conkright, Fred Ball, Fred Ellsworth and Walt Young in the Sooner line. This is the first string line that saw only 15 minutes of action against the Jayhawks last week.

The powerful reserve line that Oklahoma boasts of finds John Bridges and Clay Casey at ends, Tom Short and Bill Estell at tackles, Jim Thomas and Jiggs Walker at guards, and Vern Muller at center. The Sooner reserves put in three quarters of hard work against Kansas, and are experienced enough to tackle the Cornhuskers.

Rally Is Sendoff.

Nebraska's entourage will assemble Friday afternoon and at 4:30 will leave the east stadium in buses as part of the sendoff rally that will be held. The squad will pull out of Huskerland at 4:45 from the Missouri Pacific station and arrive in Kansas City at 9:50. At 10:15 p. m., the order is "lights out."

The squad will arrive in Oklahoma City at 7:45 a. m., and at noon will take the Sante Fe special into Norman for the kickoff at 2 o'clock. At six o'clock the team returns to Oklahoma City to enjoy four hours of diversion.

Following are the thirty-three Huskers that will make the trip as selected by Coach Bible:

Center: Charles Brock, Columbus; Bob Ramsey, Lincoln; Ray Eas, Lincoln; Guards: Ken McGinnis, Ord; Bob Mehring, Grand Island; Fred Ellsworth, Lexington; Lowell English, Lincoln; George Soeman, Omaha; Bill Hermann, Osceola; Tackles: Fred Shirey, Latrobe, Pa.

Ball Bearing With Ed Steeves

Tomorrow when the not all victorious, but all successful Huskers trot out of Memorial stadium they will have shorter home odds on them than ever before. The reason is the same decrepit explanation as has been present all year. The Huskers have simply been playing themselves into a deeper and deeper rut all year. First they took on Iowa State. This was a fairly easy opener. Second, was Minnesota in the toughest and poorest place on our schedule. Next came the Hoosiers of Indiana catching the Nebraska boys with their trousers dragging and almost toted home the bacon. Now comes Oklahoma, the strongest of all conference foes.

Nebraska, though they may be in the fittest pink of condition, are still a bit unprepared. Even now needs a little relief. A "breather" in the parlance of football coaches, Oklahoma is not it.

Though the victory over the Hoosiers was only a slight four points last week it was a billion tally morally for Husker customers. They went expecting anything. A loss to Minnesota could have done three things. It could have made them despondent. It could have inspired them to bigger and better things. Or it could have caused them to underrate every other team because of Minnesota's potency. Last year it did the first; this year, thank the powers, the second; but the third possibility still remains with tomorrow's foe. Dropping from Big Ten competi-

Francis, fullback, will be in the starting Husker lineup.

Breedren Tops Sooners. Oklahoma will have an all around backfield on the field Saturday afternoon. The Sooners have a triple-threat in Bill Breedren, 201 pound fullback, who runs, passes and kicks with equal ability. In Al Corrotto, who plays halfback for Oklahoma, Major Jones has a good blocker. Jack Baer calls the signals from the left wing position and is a crafty ball carrier. Otis Rogers has been getting the nod for the other wing back post.

The Sooners have a plentiful supply of backfield reserves. Elmo "Bo" Hewes, who was lost to the Sooners in their Kansas game last week because of injuries, will be in shape and may see action against the Cornhuskers. Webber Merrill, Nate Anderson and Earl Crowder top the list of reserve backs.

Reading from left to right, end to end, Major Pete Smith, Ray Brown, Connie Ahrens, Bill Conkright, Fred Ball, Fred Ellsworth and Walt Young in the Sooner line. This is the first string line that saw only 15 minutes of action against the Jayhawks last week.

The powerful reserve line that Oklahoma boasts of finds John Bridges and Clay Casey at ends, Tom Short and Bill Estell at tackles, Jim Thomas and Jiggs Walker at guards, and Vern Muller at center. The Sooner reserves put in three quarters of hard work against Kansas, and are experienced enough to tackle the Cornhuskers.

Rally Is Sendoff.

Nebraska's entourage will assemble Friday afternoon and at 4:30 will leave the east stadium in buses as part of the sendoff rally that will be held. The squad will pull out of Huskerland at 4:45 from the Missouri Pacific station and arrive in Kansas City at 9:50. At 10:15 p. m., the order is "lights out."

