

A Lawyer Shows 'Em on the Track.

By Ed Steeves.

A lad by the name of Ray Burns, a senior in law college here at the university, took to his marks yesterday afternoon in the century dash of the intramural meet.

As he stretched out his long legs and breezed down the track in a warm up, Coach Indian Schulte sucked in his breath as if he were eating spaghetti. "There is a runner!" he exclaimed. "Watch him; he'll win."

He did. With the crack of the pistol he started stroking the track with those long legs of his and paced the boys into the tape. After the race the old coach hobbled out to the track with all the expectancy of a child after his first lolly pop.

"Why don't you come out for track, lad?" he queried. "You know how law school is," replied Burns.

Schulte nodded his head with grief penned between the lines in his brow. There was a runner, an expert, that he had never seen run until yesterday. He let him go after a long session of track patter, but he watched him all the rest of the afternoon.

"My that boy has a beautiful track form," gruffly whined Schulte as Burns left the field. Burns, it was learned later, was the medalist for two years in the sprints in the Iowa State high school meets a few years back. He has played around with track a little since then, but centered his attention on academics.

Tuesday afternoon we saw what we would call a "wild horse fly." Lloyd Cardwell was out on some contraption called a motor bike by authorities. It was nothing more than a bike with a small motor replacing the pedals. He roared up and down the streets for fully an hour waving to his friends and having a good time in general.

The vehicle was so small and Cardy so small and Cardy so large that he looked very much like he was embracing himself with his stalwart legs.

Oh there's no doubt about it; he's a "Card."

Day by day, Elmer Dohrmann, junior, is becoming the miracle man of the Husker athletic realm. Last year, after winning the athletic scholarship award as a freshman, he snatched the diamond letters from the athletic department. One in football, one in basketball, one in track, and one in baseball.

This week the big Staphurster went to the triangular meet and copped a second in the javelin. He then made a quick change and knocked out two doubles and a single for Wilbur Knight's nine. On his first hit the ball bounded over the fence on the first bounce and he could have easily have stolen home, but was called back to second.

TANKSTERETTES TO HEAR LINKS COACH THURSDAY

Ralph Beechner Will Discuss Article on Swimming, Life-Saving.

Ralph Beechner, athletic coach at Lincoln high school, will address a meeting of Tanksterettes Thursday night, May 13, in room 101, former museum, basing his talk on an article written by him and published in the American Athletic Journal on various types of swimming and life saving problems. Other important features of the meeting will include discussion of plans for the installation banquet to be held Saturday and an outdoor swim and picnic to be held in the near future.

Banquet plans at present include an installation ceremony in the club rooms at the Y. W. C. A., at 5:30 Saturday followed by the banquet at 6 o'clock. Martha Jackson is in charge of plans for installation of new officers. Members of the banquet committee include Martha Morrow and Betty Clements.

Cliff Edwards is thinking seriously of starting a correspondence school of the ukelele. He has been besieged by college students from all over the country asking him for the secret of his technique.

Acacia Garner Prelim Honors In Intramurals

Sigma Nu Places Second In First Day of Track Meet.

Acacia thundered over track and field in the preliminaries of the intramural trackfest yesterday afternoon to nose out Sigma Nu, the defending champions. Jim Mather, frosh flash and Acacia, burned up the cinders for individual honors with four blue ribbons.

Last year's champs, the Sigma Nu's placed seven men in the first day of the annual meet, Acacia landing eight. Finals of the meet will be run off this afternoon at four o'clock in Memorial stadium.

The pistol shot that started the century dash opened the meet. Mather ripped down the lane for a first in his heat and the best time of 10:02. Winners of the other two heats in the 100 yard dash were Capron and Burns, both Sigma Nu's.

Mather Wins 110 Yard. The 110 yard lows were a second chapter to the first sprint with Mather shooting across the tape for a win in his heat, but this time not the best time. Kahler, his fraternity brother and frosh hurdler, coasted in victorious in the third heat with a 13:02.

Mousel, Kappa Sigma, won the other heat with a 13:07. In the 220 Mather's time was again tops. This time a 23.1 netted him a first in the fastest heat. Irwin, Phi Kappa Psi, copped honors in the second heat.

Marks were comparatively low in the broad jump division except for the first four qualifiers. The winner was, of course, Mather with a 21.1 3-4. Second, third, and fourth men were the only others to leap over the 20 foot mark.

Pfeiff Heaves Shot. Shot put marks were also not so torrid with Bill Pfeiff's 40 feet 10 1/4 standing high. Ten men qualified, the last man getting under the wire with a 32 foot 5 1/2 inch toss.

This afternoon's events will include the finals of the events run yesterday plus high jump and the 880 relay. Pole vault, high hurdles, distance, and the distance runs are omitted from the schedule because of the lack of qualified entries among the Greeks.

Aside from Acacia and Sigma Nu, three other houses placed high. They are Delta Upsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Phi Kappa Psi.

Today decides Champ. The outcome of this afternoon's track meet spells the name of the receiver of 1936-37 intramural trophy. Should Acacia continue to gorge herself with first places tomorrow and win the meet, she should be the veritable all-sport king of the year.

The summary: 100 yard dash: First heat—1, Mather, Acacia, 10.2; Irwin, Phi Kappa Psi, 10.4; 2, Luther, Delta Upsilon. Third heat—1, Burns, Sigma Nu, 10.4; 2, Sackett, Delta Upsilon.

