AS JOHNNY SEES IT.

Cropping up about the campus are herds of bachelors clubs most notable of which is the Klondike club. Proprietors of the club are Messrs. Meiring and Doud who state that entrance is gained by invitation only. Memberships now stand at two. The club rooms are located at the proprietor's apartment (2 rooms) where there are rugs on the floor and running water, cold and cold.

I see that that want-ad concerning the "brown skirt lost at the corner of 12th and R streets" is still finding its way into the columns of the rag. This definitely proves one of two things; either there is a crying need for a greatly improved zipper, snap, or other skirt holder-upper or the editorial stand taken by Editor Murray of this sheet is indeed commendable. (See Nebraska Sept. 24.) If it were spring, I might even write an editorial myself concerning said campus morality.

The Deltas have acquired a couple of mascots in the form of two terriers. Doc Lynn Thompson, tells the boys that a blessed event is in the offing. Some of the financial wizards are starting a pool on the number of pups.

The Theta's and D. G.'s are open housing Saturday p. m. It looks like a photograph finish between a Cord and two radies.

And the Burney-Walcott feud waxes hot and hot and hot. For more comfortable waging of the battle, pipe smoking Bus. Mgr. Wadhams is considering the purchase of a new overstaffed for the manager's alleged desk.

AS MARY ANNA SEES IT

The Kappa's seem to be getting their little freshmen dates with all the BIG seniors—witness the Ann Husted-Harlan Fergus combination they've arranged for the Chi Phi house party Saturday night.

And it's really going to be quite the affair. The boys on "D" street will be doing themselves proud with their Chi Phi Insane Asylum theme. Their parties are always fun, but this one sounds extra special.

MAYBE YOU CAN TELL US WHY

Tri Delt's Ruth Ludwick and Johnny Folsom of Beta fame are back together again every now and then. Is he any older this year, Ruthie?

So many little girls have been hobbling about lately. They seem to be a little stiff from "sucker baseball" as someone termed that current intra-mural sport.

PI PHI KISSES.

They say that June Stebbins is having her new Pi Phi pin done in diamonds and sapphires to match Harry Prouty's that she's been wearing since last Saturday night. Looks like the D. U.'s will get their weekly cigar next Monday night.

SHE'LL PROBABLY BE CHEWING THE RAG.

Incidentally, Terry York was a bit burned up about the forecast of her candy passing with Smith Davis. They had planned to treat the boys and girls the night of the D. U. house party, but it's no go now. She claims she's going to eat all the candy herself and Smith can't smoke the cigars.

The boys at the barn have been suggesting in a more or less forceful way that Dick Kosman "come across" soon, so it seems to be either cigars or the tub for Dick.

While on the subject of Dick, I might tell you about the girl who called the Theta house the other night and asked for Dick. All the little K. A. T.'s and their Kitty sang "Every Night She Calls Him Up" just to make him unhappy.

LITTLE MAN WHAT NOW?

Does Sig Alpha pledge, Leonard Jacobson's mother know he smokes a big black stogie? Shame on you, Jake.

SOCIAL WHIRL.

The active chapter of A. O. Pi honored their national president, Mrs. Patricia Drummond, at tea from 3 to 5 Wednesday. Guests included members of the mothers' club and the alliance. The tea table was done in cream and brown.

Bankhead and Fonda in "Camille."

Tallulah Bankhead and Henry Fonda, stage and screen stars, will be heard tonight in the leading roles of "Camille," during the inaugural program of Kate Smith's new series which will be aired over KFAB at 7 p. m.

Miss Bankhead recently scored a radio success in the CBS Shakespearean production of "elfth Night" as Viola. Noted among her successes on the legitimate stage have been "Forsaking All Others," "Dark Victory," "Reflected Glory" and "Rain." She is the daughter of William B. Bankhead, speaker of the house of representatives, and this will mark her first public appearance since her recent marriage to John Emery, actor.

Henry Fonda, a native Nebraskan, is also well known on the stage and in pictures. His recent works on the stage have been in "We Who Are about to Die" and "The Farmer Takes a Wife."

"Camille" was written by the younger Alexander Dumas, and is a subjective study of the ill-fated love of a woman for a young man of different social status.

Others on the Smith program will include Henny Youngman, comedian, Jack Miller and his orchestra, producer Ted Collins and Andre Baruch the announcer. Also, Miss Smith will revive the "Com-

Coeds Let Down Their Hair When Intramurals Call

When attractive dressed-to-the-minute coeds go out for a delightful and charming game of bridge, that's routine. But when these same so-called ladies change suddenly from their sophisticated countenance to care-free unpolished tom-boys, that's intramurals.

Yes, many a petite young coed has had to let her hair down, bury her good old family pride in the waste-basket and go out for soccer-baseball, first and one of the most thrilling of the girls intramural sports.

Practices for soccer-baseball began last week and will continue for the remainder of this week. The elimination tournament which winds up the soccer-baseball season begins Oct. 4. To date about 17 different teams have reported for practice, with approximately 225 girls participating. All unaffiliated girls are urged to sign up for the practices, and participate in the tournament which is to be officiated by Miss Shelby, Pat Pope, and Helen Goodman.

Houses having teams registered so far are: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Freshman Barbs, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu, Raymond Hall, Rosa Bouton, Sigma Delta Tau, Sigma Kappa and Sophomore Barbs.

Bob Stanley, who during the summer has been heard on from five to eight programs a week over the Mutual network, will regularly conduct the important sustaining programs emanating from the east this fall over Mutual. Stanley replaces Nat Brusloff who resigned last July.

Bobby Dolan, Al Goodman and Richard Himer have been chosen to conduct "Your Hit Parade" programs over the Columbia network Saturdays from 9:00 to 9:45. Dolan made a guest appearance on the program last Saturday and will return Nov. 13 to take up his duties as maestro and will remain until Dec. 18. Al Goodman will be heard from Oct. 2 thru Nov. 6. Christmas day will bring Richard Himer to be heard, continuing thru Jan. 29.

DAIRY CLUB DISCUSSES SCHEDULE FOR YEAR

Varsity Group Makes Plans At First Meeting Under New President.

Under the new president Arrel Wasson, the Varsity Dairy club met for the first time Tuesday evening in the Dairy Industrial building. The general schedule for the coming school year comprised the major business of the assembly.

No new pledges have been elected to the club, thus the meeting was attended by old members only. Elwin Willet of Michigan State college and Fredrick Howard of the University of Vermont, post graduate students in the dairy husbandry department attended.

The second Tuesday of each month was set aside as the regular meeting time of the club thru the ensuing year.

Other officers are Floyd Mechem, Grand Island, vice president; Alvin Ripper, Bladen, secretary and treasurer; and Eldridge Beaver, Virginia, reporter.