The squad will arrive in Oklahoma City at 7:45 a. m., and at noon will take the Sante Fe special into Norman for the kickoff at 2 o'clock. At six o'clock the team returns to Oklahoma City to enjoy four hours of diversion.

Following are the thirty-three Huskers that will make the trip as selected by Coach Bible:

Center: Charles Brock, Columbus; Bob Ramsey, Lincoln; Ray Eas, Lincoln; Guards: Ken McGinnis, Ord; Bob Mehring, Grand Island; Fred Ellsworth, Lexington; Lowell English, Lincoln; George Soeman, Omaha; Bill Hermann, Osceola; Tackles: Fred Shirey, Latrobe, Pa.

Farmers took the Toads down last week and can do more than that against the Baylor Bears. Army-Springfield: This will be a breather for the Cadets. Washington-California: Jimmie Phelan's Huskies are the best in the west coast. Yale-Rutgers: Yale's Bulldogs will have a "breathing spell" in this one sided tilt. Texas Christian-Mississippi State: Horned Frogs have a sweet aerial attack and the Sharpshooters are strong on the ground. It's close, but on a hunch, we'll take TCU. Princeton-Navy: Fritz Crisler's Tigers have the stuff to sink the Navy. Harvard-Dartmouth: Dartmouth's Big Green Team is a 2 to 1 favorite to mess up Harvard's crimson jerseys. Illinois-Northwestern: Lynn Waldorf's Wildcats upset the Ohio Staters and the Illini will furnish another Northwestern victory. Louisiana State-Arkansas: Kingfishers will have no trouble in getting rid of the Razorbacks. Minnesota-Purdue: Gophers will smash Boiler-makers to make it 21 wins in a row. Fordham-St. Mary's: Here's an even-up proposition. Gaels are favored, but if this Ram team does as well as it has been doing, it'll still be close. On a long shot, this forecaster says the Rams. Ohio State-Indiana: Buckeyes will redeem themselves in the grid eyes by ironing Indiana. Pittsburgh-Notre Dame: This is like the Ram-Gael situation. But despite the fact that most forecasters are taking the Fighting Irish, this columnist will string along with the Pitt Panthers. Duke-Tennessee: Those Duke Blue Devils will run the Volunteers all over the grid pasture. Tulane-North Carolina: Tulane's Green Wave will wash out the Tar Heels. Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt: The Rambler Wrecks from Georgia Tech will leave the Commodores on the small end of the scoring column. Marquette-Michigan State: Golden Avalanche's Guepe touchdown twins will get the breaks to beat the Spartans. A good close game involving two undefeated and untied elevens.

KAPPA DELTA WINNER OF COED PLAQUE FOR 1935-36 SPORT YEAR

W. A. A. Holds Mass Meeting Last Night to Award First Prizes. Kappa Delta was awarded the plaque for winning the highest number of points in women's intramurals last year at a mass meeting of the Women's Athletic Association. The assembly was held in Grant Memorial hall Thursday evening, where all awards were made. Total score earned by the sorority reached 1,155 points. Others who followed close behind are: Delta Gamma with 1,125; Kappa Alpha Theta with 995; Phi Mu, 786; Gamma Phi Beta, 750; and Delta Delta Delta, 570 points.

Victors of respective sports follow in the order in which the games were run off. Soccer-baseball: Kappa Delta first, Chi Omega second; Nebraska ball: Kappa Delta first, Raymond hall second; bowling: Delta Gamma first, Kappa Delta second.

Ohio State-Indiana: Buckeyes will redeem themselves in the grid eyes by ironing Indiana. Pittsburgh-Notre Dame: This is like the Ram-Gael situation. But despite the fact that most forecasters are taking the Fighting Irish, this columnist will string along with the Pitt Panthers.

Duke-Tennessee: Those Duke Blue Devils will run the Volunteers all over the grid pasture. Tulane-North Carolina: Tulane's Green Wave will wash out the Tar Heels.

Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt: The Rambler Wrecks from Georgia Tech will leave the Commodores on the small end of the scoring column. Marquette-Michigan State: Golden Avalanche's Guepe touchdown twins will get the breaks to beat the Spartans. A good close game involving two undefeated and untied elevens.

New Deal Barber Shop HAIRCUT 35c 1306 O Street

As We See 'Em" by Morris Lipp

Doping out this week's biggest grid embroglios is no easy task. Last week's upsets have shifted the national grid picture around so much that it's difficult to forecast games. Teams that were on the top of the grid heap have fallen, and some elevens that weren't even considered as big time have come thru.

