PRICE FIVE CENTS

The Gents Turn Sensibly

Hatted Head-Hunters
The better men of school feel that they can judge a prospective woman employee's efficiency by her hats.

There were two notable exceptions among the positive minded masculinity questioned on the issue. One of them was a straightforward anthropologist who claimed that he didn't even notice feminine headwear...

A Philosophical Ignorance.

The second non-judger of women's hats was one of those heeling philosophical birds—the kind that harries one's every utterance, worries it, torments it, and then flings it back in one's face a mangle of its former self.

The three candidates for the honor of replacing Mary Yoder who was honorary colonel last year are Jane Barbour, Jane Walcott, and Betty Cherry.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL POSTPONES NAMING ENGINEER OFFICERS

Board to Consider Brown, Whiston for Headship of Engineers Week.

At a meeting of the Engineers' Executive Board last Tuesday evening, nominations for chairman and secretary-treasurer for Engineers Week of this year were accepted.

But hats—those "crazy women's hats," prompt many blanket defamations. A student business manager opines that "extreme, highly ornamented hats" emanate from "perverted delusions of grandeur."

And so, gals whatever our natural inclinations toward head coverings may be, it behooves us to be sensible when selecting our job-hunting headgear.

Seven Pledge Officers Military Organization

Seven additional pledges to Scabbard and Blade, honorary military officers organization, were announced yesterday by Capt. Henry F. Myer.

Dean Foster Attends Funeral of Relative

Dean Foster of the law college and Mrs. Foster are Sunday about noon to attend his sister-in-law's funeral at Peoria, Ill.

Portrait Studies, Closeups, Landscapes Compose Unusual Exhibit of Local Camera Club

On display at Morrill hall from Nov. 21 to Dec. 5 is the fifth annual exhibition of the Lincoln Camera club for 1937.

Landscapes studies showed early winter scenes of snow, and three included "Heavy Load," "Before the Thaw," by Alta Fiesman, and "New Fallen Snow," by Ellis Smith.

ENGINEERS MEET TONIGHT

General Electric Research Expert to Lecture. C. M. Hathaway, a representative from the research laboratory of the General Electric Company at Schenectady, New York, will give a demonstration lecture this evening before an all engineering college convocation to be held in room 206 of mechanical engineering hall at 7:30.

ANNUAL MILITARY BALL OPENS 1937 WINTER PARTIES

Dance in Coliseum Friday To Feature Colonel Presentation.

Heralding the opening of another formal season at Nebraska university, the 29th annual military ball will be held Friday in the coliseum with all the pageantry that traditionally accompanies the affair.

Novel and interesting in themselves are the presentation ceremonies which each year attract a great number of spectators in addition to attendants at the ball.

Haymaker to Jaw Gives Jean Cook Pugilistic Title

Jan Daugherty's little prank at the Beta house pales to insignificance beside the choice bit of horse play that took place at the Delta Gamma domicile Wednesday night.

Jane Cook was chosen to contest for the freshmen and Kay Huwall as mightiest of the upperclassmen. Each took her place at opposite corners of an improvised wrestling ring.

Bringing a last-minute reprieve to the many juniors and seniors and members of Greek letter groups who have not yet had their pictures taken for the yearbook, Howard Linch, business manager of the Cornhusker, announced last night that the deadline for pictures will be postponed until Dec. 11.

Since every section in the annual ought to be representative of the entire group, Linch stated, "Townsend's studio has consented to extend the time for pictures ten days. Dec. 11 is the last possible day for appointments however. Pictures must be in the hands of an engraving company in Missouri by Dec. 15."

Three Innovations. Three new features will be introduced in the 1938 Cornhusker yearbook and sorority sections, according to Linch. Each section will have a large informal camera study of the group, a zinc etching of the house itself, and will include the housemother's picture in the lower right hand corner of the individual picture section.
