Trumbar Entertains Stay-Homes

Name Orchestra Plays at Student U. Saturday

Big event of this week end for students "left out" of the mass exodus to Minneapolis will be dancing in victory or in defeat to the music of Frank Trumbar, third in the series of "name" bands to be heard at the Student Union.

Trumbar, noted as a saxophonist for both concert and dance bands, finished a six months' engagement at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles a few weeks ago and has been touring "the road" since. With him comes Vonnie King, reputedly a favorite vocalist with Californians, whose voice many students have probably heard in phonographic transcriptions of popular songs.

In Trumbar, students will be hearing a former saxophone soloist for the New York Philharmonic orchestra, the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra and Paul Whiteman's dance band, all leaders in their respective fields.

To prevent overcrowding of the Union ballroom, the ticket sale is limited in number. Admission is $1.10 a couple.

Nebraskan Requests Typists Immediately

"Calling all typists! Calling all typists!" This might well be the voice of the Daily Nebraskan business staff which urges all would-be stenographers to report to room 20A in the basement of the Student Union building for work, which consists largely of form letter typing. Co-eds working for activity points will be amply rewarded with one point per hour of work.

Gridgraph Pictures Gopher Fray

Students to Follow Game on New Board

"Stay at Home" students are urged to attend the Gridgraph account of the Cornhusker-Gopher fray which will be shown tomorrow afternoon in the Student Union ballroom. The game will begin at 2 o'clock.

The Gridgraph, which is the property of the alumni, shows each play in detail. Small lights which designate each player, move on a board that is laid out as a playing field. When a player makes a tackle or carries the ball, his light goes on and shows where and how he made the play.

There will be seating capacity for more than a thousand persons in the ballroom. The Gridgraph can be seen plainly from any point in the room. There is no admission. "Nebraska on to victory," Kenneth Van Sant, director of the building said today.

Dr. Fellman To Discuss War Crisis

Instructor Will Lead Council's First Forum

Dr. David Fellman, instructor in the department of political science, will speak on the present international crisis centering about Czechoslovakia at an all student forum scheduled by the Student Council for next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Fellman, who has spent considerable time studying in central Europe, has been closely following the Czechoslovakian affair. It is expected that he will offer considerable information to enlighten the students, such as tracing events dating from the Versailles treaty which have resulted in the present situation.

The Student Union is co-operating with the Council in presenting this year's series of forums, the first of which Wednesday will be held in parlors X, Y, Z of the Union building. The Council committee in charge, Bob Waugh and Emma Marie Schuttloff, co-chairmen, and Dick DeBrown, hope to secure some interesting speaker at least once each month during the year and present him in a forum to university students.

Visiting notables as well as local authorities will be invited to appear.

"We intend to keep this series of forums as informal as possible," stated Waugh, "and hope that a large number of students will turn out to hear the speakers and join in the discussion of the question."

Phi Sigma Iota To Initiate Soon

Initiation of new members into Phi Delta chapter of Phi Sigma Iota, romance languages honorary, will be held at the first regular meeting of the year, Wednesday, Oct. 5, at 7 o'clock.

8,000 Follow Team; Betting Odds Favor Gophers by 3 to 1

BY NORMAN HARRIS.

Chiming nearly three weeks of secret practice, topped off by what promises to be the most boisterous rally ever staged by university students, Nebraska's 1938 football team and its coaching staff, accompanied by two special trainloads of followers, will entrain tonight at 7:45, trekking to Minneapolis, city of the famed Golden Gophers, conquerers of Washington; three years ago, Pittsburgh; where the Huskers will meet the Norsemen in Minnesota's Memorial stadium tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Accompanied by members of Corn Club, men's pep club; Tassel, women's pep group; members of Innocent society; and loyal student followers, the gridgers will be wheeled to the stadium atop two decorated hay-racks, after a rally enroute; to start at 6:45 this evening in the East Stadium.

Railo Carries Game.

Only one train will leave Lincoln, traveling to Omaha, and arriving there at 8:55. From Omaha, two trains will carry enthusiasts to the Viking citadel, one scheduled to leave at 9:05, arriving in Minneapolis at 8:10 tomorrow morning. This train is the regular Chicago and Northwestern line. Special will stop in Omaha until 9:30 tonight, arriving in Minneapolis at 8:30 tomorrow.

Special rates of $11 for the football special may be used in regular trains.

