

Oury Issues R. T. C. Assignments

ROBERT I. BEAVER ASSUMES POST AS BRIGADE COLONEL

Bottorf, Clayton Lead Units In Infantry, Field Artillery.

Robert I. Beaver, senior arts and science student from Yankton, S. D., was named brigade colonel yesterday in the new promotions and assignments by the reserve officers training corps. According to Col. W. H. Oury, Beaver was appointed to the newly created office because he has one of the highest grades ever made in the military department.

Serving as infantry regiment colonel will be John A. Bottorf, sophomore law student from Omaha. Lieutenant colonel in the field artillery battalion will be William G. Clayton, pharmacy senior from Grand Island.

The following promotions, assignments, or re-assignments of the cadet officers and non-commissioned officers in military science were announced yesterday as follows:
