

JOHN HOWELL ~

Society

wends its way northward,

we welcome our players back, win,

fuses with them, more or less leaving the actives in the dark about the whole deal. While their elders meal with fingers rather than works, two fire engines and an

But that was not enough. Three fire. By this time, all was not

AND AT THE D. U. HOUSE.

The boys at the barn are inclined the pillow fight staged out there one night last week was the abso-

lose or draw?

a Chi Phi.

lute payoff.

By Johnny Howell—Quarterback

Mary Anna Cockle

AS JOHNNY SEES IT

CHICAGO, Ill,-Here we sit in town of towns a few loyal Husker fans straggled down to the platbatch of fudge on his return. If the rest of us could only cook! form as a welcoming committee It reminded me of the slug of youngsters who meet the team at the entrance of the Grand hotel in Lincoln where we eat. On emerging after a meal the whole Fleetwood, Theta, and K. K. G. team is swarmed by the kids for Ruth Newell are sharing that popautographs. The boys were all a little puffed up after signing a few cards, autograph books and footballs but they looked like a pin-to the scene, Biff Jones kisses his stuck balloon when they found wife and two children adieu, all the out why the kids wanted them. where he parked the car. Wonder They collect several from each player and then barge around lo- if Mrs. Jones ever found it after cal high schools and the campus selling them for 10 cents a crack.

Of course our production

All was in an uproar the other day at Tri Delta and Acacia houses when it was thought that a romance had been abruptly ter-When Betsey Allen turned up at her house sans the pin, the gals huddled in the corners getting set to hash over a choice bit of gossip. The same thing happened up capito' way George Place stalked into the house with the jewels show-ing up like a beacon. The bottom out, the, when the guy and suppose, is awfully busy suppressgal straightened the matter out. seems that Betsey lost the pin in its throat. Why not take part in George's car and Georgie, finding it, slapped it on his vest for in the little drama that is to be safe keeping until he could see his staged next Monday morning when one and only.

With student union enthusiasm picking up around the campus action, camera!

The Chi Phi pledge some of the confirmed are beginning to wonder what they will do for third floor room service when formal season rolls 'round, not only swiped the silverware, but managed to take the light

Embarrassed indeed recently was sedate Prof. E. H. Bell, anthropology instructor deluxe. professor, during one of his whiz- gathered about to eat a gloomy zy lectures, suddenly found himself the center of much laughter. loud and long, on the part of his Puzzled, he continued to strut back and forth across the platform speeling his lecture. Finally he caught on. There was a woman's sheer stocking dangling in the rear.

AS MARY ANA SEES IT

Today we present a scene from the life of a Cornhusker. The actakes place at the Burlington Depot; the time, Wednesday night; the occasion, a royal send-off for the team. Enter the chief characters, the team. From now on the performance takes on the apparance of a many ringed cir-

In a secluded spot, we find Tri Delt Frances Knudtzon attired in body else got the brilliant idea of rowed from the department. The so another helpful soul furnished donor, Jack Dodd is bidding her the shaving cream, will take the air following that, work, play tennis, and date, of the Shaving cream, goodbye in no uncertain terms, and is his face red when a group of this slapstick turned the hose into spectators show their appreciation one of the dormitories. Fillow for his efforts.

Gamma Barbara Meyer giving is in rather bad condition at pres-Fred Shirey that Meyer specialty, ent. a lost-her-last-friend look, while she tearfully parts with her hero PITY THEM. for four long days. Maybe it's the thought of the D. G. house party asked to answer the telephones that gives Fred that wistful, far- "Pity Pitt." The Alpha Xi Delta can't help but notice Jean Cham- Call them sometime to see for bers behind a shiny new Kappa yourself.

IT'S AT THE LINCOLN Friday

The most of her last few minutes with Bill Andreson, night. A. C. B. C's, Ag College Jean, for some reason or other, has Boarding club, are having their donned a corsage for the occasion. fall party. Promises to be inter-If you scan the mob carefully esting,

AG SIGHTS, SOUNDS

House

By Bob Rupp.

