

BY THE HAUNTER

We understand the Sigma Alpha Mus have finally turned socialists, in the narrowest sense of the word.

Hank Greenberger, Grand Island, gave the lads a jolt by sewing the smokes among the brothers in behalf of his engagement to Shirley Abramson of Minnesota U.

Also in that house is Irv Zveitl, president, who has sneaked out of law school liberation and into love; love with Babe Perelman, Sigma Delta Tau pledge.

At an Alpha Chi hour dance not so long ago, a gal had been dancing with her partner for quite some time when she realized that she had not been introduced.

"Oh, no you aren't," retorted the chap, and kept on dancing.

There seem to be a couple of livestock sequels on the campus. At the Alpha Sig house, a feller went to bed one night and noticed the bed was especially warm, but merely supposed that his roommate had beat him to the hay.

At the Sigma Nu house a chicken was used in some of the festivities last week. During its off hours, the fowl was stored in a bed in the dorm.

Contributions for this year pillar would be greatly appreciated.

BY THE HAUNTRESS

With the spring season well on its way, hour dances are gaining popularity again.

When the A. T. O.'s turned up at the Alpha Phi house last Friday night, they were in hardly presentable condition. Onions had been served at dinner that night and they'd forgotten about the scheduled hour dance.

The Chi Omega's required their pledges to turn up at the Acadia hour dance wearing their arms in slings as part of hell week routine.

What these activities won't do to their pledges. One sorority required their freshmen to have a blind date Saturday night and then kept them in the house until 11:30.

Mary Helen Husted and Charleston Brown, Theta and D. U., have gone their separate ways. It's all over now, but there are consequences, which we don't know whether to blame Mary Helen for or not.

Even a hauntress gets mail once in a while. The following note was sent to the Rag office: Dear Hauntress: The Alpha Sigs decided to help keep Earl E. May in business.

Dear Alpha Sig: Your hauntress suggests you read the Rag. Not a fortnight ago, Harry Haynie sent around the sweets for his love at the Delta Gamma house, so why don't you try Wheaties?

Prof. Lantz to Address Comenius Club on Friday Prof. E. W. Lantz will address members of the Comenius club on the subject of "Personality" at a meeting of the group to be held Friday evening.

Final plans will also be discussed for a dance to be held in the armory, and officers of the club urge that all members attend.

SOCIETY

Monday evening the Sigma Kappa's had a candy passing in a very unusual way to announce the engagement of Mary Phipps of Lincoln, to Norman Hull of Palmer.

Chi Omega alums entertained all the new initiates Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sue Willson.

Alpha Chi Omega had installation of officers Monday evening. New officers are: President, Mary Jane Westcott; vice president, Katherine Bullock; secretary, Mary Louise O'Connell; treasurer, Rita Rist; corresponding secretary, Mary Ellen Osborn; chaplain, Marion Cushing; scholarship chairman, Lucille Thomas; social chairman, Eunice Halm; warden, Arlene Gramanogin; historian, Dorothy Moulton.

Fraternity row turned out for initiation this week. So far we do not have a complete list, but eventually we hope to have them all turned in.

Beta Theta Pi. Herbert Glover, John Stoddard, Walter Kiechel, Charles Pillsbury, Bob Pillsbury, Frank Vette, Ed Huwaldt, Houghton Furr and Oswin Kiefer.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Joe Dye, Leonard Jacobson, Jim DeWolfe, Bill Buchanan, Bill Wellinger, Joe Carlsen, Bill Kline, Lloyd Wright, Clark O'Hanlan, Frank Roth and David Noble.

Sigma Nu. Roger Anawalt, George "Bus" Knight, Edsell Wibbels, Jack Cole, Bob Simmons and William Steckelberg. Nate Holman has been passed on, but has the mumps now, so his initiation must wait.

The Sigma Kappa pledges are having a house party Saturday night for the actives. It is going to be quite an original party. The house will be decorated as Honey-moon Hotel with shoes and rice in abundance.