110 yard low hurdles: First heat—1, Mather, Acacia, 13.4; 2, Spencer, Sigma Phi Epsilon. Second heat—1, Mousel, Kappa Sigma, 13.7; Valley, Theta Chi. Third heat—1, Kahler, Acacia, 13.2; 2, Luther, Delta Upsilon.

220 yard dash: First heat—1, Mather, Acacia, 23.1; Jones, Alpha Sigma Phi; 3, McDermott, Delta Upsilon. Second heat—1, Irwin, Phi Kappa Psi, 23.7; 2, Luther, Delta Upsilon; 3, Burns, Sigma Nu.

Qualifiers for broad jump: Mather, Acacia, 21.1 3-4; 2, Rohrig, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; 3, Kahler, Acacia; 4, Thomas, Sigma Nu; 5, Spencer, Sigma Phi Epsilon; 6, Norse, Sigma Nu; Irwin, Phi Kappa Psi; Mousel and Jones, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu respectively, tied; Luther, Delta Upsilon.

Qualifiers for shot put: Pfeiff, Kahler, Acacia; 3, Doyle, Alpha Gamma Rho; 4, Rohrig, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Seaman, Phi Kappa Psi; 6, From, Sigma Phi Epsilon; 7, Smith, Acacia; 8, Baldwin, Alpha Tau Omega; 9, Dobson, Sigma Nu; 10, Munsen, Delta Upsilon.

Uncle Sam has done rather well by students in the flood area. Allocation of $106,460 has been made to youthful flood sufferers and $71,160 of this amount is earmarked for student aid. These funds are to enable high school and college students to continue their studies. The flood disaster has seriously impaired their families' resources, in many instances, that without outside help they would have had to quit school. More than $38,000 will go to college students and $32,910 to students attending high school.

We didn't think they want in for it anymore, but it looks like they still do.

It seems that Flora Peterson, a coed at Wheaton college, Illinois, saw Frederick's picture in a paper and hurled a challenge at T. C. U.'s Doc Jekyll.

"I saw your picture in the Chicago Tribune today," she wrote, "and I challenge your title." She enclosed her picture and finished off Frederick with "I may not be beautiful, but I made the honor roll! Did you?"

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

THREE

Speedy Simmons.

From Lincoln Journal

Here comes Bob Simmons, ace sophomore quarter miler, steaming down the track as he warms up for the Big Six championships here May 21 and 22.

The elongated distance running youngster may be one of the nearly extinct first year winners. His time of 50 seconds will have to be clipped a little at the corners to place him in the big meet.

NEBRASKA SLUGGERS BAT OUT 7-5 VICTORY OVER OKLAHOMA NINE

Baker, Jacobson, George Hit Leading Stride For Huskers.

Nebraska sluggers batted out five consecutive hits and scored as many runs in a fifth inning rally to come from behind in their game with the hitherto undefeated Oklahoma team yesterday and then went on to ice the game with a two run splurge in the eighth for its only win in the three game series.

Zoth, ace hurler for the three time co-champions of the Big Six loop, held the Husker hitters in check until the fourth when he eased out of a tight hole after two men had singled.

The local boys broke loose in the next frame. White, first up, went down swinging, but Harris Andrews, stocky hurler for Nebraska, was fed four balls and a free ticket to first. Jacobson then singled, Andrews going to third on the play. Eddie George, dapper shortstop, doubled sending both men home. Pete Baker followed with a two bagger and George scampered home. Amen drove a hard liner into right for a single. Baker scoring, Dohrmann doubled sending Amen home. Oklahoma had a men in the bull pen warming up but Zoth tightened and Harris and English fled out, but not before five runners had crossed the plate.

Error In Fifth. Oklahoma had found Harris Andrews for a run in each of the first and second innings. Burnett, leadoff man for the southerners, walked, went all the way to third on an infield out, and crossed the plate on a wild pitch. Twyman walked in the second, got the second, and scored on a single by the pitcher.

A double by Burnett, a walk to Monroe, a sacrifice by Brittain and a single by Hunter, coupled with Borman's error at the plate, were good for two runs in the fifth.

Following Nebraska's five run orgy in the fifth to take the lead, the Sooners came back to tie the count in the sixth as Thomas doubled to deep centerfield and came home on Twyman's hit. This finished the Sooner scoring.

N. U. Leads in Eighth. Nebraska's nine tallied in the eighth to take the lead and the game as Amen worked Zoth for a walk and scored as Dohrmann doubled hard to left field. His blow hopped over the barrier but ground rules held the hit to a two bagger. He scored as Klein singled in his first time at the plate. Schmadeke went in to hurl for the Huskers in the eighth and retired the visitors with a lone blow in the final two cantos.

Baer at shortstop for the visitors set some kind of a record when he went the entire nine frames without a putout or an assist.

KAPPAS TO DEFEND RELAY TITLE IN SPECIAL MEET

Tri Delt, Theta Will Vie With Champions for Triumph Today.

In what promises to be a highly spirited contest, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, and Kappa Alpha Theta will vie for the 100 yard free style relay title in a special invitation swimming meet, sponsored by Tanksterettes today in the coliseum pool at five o'clock.

Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta

Delta Delta relay teams splashed the course at the recent intramural meet only a few seconds slower than the Kappas, and are anxious to better the winner's time of 1 minute and 10 seconds.

Novelty races will supplement the competitive program. Spectators are welcome.
