PROF. F. C. DIETZ TO TALK APRIL 17 ON DEPRESSIONS

Illinois Historian to Deliver Convocation Address In Temple.

Prof. Frederick C. Dietz, of the University of Illinois, will speak on the topic "The First Modern Depression, 1870." Friday morning at a university convocation to be held in the Temple theater at 11 o'clock.

As principal speaker of the annual meet of the state history teachers, which is being held with the university and the Lincoln public schools, Prof. Dietz will address the group today at 3:45 o'clock in Everett Junior high school on the topic "The New Deal in England." Other topics he will discuss in his talks during the three day session are "The Wonderful Generation—1850-1870," Friday evening at the University club, and "Historians I Have Known," which will be the final address on Saturday afternoon.

Prof. Senning on Program. An important part of the Saturday program will be Prof. John P. Senning's discussion of Nebraska's legislative experiment, which will be essentially an analysis of what the unicameral has accomplished. Other addresses will be given by Prof. J. L. Sellers.

PERSHING RIFLES HOLD NATIONAL CONVENTION IN LINCOLN SATURDAY

Second Regiment to March In Parade as Feature Of Meetings.

National Pershing Rifles will be on review to the public Saturday afternoon when the second regiment, convened for its third annual assembly, stages a grand parade that will be climaxed by competitions on the north mall.

Parade Through City. Opening the afternoon's festivities will be the parade, participated in by the four schools of the regiment, the University of Minnesota, the University of Iowa, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Nebraska.

Drill Squads Perform. About 3 o'clock the crack drill squads, smartly dressed platoons, and well-drilled sopherome and freshman members will start out on their competition for honors.

Pitfalls of Worldiness. Herb Yenne thinks the following statement from Dallman's "Art of Play Production" particularly a propos of columnar "Bad art is generally a product of insincerity, and insincerity flourishes best in sophisticated civilization."

Husker Queen Goes West

Mary Fislar, Chi Omega from Lincoln, after receiving congratulations of Mayor Charles Bryan, left at 3:25 Tuesday afternoon for Hollywood where she will compete with the most beautiful coed from each of four other mid-western universities for the privilege of taking a screen test and a possible future in films.

Miss Fislar was selected by members of the Comedian's Congress from 15 other Nebraska coeds who were considered for the honor. She was announced to the campus by Bob Shellenberg, Kosmet Klub president, and George Pipal, Daily Nebraskan editor, at the Tuesday evening performance of "Bar-Nothing Ranch."

Critic Finds Bar-O Ranch Hit But No Professionals

Last Reviewer Judges Show For Appeal to Students, Not New Yorkers.

By Howard Kaplan. "A Review of Reviews" would make a fitting title for this third and last criticism of "Bar-Nothing Ranch," Kosmet Klub's 1937 spring musical comedy written by Herb Yenne.

The weather Mr. Blair decreed that we must have the bad with the good and would not consent to letting up on our recent dust bath. Today it to be a repetition of yesterday.

PROF. DOWNS TO SHOW FILMS AT FAIR RALLY

Pictures to Acquaint New Students With Features This Evening.

Ag students will have an opportunity to see themselves as others see them tonight at the third Farmers Fair rally in Ag hall, room 306, when Professor F. A. Downs will show moving pictures of the Fairs held in the last few years.

The pictures will acquaint the freshmen and new students in Ag college with the Fair and the activities connected with it. The pictures have been taken by Professor Downs, Prof. L. K. Crowe and Prof. T. H. Gooding.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Publication to Appear On Stands Late This Week.

still has not been done, form the public demand which brings this sworn impartial review.

Factors entirely aside and apart from the personal opinions of any budding journalist declare the show to be entirely and absolutely a success, a real hit. Wednesday night's performance, in the showman's vernacular, was a sell-out.

Not Professionals. In the writer's mind, the annual Kosmet Klub shows stand in a class by themselves. They are not supposed to parallel nor should they be compared by any critic to a professional production.

Who was the Ivy Day orator candidate backed this year by TNE and their skull and cross bones insignia? What significance attaches to this nocturnal sidewalk application of the skull and cross bones which displaces the orthodox campaign cigars and soap box orations? What prominent member of the organization found his political zeal resulting in a flight thru the night pursued by what he describes as hordes of blue coats?

The story is abroad that one of the advocates of the "spiritual" life, imbued with the spirit of campaign enthusiasm—wended his uncertain and paint daubing way inadvertently in the direction of the police station.

Officers on duty, ever alert for unwary victims, seized him and placed him within an assembly room at the station. Aroused to righteous indignation against this untimely repression, the engaged campaigner opened the screen, crawled out, and halted a passing taxi-cab. Whereupon, the hordes of blue coats came into the picture.

SENATORIAL BODY WILL ISSUE FINAL VERDICT ON BILL

Majority Vote, Governor's Signature Needed for Building Program.

Hopes of university students for several much-needed new campus buildings may be brought nearer fulfillment, as far as the Nebraska unicameral legislature is concerned, when legislative bill No. 334 is given its final consideration this morning at 9 o'clock.

The bill provides for an added half-million levy on every $1,000 valuation. The revenue derived under the provision of the measure would create a state building fund, of which 35 percent would be allotted to the university for its building program. Fifty percent of the fund would be given to state institutions, and the remaining 15 percent would be presented to state normal schools.

Must Pass Third Reading. If passed at third reading today and then approved by the governor, bill No. 334 would provide the revenue in connection with bill No. 531 which provides for a state planning board and was passed by the assembly Tuesday morning. Legislative bill No. 531 was suggested by the governor himself. Sponsoring bill No. 344 are Senators Leland H. Hall of Roseland, Carl Peterson of Norfolk, Lester L. Dunn of Lincoln, and H. F. Brandt of Beatrice.