Chi Omega held election of officers Monday evening. Those elected were: President, Helen Pascoe; vice president, Phyllis Jensen; secretary, Betty Clisbe; treasurer, Margerite Young; pledge mother, Betty Flory; corresponding secretary, Dixie Davis; social chairman, Ruthie Stephens; and Lincoln rush chairman, Jean Hooper.

AG-GRAVATIONS

Marian Hoppert blossomed out with Earl Heady's pin, but he hasn't passed the stogies yet. Looks like there will be a few more showers regardless of what the weather man says.

Signs of spring—Alex Rabier blossoming out in a bright new spring tie—Arch Trimble breezing along in a checkered bush jacket—Bob Wheeler pressing the grass in front of Ag hall with his military suit—and then there was Art Moserman measuring the grass on the campus lawn. Is it long enough for picnics yet, Art?

Did you know that the hard working Rex Brown is taking time out to attend the Ag Spring Party. We understand that Peggy Sherburne is the lucky girl.

Did you hear Ivan Borman merely mentioning the fact that he can play any place on the baseball nine except left out.

We have heard of college students going from door to door selling Fuller brushes, but Dorothy Leasly is the first one I ever knew who went around trying to buy catsup via the back door.

Advance dope on the Ag Spring Party shows that Editor Glenn Thacker of the Conhusker Countryman is giving his steady a break and is taking her to the shindig. Oh yes, her name is Marjorie Tye.

We always have wondered how they packed sardines into such small cans. The dozen Phi Mu's who serenaded various frats last night must understand the principle the way they were packed into that Chevrolet.

Another pair of our prominent Ag students who are hitting it pretty steady these days are Leno Christensen and Avis Harms. No wonder dates are getting so hard to find lately.

Howard Kriz has been calling all the girls in the directory these last few days to get a date for the A. G. R. spring party next month. There's nothing like being popular he says, Russell Bierman is on the other side of the fence. He has two dates for the affair and is still undecided as to who will be the lucky girl.

Highlights On the Air

LITTLE KNOWN BUT KNOWS A LOT

Today's minute biography is dedicated to one of those men behind the scenes, to one of those men who aid so much in the attainment of a great star's success and who seldom receives due credit for their achievements... Jack Miller is our man.

Jack has been Kate Smith's musical director for seven years and has performed with her on radio, screen, and the stage. He was born in Dorchester, Mass., and when a boy, his ambition was to be a race car driver.

He made his debut as a radio orchestra director in Boston. He is a prolific writer with many hits included among those songs he has written.

Jack admits to being an amateur inventor and a candid camera fan. He plays golf in the summer and ping pong in the winter. He likes everyone except those persons who take advantage of his good humor.

Jack weighs 162 pounds, stands 5 feet 8 inches tall, has blue eyes, sandy hair, and owns a book on "How to Avoid Sea-sickness."

All of you have heard of Benny Goodman's quartet. This rhythmic group of swingsters is the delight of many a radio listener and is an instrumental part in the success of Benny's orchestra.

Grace Moore, star of films and radio has been signed as a soloist to accompany Andre Kostelanetz and his all-round orchestra in a new series of programs to begin next Wednesday night over Columbia.

Ben Bernie, cigar puffing maestro, has had his contract renewed and will broadcast in his usual master of ceremonies role each Wednesday night, starting next Wednesday, one hour earlier than his present program... that is, his new broadcast series will be at 7:30, CST.

Jack Benny, nut of the first order, will work out of NBC radio city studios for the first time in almost a year next Sunday evening... and will share his broadcast with Fred Allen, at least he had invited Allen to appear with him according to latest NBC reports.

Jack says that he would like to make his stay in New York as long as possible, but he's building a house in Hollywood, and he says he doesn't want Mary Livingstone, his little wife, whom he calls "Doll," to decorate his den-to-be in rose-buds... don't blame you Buck...

After several stage appearances in Philadelphia, Eddie Cantor and his troupe will return to New York for the final broadcast in their current series over CBS tonight at 7:30... KFAB... Cantor will again introduce his singing stars, Deanna Durbin, Bobby Breen, and Jacques Renard's orchestra.

