

Organized Ag Week Opens Monday

NEBRASKA FARM BUREAU SLATES FULL SCHEDULE

Climax of Program to Come With Master Farmer Presentations.

With sessions scheduled for both Monday and Tuesday, the Organized Agriculture week activities will begin at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. At that time the Nebraska Farm Bureau will meet for a general session at the college activities building with community singing, appointment of committees, a short dramatization, and discussion of state and national programs on the morning's schedule.

In the afternoon the meeting will be resumed when Mrs. Charles E. Blomquist of Valley will talk on "Health for Rural America." A discussion of county and community programs will also be held in the afternoon session, followed by group conferences on the various subjects.

A conference on organization will be under the direction of Mrs. Winter; "Home and Community," under Mrs. Robert McMeekin; "Co-operative Activities," under Mr. C. M. Westcott; and "Legislation," under C. B. Steward.

Banquet in Evening.

In the evening the annual banquet and fun frolic will be held with Forrest J. Scrivner as toastmaster, and Mrs. Charles W. Sewell, main speaker. Achievement awards will be made at the dinner.

Tuesday morning, in the college activities building, the bureau's sessions will be continued under the chairmanship of C. Y. Thompson, president. Features of this meeting will be the report of the credentials committee by Phil Kenfield; nomination of trustees, directors, and officers; and a talk, "I Have Livestock for Sale," by Ray E. Miller.

Full Afternoon Schedule.

On the afternoon's schedule are a joint meeting with the Nebraska hall of agriculture achievement, reading of committee reports, a regular business meeting, and the election of new officers.

Also on Tuesday will be a meeting of the Nebraska hall agricultural achievement in dairy industry hall at noon, immediately following a meeting in college activities building.

The Nebraska Horticultural society will meet Tuesday morning in room 306 Agricultural hall. The executive board will meet at 9:30; reports of officers, directors, and committee chairmen will be given at 10:00; at 11:15, Mrs. A. C. Nelson of Lincoln will talk on the National Peony Show.

Election of officers is scheduled for 11:30. Members of the Federated Garden club division of the society will attend this meeting.

Open Meeting in Afternoon.

An open meeting of the society will be conducted Tuesday afternoon. Talks will be given by Mrs. A. G. Fish, Denver, Colo., the regional vice president of Federated Garden clubs; Clayton W. Watkins, Lincoln, of the forestry extension department; Mr. J. Fultz of the department of agricultural grass experiments; and O. S. Bare, extension entomologist from Lincoln.

Tuesday evening, the eleventh annual Master Farmer presentations will be held in the Cornhusker hotel ballroom at 7:30 p. m. Sam R. McKelvie will introduce the Master Farmers and their families, who will in turn be welcomed by Floyd W. Snover, president of the Master Farmers organization. H. C. Filley will speak on the economic analysis of master farming. Any persons interested in any of the topics or meetings on the programs are invited to attend.

DR. MILTZER TO SPEAK ON MUSCULAR ACTIVITY

Omaha Sigma Xi's Invite Chemistry Instructor To Talk Monday.

Dr. Walter E. Miltzer, instructor in chemistry, will address the Sigma Xi meeting to be held on the Omaha medical college campus Monday at 7:30 p. m. There will be a dinner served in the dining hall of the University hospital at 6 p. m., to be followed by the program in the north building auditorium which will feature an address on the subject, "The Chemistry of Muscular Activity." Dr. Miltzer will discuss the chemical reactions taking place during muscular contraction, both in the muscle and in the entire body, with emphasis on the applications to activity, particularly athletics. The meeting is open to the public.

A "date" boycott is in force at the University of Washington against all coeds who wear sheer silk hose. It was started by men of the American Student Union, a campus group, to stay in force until Japan removes her troops from China.
