The membership of Kosmet Klub is limited at the present time to 15 men who are chosen from the upper three classes on a basis of work done for the Klub during the year. The work created by the two shows is handled by a system of committees headed by the Klub members. The "workers," as the men aspiring to membership are called, are assigned to the various committees, and thru their work on these committees they show the Klub their abilities and talents.

Retiring officers are Robert Shellenberg, president; Ross Martin, business manager, and Roy Kennedy, secretary. Other members lost by graduation this June include Floyd Baker, Theo Bradley, Robert Funk, Roy Kennedy, Vance Leininger, William Marsh, George Pipal and Gordon Uhri. Returning members are Donald Boehm, Winfield Elias, Robert Martz, Webster Mills and Thurston Phelps. Prof. E. F. Schramm, who is faculty advisor, gave the principal address at the banquet.

"Pliny the Elder," is the Roman name of a trick-performing rat owned by B. Frederick Skinner, instructor in psychology at the University of Minnesota.