With a prayer that our predictions are more than 72 per cent correct (last week's average), we give you these forecasts: Kansas-Kansas State: Cellar-place Jayhawks haven't a chance against a strong K-Aggie outfit. Missouri-Iowa State: Don Faurot's Tigers will withstand the Cyclone. Nebraska-Oklahoma: Here's where the Cornhuskers cinch another Big Six title, but it'll take a lot of work. Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech: Grid-wars will go on another rampage. Oregon-Washington State: Close, but the Cougars held USC last week and can trot on the Webfoot of Oregon. Texas-Rice: Longhorns will make the Owls hoot in defeat. Stanford-Southern California: Last week's Trojan tie hurt only in the scorebook. They have the edge over the Indians. Texas A. & M.-Baylor: Texas'

Recognized for High Quality ... Miss Swank Pajamas

"Ho Hum" Sleepy Time Means "Tucky" Time ... Snug "Tucky" Pajamas

For Daytime Warmth Too! ... "Tucky" Undies

Tailored by Globe ... Ski Tights

For Every Occasion ... Rose Petal Slips

Will be the smoothest foundation for your frock. Fore-gore or bias cut. Lace or tailored trim full 48 inches long. White and glowing tea rose. Sizes 32 to 44. $119

Rudge & Guenzel Co. For More Than Fifty Years The Quality Store of Nebraska!

Miss Leaton to Talk at Baptist Conclave Today

Etiquette will be the theme of the Baptist student groups, Friday afternoon, when they hold open house at the Baptist student home from four to six o'clock. Stating that her definite topic will be "Why Is a Fork," Miss Louise Leaton, director of the cooperative houses, will talk to the group on manners, their origin and importance.

Miss Grace Spacht, Baptist student secretary, has assured that the program will be of interest to both boys and girls, and she invites anyone interested to attend.

Ohio State-Indiana: Buckeyes will redeem themselves in the grid eyes by ironing Indiana. Pittsburgh-Notre Dame: This is like the Ram-Gael situation. But despite the fact that most forecasters are taking the Fighting Irish, this columnist will string along with the Pitt Panthers.

Duke-Tennessee: Those Duke Blue Devils will run the Volunteers all over the grid pasture. Tulane-North Carolina: Tulane's Green Wave will wash out the Tar Heels.

Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt: The Rambler Wrecks from Georgia Tech will leave the Commodores on the small end of the scoring column. Marquette-Michigan State: Golden Avalanche's Guepe touchdown twins will get the breaks to beat the Spartans. A good close game involving two undefeated and untied elevens.

New Deal Barber Shop HAIRCUT 35c 1306 O Street

As We See 'Em" by Morris Lipp

Doping out this week's biggest grid embroglios is no easy task. Last week's upsets have shifted the national grid picture around so much that it's difficult to forecast games. Teams that were on the top of the grid heap have fallen, and some elevens that weren't even considered as big time have come thru.

With a prayer that our predictions are more than 72 per cent correct (last week's average), we give you these forecasts: Kansas-Kansas State: Cellar-place Jayhawks haven't a chance against a strong K-Aggie outfit. Missouri-Iowa State: Don Faurot's Tigers will withstand the Cyclone. Nebraska-Oklahoma: Here's where the Cornhuskers cinch another Big Six title, but it'll take a lot of work. Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech: Grid-wars will go on another rampage. Oregon-Washington State: Close, but the Cougars held USC last week and can trot on the Webfoot of Oregon. Texas-Rice: Longhorns will make the Owls hoot in defeat. Stanford-Southern California: Last week's Trojan tie hurt only in the scorebook. They have the edge over the Indians. Texas A. & M.-Baylor: Texas'

Recognized for High Quality ... Miss Swank Pajamas

"Ho Hum" Sleepy Time Means "Tucky" Time ... Snug "Tucky" Pajamas

For Daytime Warmth Too! ... "Tucky" Undies

Tailored by Globe ... Ski Tights

For Every Occasion ... Rose Petal Slips

Will be the smoothest foundation for your frock. Fore-gore or bias cut. Lace or tailored trim full 48 inches long. White and glowing tea rose. Sizes 32 to 44. $119

Rudge & Guenzel Co. For More Than Fifty Years The Quality Store of Nebraska!

pa Phi second; ping pong singles: Innominate first, TNT second; ping pong doubles: Delta Gamma first, Kapp Alpha Theta second; and basketball: Kappa Delta first, Gamma Phi Beta second.

