HUSKERS RUN HOT AND COLD AS HECTIC SEASON NEARS CLOSE

The Cornhuskers are about as changeable as a coliseum shower, first hot as fire, then cold as ice. Last Saturday they picked off one of the strongest teams in the country, and then Monday night the K-State crew came from the cellar to trounce the Browns more thoroughly. It seems that Nebraska's role is that of spoiling the chances of the conference leaders and good teams, a sort of a villain. First Oklahoma came to town with a spotless record which included a win over the Huskers only a few nights before. What happened? The rough play of the Cornhuskers gave the Boy Scouts the jitters and when the game ended the Sooners were 10 points behind. Loyola came to Lincoln last Saturday with a spotless record. The team had been nominated as one of the eight contesting squads to decide the mythical national championship. Nebraska played over its head and sent Loyola home defeated.

Suffer Relapse.

In each case the Browns men dropped the game following these big games. Missouri beat the Huskers after the Sooner fray and Kansas State took the Scarlet and Cream into camp following the Rambler scrap. Why can't the Huskers beat these teams they're supposed to and why do they beat the teams which are supposed to be so much better than Nebraska? Your guess is just as good as mine but probably the cause is that the squad points for these teams which have the good records and take the others as they come. After they have worked themselves into a pitch to defeat the good teams they suffer a relapse and go into a batting slump. The so called poor team, on the other hand, points for Nebraska and runs up such a huge score that the Scarlet has a hard time catching up when they awake from dreamland, provided of course that they see the light before the final gun.

Same in Football.

Football fans will remember that the same situation existed last fall when Oklahoma and Kansas caught the Huskers on letdown days. Neither game was lost by the home gridders but they woke up just in time to tie the score and keep the Jayhawks from winning the game.

At any rate the Jayhawks basketball team is due to be under a heavy fire Saturday night. Kansas is leading the Big Six race at the moment and it would just suit Nebraska's role to knock the red and blue bird from its pedestal. Whether or not the Huskers will accomplish this feat remains to be seen.

Frank Ivy, 190-pound substitute right end on the University of Oklahoma football team, is being used at Pete Smith's old spot at left wing during the Sooners' spring drill now under way. Ivy has a big assignment ahead of him if he has to fill the shoes of Smith, who was a member of the all-conference eleven. Ivy was chosen for the All-American Swede team last fall. Otis Rogers, the Oilton boy who returned a Kansas State kickoff 94 yards for a score last fall, has been shifted to left half and Alton Coppage is running at the right wing position.

Spring Practice Monday.

Biff Jones will take his potential 1938 football squad into secret session Monday to lay the ground work for another nationally successful team. The major record of never losing an opening game will face another tough assignment when the Minnesota Gophers play host to the Huskers for the season's opener. Last year much fear and trembling was stirred up by the cry that without Cardwell and Francis the Huskers could do nothing. The hectic season proved that when the team clicked the Biffer's sleeper plays brought results. It seems that Jones depended more upon a strong offensive team. However, last year's edition cannot be used as a measure because Biff did not have the chance to seek the material he wanted.

This year the cry is that the line will be weak with shy bulwarks in the line as Shirey, Doyle, Dohrmann, and Amen lost thru graduation.

Brock Mainstay.

Returning to the line will be the mainstay, Iron Man Brock. Adna Dobson and Bill Pfeiff, two experienced guards can be used to fill the vacancies near the center of

Finish of Big Six Basketball Race Looms Saturday

Huskers Meet Victorious Jayhawks in Season's Final Cage Game... BIG SIX STANDINGS.

Kansas	w. 1. pct.
Oklahoma	7 1. 87.5
Missouri	4 2. 500
Nebraska	4 5. 444
Kansas State	3 7. 300
Iowa State	2 7. 222

Pushed back into the second division of the Big Six basketball race by a 41 to 29 loss to Kansas state university Monday night the Nebraska Cornhuskers today began preparations for their last game of the season with the loop leading Kansas university quintet.