NORRIS SHORT stretched out

WES DUNN failing half way

PAUL MUNSON asleep in dairy class it took the whole class to

Free Theater Tickets

Leaded Bronze Gas 171/20

White Gas 131/20

Deep Rock Oils

HOLMS AW St.

Only 3 More Chances

to See the Circle"

Presented by

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

Temple

Theater

Sat. Matiner 2:30 Evenings 7:30

"Squaring

wake him when the bell rang.

darn steps will move around!

DELIAN UNION MEMBERS WILL PICNIC AT PIONEER

over two chairs, asleep in Ec. 11 Barb Group Plans Informal WILL PITNER getting the Social Event Tonight names of all the girls in chorus class-it's hell week at the Farm at 6:30 O'clock

Members and guests of Delian down stairs in Ag. Hall. Those Union will hold a picnic at Pio-

ERIC THOR voluntarily holding neers park this evening. up his hand to a question in Bot-Meeting at the Delian Union hall on the third floor of Temple The A. G. R.'s be oaning the building at 6:30 p. m., the picnickers will go by auto to the park fact that some one swiped $25 where Ruth Griffith and John Pease will supervise the amuse-ments while Marie Willey and likely be on KFAB. HAROLD PETERSON walking back from swimming class be-cause he left his bill fold at home

Donna Willman will provide the and didn't have enough for a bus refreshments.

ullding bounced up and hit him in the eye.
EDDIE KLOSTERMEYER vol-O. T. C. DEPARTMENT PLANS ORGANIZATION unteering to give a speech in Eng-OF NEW TRAINING UNIT

(Continued from Page 1.) Harold Ledford chairman of the organization committee for the new unit and Wade Raser, public-ity chairman for the Infantry Officers association, Walter Stroud was elected finance officer of the organization. Plans for a membership drive were also discussed. Lewandowski Will Map Iowa-Indiana Grid Clash

Adolph Lewandowski, frosh Saturday, announced Major Law-rence Jones. The hapless Iowans the bachelor of laws degree. will conclude the Huskers' home schedule at Memorial stadium Nov

Haircuts 35°

GEYERS BARBER SHOP 1021 N St.

SCOUT FRATERNITY TAKES BLOOD TESTS Reporter

Alpha Phi Omega Members Register at Hospitals for Transfusions.

Testing of blood for emergency ou'll be just in time to see Bill transfusions by Alpha Phi Omega Calahan blush as the object of his members is nearing completion ICAGO, Ill.—Here we sit in When we dragged into this cake baked by her own itty bitty scout fraternity have had their scout fraternity have had their hands. She even promises him a blood tested either at the Lincoln General hospital or at St. Elizabeth's hospital. Lincoln General Ah, but there is intrigue going hospital is seeking only type three on right under our very nose. Two blood, while St. Elizabeth and of Bob Ramey's current flames Bryan's hospitals will place the have turned up, probably the betblood type of all the boys on file. ter to keep an eye on Bob. Virginia to be called in case of emergency need of blood for transfusions. By Thursday only types 2 and 4 blood had been found

To add a bit of human interest The fraternity signed a contract page picture at a cabinet meeting while muttering something about Wednesday. Ways and means of sending three delegates to the na- you spend your spare time?" tional convention at Kansas City Dec. 11 and 12 were considered. Of course our production would Plans for a party to be held soon never be complete without the inevitable Chuck Tanton and his Committees recently appointed Beechnut. And what is even more important the lady's man, Johnny by the scout service fraternity are: Howell. We'll use the opera glasses Arthur Hill, Frances finance. Liebershal; program, John Mc-Bride, chm., Jean Jack; projects, George Vlasnik and Neil Hand; to get a close-up of our hero. It couldn't be, but, yes, it is a group of wide-eyed high school girls and they alone, gathered round him. We coeds must be slipping. music, Fred Remington; communi cations, Henry Jensen; rushing Remington, Carol Garey The scene closes. As the special John McBride: pledging, Bob Roland and Bill Williams; scout relaband strikes up "There is No Place tions, Willys Foster, Elton Wiley Like Nebraska." The crowd, we and B. B. Dawson; publicity, Ellsworth Steele, and faculty relations. Instructor W. S. Gregory of the ing those chilly feelings running uu and down its spine, and the lumps university and Harold Nootz,

Highlights On the air

By Elwood Randol.