Tonight's Cavalcade of America will honor John James Audubon, noted naturalist and painter, at 7:00... KFAB... Don Voorhees and his orchestra will provide musical interludes.

Missouri U Collegians Stage Original Party On Moving Train Cars

Newest kind of collegiate party is the one held a couple of weeks ago by University of Missouri journalism students.

It was a "Revelry on Rails"—and was a formal affair stages on a moving Wabash R. R. train. Guests were provided with yard-long tickets covering passage and stop-overs in each of the several attractions offered in the cars of the special train.

After traveling and partying continuously for five hours, guests found they hadn't been outside the city limits!

Movement to Abolish Fraternities 'Hell-Day' Gains Outside Support

WASHINGTON, Pa. (ACP). "Hell-day" that period of physical torment which every pledge must undergo before being initiated into a social fraternity at Washington and Jefferson college, has been reduced in length from 24 to 12 hours by action of the interfraternity council. The move, hailed as a significant step toward the complete abolition of the annual ordeal as demanded by the national offices of eight of the nine groups on the campus, was motivated by repeated protests by students, parents, faculty and administration, and townspeople. Repeated violations, said a council spokesman, of the 24 hour rule, cut recently from a seven day period, aggravated the situation. The motion met with practically no opposition on the part of the council members.

Pee Wee was right again. As he predicted, the local chapter of T.N.E. convened at the Grand Hotel at noon yesterday. Although the curious crowd of onlookers did not rival in size one to be found outside a Hollywood premier, there were nevertheless a few curious souls loitering in nearby dark spots, anxious to get a glimpse at these famous male personages.

And while we are on the subject of secret honoraries, Pee Wee reminds me that we should not overlook that amusing little incident when the Tri Chis (XXX) were out sidewalk painting the other evening. It seems that Helen Abel of the Alpha Phi house owns a swell Packard coupe. It also seems that the said car is yellow. Well, it's only natural that an ambitious young man with a bucket of black paint should have an irresistible urge to see what kind of a color combination black will make on yellow.

You can probably guess the rest. The afore mentioned Miss Abel found to her disgust three very black Xs on the shiny back of her car. An anonymous phone call to Helen duly apologized for the act and promised to pay for the damage done.

Now anonymous phone calls mean phone calls in which the name of the caller is not known. With this definition in mind, it might be well to strike the word out of the sentence above, and make it "A phone call to Helen—". And here's a tip to Helen and all the rest of you girls. If you drop in at the third floor of GOLD'S soon, you are promised a real sight. There are some new tailored suits on display there that will really knock your eyes out. They are mannish to the extreme, and are really swell.

Have a little news about a few of last year's grads that might be of interest to some of you. Bob Funk is in Los Angeles as owner and publisher of a trade magazine for apartment house managers. George Pipal left his job with the United Press the first of February to go to California. He got there just in time to cover the floods out there and is now on his way to Honolulu to cover the naval maneuvers for the U. P. He promises to send a grass skirt to Pee Wee. We are still wondering how he is going to get it.

Bill Marsh had a yen for the movies that he didn't tell many of us about when he was here. At any rate he has been trying to crash pictures for the past several months, but latest reports are that he is working as a trouble-shooter for an engraving firm. Pee Wee says he doesn't know what that is either. Last word from Bob Shellenberg said that he was selling card table covers at Wannamaker's in New York, with an eye toward an advertising job there.

But to get down to more realistic events. What Sig Alph left his date at the S.A.E. Bowers party for a least a part of the evening to go out with her sorority sister? Pee Wee says he can answer that one. He says they are, respectively, Sam Francis, Betty McDowell, and Barbara Griffin. Maybe he's right. It all goes to show that clothes don't make the man.

But in case they did, the fellows who have bought slacks and Bush Jackets at GOLD'S would certainly forgo to the front of the line. They really make classy outfits for campus wear these spring days.

A want ad was accidentally sent to our department. We are glad to co-operate, though, and will print it free of charge. "Wanted, exact chronological resume of events and happenings at the Sig Alph Bowers ball. Reward, Margaret Smith."

And that seems to be all for today, but Pee Wee will be watching you.