The Husker's have lost five conference games—two to Missouri, Kansas university, Oklahoma university, Kansas State—and have won four, from Oklahoma, Kansas State and two from Iowa State, Missouri university, with whom Nebraska was tied before Monday night's upset are now in undisputed third place with four wins and four losses. They still have two games to play before their conference schedule closes.

K. U. Tramples Cyclones.

Kansas university ground the Cyclones of Iowa State further into the cellar of the Big Six by a 31 to 23 victory at Ames on Monday night. This win gives them seven victories and one loss.

Oklahoma, who was riding the top of the heap until knocked off by Nebraska continued to cling to one game behind the Jayhawks and are in second place with six wins and two losses. They went down in defeat at the hands of Phog Allen's Kansas last week in a crucial Big Six contest but won, 41 to 39, from Missouri Monday night. The Sooners will have to pin their hopes on the Cornhuskers for another chance at the 1938 crown.

If the Huskers down the Jayhawks here next Saturday it will tie Kansas and Oklahoma in the loss column but the Kansans will be out in front by one game in the win column.

SAM FRANCIS RETURNS TO EARN JUNE DIPLOMA

Husker All-American Full-back of 1936 to Complete College Hours.

Arriving in Lincoln last Friday, Sam Francis, All American full-back on the Nebraska 1936 team, re-entered school this week.

Francis is continuing his course in advanced philosophy, history, and political science, and will finish up his hours and graduate this spring with a physical education major. He then intends to go on and secure a Master's degree. This he plans to do the second semester of next year after playing another year of pro football. Sam has been playing with the Chicago Bears after leaving the University of Nebraska. At the present time he is living at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Married Women Teachers Taboo, Says Bureau Head

Actually, before September 1, 1937, the bureau's supply of available qualified teachers was practically exhausted.

A review of the statistics contained in the report shows that the placement office of the university is called upon to find available teachers every month of the year. Director Moritz says that the demand for teachers in March and April is to fill vacancies caused by resignations effective for the ensuing year, while the heavy demand later in the summer is caused by resignations of those who have been previously elected but who have opportunities for professional advancement or for other reasons have asked to be released from their contracts. Of late years the greatest demand upon the bureau has been made in August.

the line and Sam Schwartzkopf and Bob Mills are good tackle material. With an experienced quarterback in the person of Thurston Phelps back to handle the team and with such speed merchants as Mary Plock, Harris Andrews and Bill Anderson to lug the oval the backfield should be shifty and deceptive. Spring practice will also bring to light other promising men who may displace the veterans.

Major Jones announced that he is looking for strong reserves this season and it is likely that a good deal of the emphasis will be placed on the reserve teams during spring drill. The need for reserves was effectively demonstrated last year against the United Mine Workers—Pittsburgh to you—when the strength of the Pitt reserves forced the Huskers to give up the 7-0 lead they had established in the second period of the game. The Biffer is determined not to let that happen again.

RANGY K. U. FORWARD

George Golay, rangy 6 foot 3 1/2 inch letterman at the University of Kansas who showing in previous basketball games had been unimpressive, broke loose last Friday and led the second period Jayhawk comeback which defeated Oklahoma 41-38. Kansas does not have a "first five" this season, but instead has eight or nine men who alternate on the varsity quintet. Golay's accurate eye and power around the basket may be used to good advantage against Nebraska Saturday night.

Barbers Profit When Confines Forsake Beards

When the scarlet fever quarantine was lifted Friday from the ten men in the boarding house at 3451 Holdrege, nine of them called forth like the wind to the barber-shop. The tenth whetted his razor and locked himself up in the bathroom to deal with his beard by himself.

The raising of the quarantine marked the end of eight days of confinement for the residents of the boarding house. Since the Thursday morning that John Higgins, one of the occupants, was pronounced ill with scarlet fever and removed to the university infirmary, no one had been allowed to leave.

Sign Ten-Way Pact.

A ten-way pact was signed by the quarantees in which awful penalties were agreed upon for the first man to shave before the quarantine should be lifted. Another rule put into force was a fine for anyone using the phone for more than five minutes at one time.

The barbarians in question included Cleo Smiley, Tom Moates, Clarence Shavlik, Don Candlin, Wilson Steiner, Pete Burns, Charles Hurlbert, Charles Yavrick, Bill Sturdevant, Bud Jensen and Burns Woodward.