Four men from the local stations are traveling with the Cornhuskers on their journey to Pittsburgh and will be on hand at the Panther stadium Saturday to give Nebraska fans a vivid account of ambulance steamed up the street, sirens screeching, bells ringing, the annual tussle with the Smoky City crew, Reggie Martin will do the announcing with John Shafer formidable firemen clad in boots acting as an observer. Al Bater and carrying a ladder entered the and Herbert Kimberly will perfect and Herbert Kimberly will perfect house evidently hell bent for the the arrangements for the remain control broadcast which will origquiet on the western front. You'd inate more than a thousand miles better not mention the incident to from the home studio.

Time Change The game will be on the air one hour earlier than usual because of the difference in time between to be bit playful at times. We've Lincoln and Pittsburgh, Pre-game heard the games of hide and go seek they play on the balcony, but dope will be on the air at 12:45 c. s. t. and the game will start at 1. KFOR will carry a double feature football program with the senior Army-Notre Dame game described were flying, and

In vengeance the victim of all start at about 3:30 or 3:45. Poska Promoted.

Al Posga, former chief announcfeathers, unlike those of a duck, do Off in another corner is Delta not shed water, so the D. U. house to the position of assistant pro-Los Angeles, key station of the Hearst, Poska was a former stu- and studying. dent of the university and was a way look.

In the center of the stage we phrase by doing theirs pig Latin.

In the center of the stage we phrase by doing theirs pig Latin.

Scripts that will be used in forth.

Resalie Moti. Teachers college experience to see for the stage with coming Big Town episodes starring Eddie G. Robinson and Claire senior: Trever. Miss Langford was also a member of the University Play-Town is heard on KFAB Tuesday nights at 7. Lyman from Pitt.

Link Lyman, line coach for the Huskers, will do his Friday and after the game. The Standard show is on KFOR and WOW.

Clarence Cameron White, noted Negro violinist and composer, will time for be presented in a program devoted to his own music as a Columbia network feature tomorrow morning at 9:15. He will be assisted by that takes up my time." Bob Downing, baritone, and Clara Oglesby Lyman and Henry Lange,

Oliva de Haviland and Brian coking corner, too, Aherne will present excerpts from Gloria Schleiger, Arts and Sciences however, it is necessary to have will deliver a paper on "The cost VERLIN JOHNSON with a hing by attending a movie at one dairy building bounced up and his

Goodman on the Your Hit Parade dates, but once in a great while I ished. program which is heard Saturdays do get some time. on Columbia and KFAB at 9 p. m. Warren Day, Engineering college Senator Norris delivered the char-Salter establishes an unusual rec- freshman: ord of being the only bandsman Your Unseen Friend spot at 7 and physically."

now the Lucky Strike program. ing staff at KOIL is Don Lawrence, formerly of Des Moines, studying and trying to get a distinguished speaker. But the November 8. Lawrence has many ing with the lows network, KSO and ing "Besides that, swimming, diving, "Besides that, swimming, diving, and that's November 8. Lawrence has been lowing a program of outside readcontrol coach, will map the Iowa- KRNT, since his graduation from Indiana grid game at Iowa City Drake university last spring with squash, tennish, movies, and that's

Inquiring

We have been told that today's young people refuse to spend their why, they say, they are going to the dogs.

