JOHN HOWELL

AS JOHNNY SEES IT.

After a decade of attempts Nebraska has done it—they tromped the all powerful Minnesota football team. So tonight we celebrate and tomorrow morning we crawl out of bed wearily; if we crawl out at all. It has taken the boys till now, quite late in the day, to realize the feat we accomplished this afternoon. Minnesota was our opponent, and we conquered them, finally.

Whoopie will reign supreme tonight along fraternity and sorority row, in the downtown hotels, and in every nook and cranny of this victory crazed football town.

Dampening the squad's festivities tonight, however, will be the thought of Eldon McIlravy, our fullback who was critically hurt this afternoon. If it hadn't been for Mac backing up that line, perhaps we wouldn't be celebrating.

Well here we go, so do not disturb us until Monday.

Y.W. GROUPS TO MEET FOR FROSH EDUCATION

Commission Members to Hold Initial Discussions In Ellen Smith.

Initial meetings of Y. W. Freshman Commission groups will be held all week in Ellen Smith hall under the direction of Y. W. C. A. members.

Women students may attend these groups without being members of the organization. The purpose of freshman commissions has always been to acquaint neophytes with campus traditions and familiar campus terms as well as discussing personal problems of etiquette, boy and girl relations and the value derived from college.

Leaders of the groups and the time they will hold meetings are as follows: Mary Arbitman, Monday at 10 a. m.; Betty Clizbe, Tuesday at 2 p. m.; Lois Cooper, Tuesday, at 4 p. m.

Kay Lindbald will meet with her group Wednesday at noon; Elizabeth Smith, Wednesday at 4 p. m.; Muriel White, Thursday at 2 p. m.; Eleanor Anderson, Thursday at 4 p. m., and Marjorie Meyer, Friday at 11 a. m.

Students who have not yet signed up for any group may do so at any time in the Y. W. office in Ellen Smith hall.