TRACKMEN MEET STRONG WILDCAT SQUAD SATURDAY

Schulte Figures Nebraska May Lose by Narrow Point Margin.

Much stronger opposition is expected from Kansas State Saturday in the Wildcat-Husker dual track meet than was met in the first two meets of the season. Nebraska won the first two meets with Kansas U. and Minnesota U. by overwhelming scores.

Pre-season ratings placed Kansas State as one of the weakest teams of the conference, and so it was considered before the Kansas State-Missouri dual last Saturday. The K-Aggies, given not a single chance to win, lost the meet by 9 points. Missouri won the mile relay, the final event, to take the meet. Had the Wildcats won the relay, the final score would have been 52 1/2 to 51 1/2 in favor of K State, rather than the 56 1/2 to 47 1/2 which was the actual score. Missouri, rated with Nebraska as the two strongest teams in the conference, had defeated Iowa State by a wide margin just a week before the dual with Kansas State.

On the basis of the Kansas State performances in the dual with Missouri and the best performances of the Nebraska squad this year, Coach Henry Schulte dopes Kansas State to win the meet Saturday by a narrow margin. Following is the way which Schulte dopes the meet:

Event	N	KS
Mile	4	5
60 yd. dash	5	4
Shot put	6	3
440	5	4
High jump	5	4
60 yd. h. hurdles	4	5
880	4	5
Pole vault	5 1/2	2 1/2
2 mile	3	6
60 yd. low hurdles	4	5
Broad jump	4	5
Mile relay	0	5

W.A.A. GOLF CLUB MEETS TODAY FOR ORGANIZATION

All University Women Invited To Attend Regardless Of Experience.

All girls who are interested in joining the new W. A. A. golf club will meet for organization purposes today at 5 p. m. in the W. A. A. lounge.

Miss Alway of the physical education staff will be present to explain the purpose of the club. It is the plan of the club to meet every week indoors to learn the rules and fundamentals of the game. When weather permits a professional instructor will be secured by the W. A. A. to give training. The members will also play at the Pioneers park golf course in tournament matches.

Any university woman whether or not she has had golf experience is invited to attend the meeting today.

KELLY GIVES READING BEFORE CLASSICS CLUB

Game Program to Feature 'Revived Charades' Tonight.

James Kelly, student in the classics department, will give a comedy reading entitled "The Greek Professor" at the second meeting of the Classics club, this evening at 7:30 in room 21 of the Teachers college.

Charades, an old time game that is being revived in Hollywood and New York will be played. Classical favorite songs will be sung, and Florence Steuterville will accompany the songs will be "There's A Tavern in the Town" in the comic Latin version, and "Gaulernus Igitur," a Latin drinking song popular among German university students for the last several centuries.

Margaret Saxton, president, is in charge of the meeting.

TEXAS SWIM TEAM MEETS NEBRASKA SQUAD HERE FEB. 16

Veteran Longhorns Return To Avenge Defeat Of Last Year.

The schedule has been changed, and instead of the Nebraska swimming team's going to Houston, Tex., Saturday, the Texas squad will come here. The time has been changed, and instead of being scheduled for Saturday, this dual splash event will be held Monday.

Starting at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, this dual meet should offer plenty of opportunities for the spectators to see some real exhibitions of swimming. The Texas team, strong in the Southwest conference, has virtually the same men back again this year. Last year a pool record was set in the 200 yard breaststroke and another in the 300 yard medley, which was just three seconds under that established in the Big Six conference.

Illegal Turn Defeats Longhorns.

An illegal turn in the 400 yard relay cost Texas university a victory over the Huskers last year as the Nebraskans closed the season with a 44-31 victory over the Longhorns. The score stood 37-31 in favor of Nebraska, with one event, the relay, left, the winner of which was a swimmer failed to touch the end of the pool with either hand as the rules prescribe and thus he was disqualified.

The Texas team is about as strong as last year. They are a little weak in the distances and the breaststroke, but are strong in diving, the sprints and backstroke. Adolph Kiefer, world champion backstroke swimmer, is ineligible for varsity competition this year because of scholastic difficulties.