On that score at least, Nebraska need never worry about her youth. "Reading, studying, and with the Cornhusker for a full outdoor sports, as well as sleeping" were the most frequent answers to the question "How do Another thing -out of a total of 13 interviewees, but two girls ad-> and none of the boys offered that pastime as a means for spending some of their extra time. Guess coupling up is on the decline. If nothing else, we hope we have stimulated a little self consciousness on the part of the individual student, Most of those interviewed were not conscious that their spare hours were gribbling down the drain of wasted time. How do you

mitted that they sometimes date spend your spare time? Yvonne Gaylord, Teachers col-ever, when I do, I knit, play the trumpet, and read-I enjoy reading a lot, but I rarely have the time. Occasionally, I roller skate Donald Bayles, Arts and Sciences

"Mostly loafing, 1 get to relax so seldom that when I do get the chance, I do what I like, I go to shows and dances, too. It's an important part of your education to learn to use your leisure time. "My hobby is working cross-word puzzles—they help me to re-

Irene Sellers, Bizad junior. "I haven't very much. When I do get some extra time, I go to a dow, play bridge, or dance, I have these things it's just the idea of getting away from my lessons

"Lots of times, if I have only a few minutes. I practice my accordion, joke with my room-mate, or large group of auditors near him lie down. If I have a few hours, I actually to lose contact with what go to a show, or go over to the is going on. And the problem is for some ping-pong.

makes a feliow feel more like Maxine Dick, Arts and Sciences

"I don't have very much leisure someone topped Charlie Ashly by Columbia's Ted Husing and the with a pillow, splitting it wide open (the pillow, I mean). Someone the pillow, I mean). Someone topped Charlie Ashly by Columbia's Ted Husing and the time I do, however, like very much to read the papers—it's an excellent to read the papers—it' an athletic underwear shirt bor- tar and feathering poor Charlie at 1:10 while the Minnesota fray shows, listen to the radio, do house-

Lamont Peterson, Arts and Sciences junior:

gram director of station KEHE, spent in doing what I have tomostly coming over to the library

"My whole week, at least till. member of the University Players. Friday, is filled up with classes Another former Nebraskan who and studies so the week-end is all has made good, is Beth Langford, that I have When one of my very coliseum,

Rosalie Moti, Teachers college

"I study, of course, every once in awhile; but mostly I relax. I of departing guests. ers, having played leading roles in like to catch up on all the news. "The Curtain Rises" and "The too—so I read the papers and Return of Peter Grimm." Big listen to the radio quite a bit.

might be classified as relaxation. Rundell Peterson, Ag college jun- the university is entitled

Saturday night broadcasts for Standard Oil from Pitt this week. Link will be on the air immediately reading follows the pattern of my reading follows the pattern of my school work. I read the newspapers, too. They are about the only outside reading which I have

"On week entis, I usually find something else to do, but during the week, it's studies and reading Anonymous, Bizad sophomore: "I just relax-if I do that, I feel who will play the organ and plane better prepared to study when I do accompaniments. The program will begin. Of course, during school

"If there's a good show in town, of Hollywood Hotel this evening I go to it. If there isn't, I like to sit and read some good book or Harry Salter, popular dance magazine, My spare time is band macatro, will replace Al usually filled up pretty well with "Athletics none in particular, heard on three nationwide network I enjoy all kinds of sports. Of he had been talking 15 minutes, son is chairman of the committee programs on Columbia each week. course, I go to some shows, and By the time he had reached the on committees. His music is featured on Hobby read once in awhile, but taking middle of his address there was a Lobby Wednesday evenings and on part in sports combines having a continual stream of persons leav-Saturday night he is heard on the good time and being good for me ing the building, and before he had

senior:

STERNIE STERNBERG A fine swing band that always turns in a good performance, King's is convenient—continuous bus service Tonight 254 COMING NAT TOWLE, the big man from the wouth, Saturday and Sunday. DELUXE BALLROOM

Hindu Author Places $500 Price on "Worthless" Book

Fantastic Shakespearean Treatise.

"Although the Hindu author of the soul." knows a lot about Shakespeare, his book isn't worth anything for from the smallest shread of evidence," stated Professor Scott. university Shakespearean scholar.

"Sheets Might Spoil." Subbaran produced his "masternece" under dire financial stress, one section being printed several years before the rest. He decided, although unable to work due to lack of free time, to publish what he had already writmight get spoiled, or accidents imagination indeed," but may be held up to ridicule as "I never have a great deal. How- realization the "prejudice, preconception and purblind perception" thor himself heartily agreed.

