Ocarina Trio. Another cowboy number, "I'm an Old Cowboy," will be played by an ocarina trio. The glee club and the band will again be heard at the close of the program. This time they will offer Wilbur Chenoweth's new song, "Hail Varsity."

Varsity show, has been assisting in the arrangements for the broadcast. Gordon Whyte, who has been on the campus for the past week and a half arranging for the broadcast, is greatly enthused over the prospects of the program. He believes that alumni all over the country will listen to a program broadcast from their alma mater. Special arrangements have been made in the coliseum to facilitate the crowd and to also make the acoustics of the large auditorium more favorable for broadcast.

JEAN WALT CROWNED 1937 QUEEN OF MAY

(Continued from Page 1.) bolero jacket that was held to a square neckline with two Copenhagen grosgrain bows. The skirt had a rhythmic movement in its swaying fullness, and was accented with Copenhagen grosgrain bows above its front hemline that was lifted slightly. Her headdress was made of silk net that formed a nebulous frame for her face, and was held to the head with a garland of small gardenias. Her open toe sandals and eight button length filet gloves matched her gown. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses. Remaining members of the queen's court included the Ivy and Daisy chains, the flower girls, crown bearer, and train bearers. The daisy chain members, dressed in pastel shades, included underclassmen from organized groups and the Ivy chain was made up of all senior women. Trek of the two chains to the royal throne at 10:30 marked the opening of the queen's procession.