Touring West.

The Longhorn coach, Tex Robertson, brings his swimmers here as part of a tour in this part of the country. They meet Washington U. this week, and on Saturday, before coming here, they will engage with the Kansas City Athletic club.

Pete Hagelin, Nebraska swimming coach, has recovered from his attack of flu which prevented him from making the trip to Iowa State with his team. Last night he put the boys thru their paces in a stiff preparatory workout.

HUSKER MATMEN MEET IOWA UNIVERSITY FRIDAY

Nebraska Team Faces Last Match of Disastrous Season's Run.

The hapless Nebraska wrestling team will wind up its dual schedule for this year when they meet the University of Iowa in a dual meet here next Friday. This season has been especially disastrous for the Husker matmen, who have won only one match while dropping six. Nebraska has defeated Denver U. and lost to Minnesota, Kansas State, Colorado State, Colorado U., Iowa State, and Iowa State Teachers.

Jim Knight, 135, has been the outstanding man on the Husker mat squad this year. He has won five matches and dropped only two. He has scored two falls this year, three decisions, and has not been pinned. His only defeats were at the hands of Mallon of Minnesota, and Moore of Iowa State Teachers.

GUS PETERS PAYS TRUCKERS FEES. GETS MORE WORK

Gus Peters, senior tackle on the football season last fall, joined a trucker's union Saturday.

Because of a protest from union members, Gus was laid off Friday. After finally paying his fee, Peters started to work again, while officials remarked he probably would "get more work now" than before.

FEMININE KEGLERS TO PLAY IN VARSITY FINALS AT 5 TODAY.

Ten Best Bowlers Named Among Intramural Participants.

Ten outstanding feminine keglers have been chosen from over 100 participants in the W. A. A. intramural bowling tournament to play on two varsity teams Wednesday at 5 o'clock at the Lincoln bowling alleys.

As is the custom after the completion of each intramural sport, two varsity teams, named the Scarlet and the Cream, are selected. The 10 members of the bowling all stars were chosen by a committee headed by Miss Shelby, W. A. A. advisor, and Frances Knudtzon. Skill in the activity, sportsmanship and sports modishness were the three qualifications considered for selection.

List Team Members.

Following is the lineup for the two teams: Scarlet—Marian Bradstreet, Gamma Phi Beta; Catherine Cahill, Kappa Delta, Frances Knudtzon, Tri Delta; Betty Hillier, Kappa Alpha Theta; and Jeanne Shader, Gamma Phi. The Cream is composed of Hortense Cassidy, Kappa Alpha Theta; Mary Jo Henn, Tri Delta; Janet Laft, Delta Gamma, Frances Leah, unaffiliated; and Priscilla Wicks, Tri Delta.

Frances Knudtzon holds the record for bowling both the highest individual score and the total score. In the finals of the tourney when the Tri Deltas were competing with the Phi Mu's, Miss Knudtzon bowled 221.

The varsity committee has arranged the team members according to relative scores and has made the two squads as equal as possible. For that reason the match today promises to be a close one. Anyone wishing to see the game is invited to do so.

FRATERNITY LEAGUE WINNERS CROWNED

A.T.O.'s, Alpha Gamma Rho, Kappa Sigs Win Titles In Basketball.

Alpha Tau Omega, Alpha Gamma Rho, and Kappa Sigma were crowned champions of their respective leagues after last night's intramural contests. Phi Gamma Delta missed a chance to clinch league two honors when they were forced to postpone their game with Beta Sigma Psi until tonight. In league five Phi Delta Theta appears to be the team to beat and have only to defeat Alpha Sigma Phi to gain the championship round.

In the games played last night Roy "Cowboy" Petch scored 19 points to pace U. A. T. O.'s to a 52-13 win over Xi Psi Phi. Muth Arkansas-City high school star, whose ball handling and passing has landed him a berth on the Jayhawk varsity squad. He is one of the men Coach F. C. "Phog" Allen uses when the starting lineup fails to click. Reid is a sophomore and stands 6 feet 1 1/2 inches high.