Scott's Collection Includes | cannot prevent the recognition and appreciation of truth forever,

Perform Pecuniary Somersault, Subbaran says, "Just one word about the fancy price which I "Hamlet Unveiled," a $: 90 vol- have placed on this volume: "Cerume "printed on stout paper and tainly, I do not hope to find purhandsomely bound in red with chasers at that price, so I may gold crest" now graces Prof. R. easily perform a pecuniary somersault, I have printed an edition of D. Scott's library. Originally pre- but 100 copies, intending them for sented by its Hindu author, Ren- presentation and publication; and tala Venkata Subbaran, to Prof. may I not put a value on my L. A. Sherman, distinguished mate? Yet, it is not as much as Shakespearean at Nebraska, the some of my compeers have made spare time constructively. That is book was later given to Professor by inferior work, with less effort of the intellect and none whatever Naively, Subbaran included "se book isn't worth anything for lect press opinions" of his other draws fantastic conclusions literary attempts, "Othello Unand "Kamala's Letters to Her Husband" in the volume. The clippings range from prominent English papers to local Indian publications. The voice of approval and praise waxes stronger as the clippings near the author's home-

700 Pages-"Noticeable."

Some of the opinions on "Kamala's Letters" run: "A most exten for he was "beginning to fear traordinary production. . . the crethat the sheets already printed ation of a very high order of fear of armed revolution. might deprive the world of what able book. . . well written " Approval of "Othello Unveiled" takes Subbaran declares in the preface this form: "In every respect a that he is aware that his notes on Shakespeare's great tragedy enormous and evergroing literature is merely national in scope and may not only not be appreciated, that centers round Shakespeare, (indeed a 700 page volume should liance. Will the United States be the offshoots of a morbid imagina- be noticeable), and "We heartily tion. He finds consolation in his hope that the work will have a large circulation" to which the au-

Student Pulse

It seems right to transmit to the students of the University of Nebraska immediately after the convocation address by Dr. Foster, an impression gained from the platform which is not favorable to the auditors. No one will for any moment say that any auditor is flattered when isolated members no particular reason for doing any of his audience begin dropping off 20 minutes before his speaking time is over

This painful impression is re-Bob Ellsworth, Teachers college inforced by the fact that the Temple theater was never built for interim departure. The person who leaves during a talk causes a all the more serious because we An hour or two of relaxation are like sheep, and when we see someone departing we are moved to follow. The noise that comes to the platform from these departures is very disturbing, and in- such a man! duces in the speaker a sense of When the girls see our competi-

I think it is only fair to remain no jealousy among them, in the auditorium the full length of time officially allotted to the Our friend makes his little vis "The way in which I spend my ple theater. No one should leave the briefness of his stay be alter their engagements. These are not so much my suggestions as they are those of Carl Sandburg, who, even in the vast greater equanimity but even he faltered toward the end of his speech because of the distraction

May I urge upon the student body in the future to give the speaker his full allottment of time "On week-ends there are shows, before making any effort at departies, and dates of course they parture? This is an elementary courtesy to which any guest of

HARRY KURZ. Chairman Convocations Com.

And in Addition

Dear Editor I would like to add my endorsewe have had as our convocation carrier. speakers men and women of national or international reputation The opportunity to see and hear people of this type is one of the finest which the university can offer Students and members of hours I spend some time in a the faculty should make the most home economics sectional meeting the co-operation of those who at- of engineering education in land tend the lectures. But this co- grant colleges and universities as ence come in late and when they ing section. leave before the lecture is fin-finished speaking more Lan half Phil Deming, Arts and Sciences of his original audience and left. This was probably our worst of-"I spend most of my time in fense against a well-known and same kind of conduct can be observed at any of our larger con-Mr. Foster spoke in the Temple last Thursday.

The noise created by those who come late and leave early is most distracting for those who wish to follow the lecture. And what kind terference which the Monroe docof an impression of our university trine warns against and which has must it give to our guest speak-ers? It is true that in the past than a hundred precedent setting students have not been the only offenders. But it is time for a real reformation if our convocation programs are to be successful, CHARLES H. PATTERSON.

