

Ears to You Elwood Randol A DAY AT THE RACES

Col Trackmen Hold 36th Meet Gale Merry Class B Double Winner

Huskers Divide Twin Bill With Ames, 10-2, 1-5

Variety was present at the 36th annual state high school track and field championships in more ways than one. In the first place the weather was far from drab.

Scottsbluff Upsets Dope By Winning Class A Title Saturday. Despite predictions that nine new records would be set, only one was established in the 36th annual Nebraska high school track and field meet held yesterday in Memorial stadium.

Gale Merry, Bayard, the only double winner in class B of the state high school track meet, won the 100, 220 and tied for third in the high jump. This shows him finishing the century Friday with the time of 10.5 which he duplicated Saturday. He won the 220 with a time of 23.1. In the back-ground left to right, Troops, Arcadia, second; Williams, Wyoming; Alam, South Sioux City; Sloan, Geneva, and Holt, Crete.

Nebraska's Cornhusker baseball team split a doubleheader with Iowa State college in Ames Friday to make it two-all for the four game series between the two schools.

PAUL AMEN

Nebraska's Cornhusker baseball team split a doubleheader with Iowa State college in Ames Friday to make it two-all for the four game series between the two schools.

Ames Gets Homer, Triple, Single in First Tilt; Denning Wins. Nebraska's Cornhusker baseball team split a doubleheader with Iowa State college in Ames Friday to make it two-all for the four game series between the two schools.

Nebraska's Cornhusker baseball team split a doubleheader with Iowa State college in Ames Friday to make it two-all for the four game series between the two schools.

The 100 yard dash was run all the way into the wind and there wasn't a chance for a record in that event Saturday with a stiff north wind slapping the runners in the face.

Scottsbluff upset the dopsters by winning class A with a total of 23 1/2 points. In second place was Fremont with 22 1/2 tallies.

SIXTY REPRESENT EIGHT COLLEGES AT W.A.A. GAMES. Omaha Sends Ten to Annual Women's Play Day Competition. Sixty coeds registered from eight colleges besides Nebraska for the annual W. A. A. play day Saturday.

COACHES GRIPE About Weather; Customers Bet. Every year about this time coaches from all over the state come into Lincoln and tell each other their woes in general.

GROUND WATER LEVEL RISING, STATE NEBRASKA GEOLOGISTS. University Officials to Take Measurements of 400 Wells in June. Due to the abundance of spring rains over most of the state, beginning early in April and continuing thru to the present, observers and geologists whose duty it is to measure the fluctuation of the water table report now that that ground level in Nebraska is moving upward.

RECTOR CAUTIONS YOUTH. (Continued from Page 1.) ears was to be carefully censured. "At the same time especially, you should be careful to instruct your children what is meant by the news just brought to their ears."

Walthill Wins Class C. Walthill, in class C, had the widest margin of any of the class champions. They totaled 25 points to 18 for Callaway, 9.47 for Culbertson and 9.14 for Clay Center.

EQUESTRIAN CIRCUS. (Continued from Page 1.) the calf Jim Sanders and Will Plimer went right at it, Jim roping the calf by one foot on the left and Will by one foot on the right.

AG BOARD HOLDS CAUCUS. (Continued from Page 1.) sentative of the organization for which the candidate is filing unless the candidate is made ineligible by rule 1.

TANKSTERETTES ELECT JANE COOK PRESIDENT. Bureau Announces Recent Placing of 27 Seniors. The following teacher placements were reported to the department of educational service of the university:

Teachers Service Bureau. Teachers Service Bureau. Teachers Service Bureau. Teachers Service Bureau. Teachers Service Bureau.

100 YARD DASH. Class A: Won by Charles Cefak, Ord; second, Dan Morris, Scottsbluff; third, Robert Landwehr, Lincoln; fourth, Howard Humphreys, Omaha Central, Time 10.3.

MARGARET AMES WINS. Winner of the local ladies' hands and seat riding class was Margaret Ames, riding Top Flight. Buth Nelson was second on Ruth Bryant, and Ruth Johnson, riding The Virginian, was third.

AG BOARD HOLDS CAUCUS. (Continued from Page 1.) Some 50 candidates for positions on the Student Council, an executive board, Farmers Fair board, and Coll-Agri-Fun board will be presented.

Today! GRAND OPENING The New - Bigger CAPITOL BEACH. For good, clean fun bring the entire family to Capitol Beach today. New rides, new games, completely redecorated to add to your enjoyment.