SEEN ON THE CAMPUS

Betas gathered around the mike singing the "Loving Cup" and looking startled by the addition of some unexpected feminine harmony . . . "Honey Chile" Winnett finding consolation with Burt Brian now that Jack Ellis is out of town . . . wonder what Jack Robertson said that got a certain Alpha Phi sufficiently riled to haul off and sock him . . . Phelps substituting for Pavey and doing a swell job of keeping Eleanor Compton entertained . . . pussywills in Hokey Weaver's hair looking cute but disturbing John Wolcott . . . Bobby Smith holding her breath while her date attempted to retrieve her corsage from the trampling hoofs . . . Poor Johnny Weingarten more embarrassed than his date when he stepped on her dress and she nearly lost it . . . the pride and joy of the Chi Omega house, the girl who can manipulate a straw in her mouth and turn it inside out . . . Betty Van Horne irking Arnie Levin by telling him that he is getting too fat . . . Clyde White doing a quick change Saturday night when trying to take in both the horse show and the formal . . . the Chi O's neon sign instead of the usual crest . . . phooey on the boy who wants to see Martha Raye and Joe E. Brown in a love scene . . .

VALENTINES and Valentine's day will provide the appointments tonight for buffet suppers at the houses of four university fraternities. At the Sigma Chi house the mothers club under the direction of Mrs. Cora Bentley will entertain for active members and their dates. At 6:30 o'clock the active chapter of Alpha Tau Omega and guests will be honored by the combined mothers club and auxiliary. Both pledges and actives will entertain this evening at the Kappa Sigma house when members of the mothers club will serve supper at 6:30 o'clock. Hostesses for a buffet supper at the Phi Gamma Delta house will be the mothers club also. In charge of arrangements are Mesdames G. S. Hamilton, L. E. Minier, D. E. Ruden, F. E. Melker, Richard Stout, E. G. Maggi, Darrel Hinkle and Fred Easterday.

IN A RECENT ELECTION members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon chose active officers for the second semester. They are: Archon, Buzz Fonda; deputy archon, Bill Ludwick; warden, Bob Thomson; herald, Jerry Hunt; recorder, Stanley Brewster; treasurer, Joe Shramek; and social chairman, Bruce Kenny.

WHEN PHI MU mothers met at the chapter house for luncheon Friday afternoon, plans were made to entertain members of the active chapter and their dates at a buffet supper in the near future. Using the patriotic theme in appointments, places were marked for 20. Hostesses were Mrs. Emerson Jones, Mrs. Earl Powell and Mrs. Oan Hancy.

JUDGE POLK of the municipal court was the featured speaker at the smoker given by Delta Theta Phi law fraternity recently. The smoker was held in the clubrooms of the law college.

THREE STUDENTS were pledged this week to fraternities. Frank Taylor of Earlville, Ill., is now affiliated with Delta Sigma Pi; Doane Anderson of Lincoln with Delta Theta Phi; and Kingsley Almond of Cozad with Acacia.

MORTAR BOARD'S 12 active members will meet for luncheon Monday noon at the Cornhusker hotel. Barbara DePute is in charge of arrangements.