Coeds Welcome

'Most Popular' Man on Campus

To be welcomed by all the girls, all the time, at all the organized houses on this campus sounds impossible, Strange? But there is welcomed by all the girls there is Short Visits.

speaker, especially when that au-ditorium happens to be the Tem-won't even pause to take tea. Could er at KFAB, has been promoted spare time is not usually the way before 10 minutes to 12, in any source of his popularity? When that I would like to. It's usually case. Those who are obliged by he fails to come for a day or two. their engagements to leave early the girls get busy and notify the should not come at all or should authorities. Say fellows, have you guessed yet who this man could

If you don't recognize this person, you should. He comes to your houses too. You like him also, and sometimes go out to meet him in your bathrobe. You think there is little darger of his being a competitor because he is a married

News From Home. The tidings which he brings are not always welcome. Often, ever, he brings news of the folks back home. He knows where many people live and is familiar with streets and addresses and can locate hundreds of towns on the He doesn't drive a spanking new Lincoln Zephyr. He humbly trudges down the street, carrying his knapsack. Perhaps you haven't guessed his ment to what Professor Kurz said identity yet because he goes relative to the conduct of those under several names. What are who attend the university convo- they" Well, some folks call him cation. During the last two years the postman and others the mail

> Frankforter Addresses Scabbard, Blade Meet (Continued from Page L)

Miss Fedde will preside over the operation is certainly lacking compared with that in non-land when people who sit in the audi-grant institutions" to the engineer-Dean F. W. Upson of the graduate college is representing It will be recalled that when University of Nebraska at the an ter day address in 1936 people of American Universities in Provibegan leaving the colliseum before dence, R. I., Nov. 11-13. Dean Up-

Cornhusker Pictures At Campus Studio FRIDAY, NOV. 12. Cornhusker business staff 5

YES SIR! JUST LIKE NEW

Your garments will always have that fresh new look when SANITONE cleaned by the old

MODERN CLEANERS

Soukup & Westover

Phone F2377

Fascism enters the Americas. Brazil's president, Getulio Vargas, reportedly supported by the army. becomes acknowledged dictator of the South American state, after being virtually dictator since 1935.

All legislative bodies are dissolved, and the new constitution contains a provision for suspension of payment of all government debts. Vargas' explanation of the move is that it was caused by Speculations are rife as to the Will Brazil enter into the "holy alliance?" The foreign relations unconnected with the European alin any way involved? Vargas' move brings the business of fascism closer home to the United States than any previous move by any fascist group. cluded in the government debts now suspended are some 360 mil lion dollars of United States in vocations. It was true when Carl vestments in Brazilian federal. Sandburg spoke in the coliseum state and municipal. Brazit's enhis fall. And it was true when try into the fascist alliance, should such entry come to pass, is certain to be construed by some groups as due to "interference" of foreign influence in affairs of an American nation—the kind of in-

> NOW PLAYING ROBT. MONTGOMERY MADGE EVANS

PICCADILLY JIM

Starting Sunday BING CROSBY MARTHA RAYE BOB BURNS WAIKIKI WEDDING

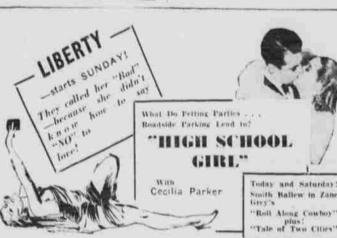

NOW!!

THE COMEDY

plus-PATSV KELLY "KELLY THE SECOND"

"SURE I LIKE A GOOD TIME!" -and what young girl doesn't?

Young . . . beautiful Stella Dallas . . . They called her cheap . . . frowned at her idea of "fun" . . . had they only known the true story . . .

Barbara STANWYCK

JOHN BOLES ANNE SHIRLEY ALAN HALE

EXTRA!Clap Hands, Here Comes Charlies CHARLIE McCARTHY and Edgar BERGEN in

"THE NECKIN' PARTY" also! SILLY SYMPHONY