Remaining sports and winners include: Swimming, Phi Mu first, Alpha Phi second; deck tennis, Kappa Delta first and second; archery, Independents first, Delta Gamma second; baseball, Kappa Delta first, Delta Gamma second.

Ohio State-Indiana: Buckeyes will redeem themselves in the grid eyes by ironing Indiana. Pittsburgh-Notre Dame: This is like the Ram-Gael situation. But despite the fact that most forecasters are taking the Fighting Irish, this columnist will string along with the Pitt Panthers.

Duke-Tennessee: Those Duke Blue Devils will run the Volunteers all over the grid pasture. Tulane-North Carolina: Tulane's Green Wave will wash out the Tar Heels.

Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt: The Rambler Wrecks from Georgia Tech will leave the Commodores on the small end of the scoring column. Marquette-Michigan State: Golden Avalanche's Guepe touchdown twins will get the breaks to beat the Spartans. A good close game involving two undefeated and untied elevens.

New Deal Barber Shop HAIRCUT 35c 1306 O Street

As We See 'Em" by Morris Lipp

Doping out this week's biggest grid embroglios is no easy task. Last week's upsets have shifted the national grid picture around so much that it's difficult to forecast games. Teams that were on the top of the grid heap have fallen, and some elevens that weren't even considered as big time have come thru.

With a prayer that our predictions are more than 72 per cent correct (last week's average), we give you these forecasts: Kansas-Kansas State: Cellar-place Jayhawks haven't a chance against a strong K-Aggie outfit. Missouri-Iowa State: Don Faurot's Tigers will withstand the Cyclone. Nebraska-Oklahoma: Here's where the Cornhuskers cinch another Big Six title, but it'll take a lot of work. Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech: Grid-wars will go on another rampage. Oregon-Washington State: Close, but the Cougars held USC last week and can trot on the Webfoot of Oregon. Texas-Rice: Longhorns will make the Owls hoot in defeat. Stanford-Southern California: Last week's Trojan tie hurt only in the scorebook. They have the edge over the Indians. Texas A. & M.-Baylor: Texas'

Recognized for High Quality ... Miss Swank Pajamas

"Ho Hum" Sleepy Time Means "Tucky" Time ... Snug "Tucky" Pajamas

For Daytime Warmth Too! ... "Tucky" Undies

Tailored by Globe ... Ski Tights

For Every Occasion ... Rose Petal Slips

Will be the smoothest foundation for your frock. Fore-gore or bias cut. Lace or tailored trim full 48 inches long. White and glowing tea rose. Sizes 32 to 44. $119

Rudge & Guenzel Co. For More Than Fifty Years The Quality Store of Nebraska!

Will be the smoothest foundation for your frock. Fore-gore or bias cut. Lace or tailored trim full 48 inches long. White and glowing tea rose. Sizes 32 to 44. $119

Rudge & Guenzel Co. For More Than Fifty Years The Quality Store of Nebraska!

WANTED— 3 or 4 ambitious young men to solicit for the World Herald in Lincoln. A good proposition on a straight commission basis. See Calvert at 1929 O St., Lincoln.

Get All the Sport News Read The World Herald Carrier Service any-place in Lincoln 20c per week CALL B2351

HEAR THESE VICTOR RECORDS

Untrimmed Winter Coats —to wear until Christmas, or all winter, when economy is the issue. 16.50 MILLER & PALTE

FREDERICK BROS. MUSIC CORP. Presents IN PERSON THE ORIGINAL Hollywood DEBUT featuring PRISCILLA WATKINS AMERICA'S Most DANCEABLE ALL-GIRL ORCHESTRA AT THE TURNPIKE CASINO

Winter's Here Have your Hat and Overcoat Refreshed 10% Discount Cash and Carry The Evans 333 No. 12 B6961 Laundry-Cleaning

Wise Coeds Choose The Jamal Permanent • no machine • no electricity $6.50 Rudge & Guenzel Co.

Dormitory Fashions For Every Young Miss... Don't Live Without a ... Royal Robe ... Miss Swank Pajamas ... "Ho Hum" Sleepy Time Means "Tucky" Time ... Snug "Tucky" Pajamas ... "Tucky" Undies ... Ski Tights ... Rose Petal Slips Rudge & Guenzel Co. For More Than Fifty Years The Quality Store of Nebraska!