Cornhusker fans will be able to tune in all three local stations, WOW, KOIL, or KFAB to get the play by play accounts of the game from Minneapolis. Student Union director Kenneth Van Sant has installed an electric grid-graph in the ballroom of the Union to permit students to watch the progress of the game while in the Union.

5,500 Tickets Purchased.

Some 5,500 tickets to the game have been sold through the University Athletic office. The number of tickets bought by Husker fans directly from the Minnesota office is not known; the number of Cornhusker rooters from Minnesota and other states is unknown.

However, there should be nearly 8,000 Nebraska rooters in the stands. Several Nebraska cheer leaders are making the trip, so in all probability, Cornhusker yells and songs will echo through Minnesota's stadium during the afternoon.

In event of a Nebraska victory, Lincoln will no doubt be literally turned into a bedlam, and Nebraska (Continued on Page 2.)

'Y' To Stage Retreats

Slate Steak Fries, Games For Saturday

Both the city campus and ag Y. M. C. A. members will stage retreats Saturday afternoon, following the broadcast of the Husker-Minnesota game. The city Y group will go to Belmont park and the ag group to Peter Pan park for steak fries, games and song sessions.

Harry Shudel is in charge of the ag outing, while Don Dobbins and Bob Howard head committees on the city campus retreat. Greater interest than for a number of years is being shown by the ag Y group, according to Secretary C. D. Hayes.

According to past custom, the Y will again this year sponsor a weekly Bible discussion course, the first of which will be held next Friday with a luncheon meeting in Former Museum. These meetings will continue weekly through the fall.

The commission on personal relations met yesterday at the Temple for the first time this year. The group is composed of representatives from both the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

Next Wednesday, the university Y will present Dr. M. F. Arnolt of the Lincoln public health department in an address for men at the Student Union. Dr. Arnolt will discuss the syphilis problem in connection with the nationwide anti-syphilis campaign.

Tassels Carry Drive Downtown

Uni Players Campaign Continues Till Tuesday

At the close of the third day of the University Players ticket campaign, Tassels, at their daily meeting yesterday, decided to concentrate the drive for the next two days in the Lincoln business district feeling that the campus has been covered for the most part.

With the drive extended until Tuesday, Tassels felt that they can realize their goal of 1,800 tickets with the first of the month bringing the students their allowances and pay checks. Although the drive will be continued until Tuesday, tickets may be reserved in the Temple theater from this morning on.

Since the tickets are going on reserve today it would be wise for all to purchase them from Tassels as soon as possible, according to Harriet Cummer, who along with Virginia Nolte, Tassel president, is co-chairman of the ticket campaign.

Ann Husted sold the largest number of tickets on Thursday and for her work was awarded a prize by the organization. Miss Husted sold 22 tickets which is also the most, by one, that any Tassel has sold in a single day this far into the campaign.

Annual Begins Photography

Yearbook Editor Lahr Urges Picture Taking

Pictures for the 1939 Cornhusker will be taken at the Townsend studios beginning October 1, according to Patricia Lahr, yearbook editor.

Through the courtesy of the Cornhusker staff, students purchasing their pictures before October 22 will receive a free application print. This is a new plan and it is hoped that it will speed up the rate of photographing this year.

Junior and senior students who will be purchasing fraternity or sorority pictures as well as class pictures may save a dollar by getting the combination photo which will be $2.75. Class pictures alone will be $2.50, and fraternity or sorority pictures $1.25.

Miss Lahr urges everyone to have pictures taken before October 22, as it will save the yearbook staff much time and effort as well as netting the student a free picture. Townsend studios are located at 226 South 11th. No appointments for sittings will be needed before October first.

Social Workers To Organize

Graduate Students Meet, Band Together

Students of the newly established Graduate School of Social Work decided in meeting Thursday afternoon to organize a student professional group and make application for an affiliation with the American Association of Social Work Students.

The majority of the students of the school are interested in organizing such a society, said Elwood W. Camp, temporary chairman of the meeting. Work will begin this week with the appointment of a committee to draw up and present for approval a constitution. Students in social work will meet again Thursday, Oct. 6 to pass on the work of the committee.

Organized Houses Purchase 50 Percent Fewer Athletic Books Than Last Season

Nebraskan Survey Shows Honesty Rise

By Harold Niemann.

Measures on the part of the Student Activities office to keep fraternities and sororities from "padding" their lists when student athletic books were purchased have resulted in a sizeable decrease in the fraternity section and entire student section figures from the office of John K. Selleck and a Daily Nebraskan survey revealed yesterday.

Figures showing the number of tickets purchased by each fraternity and the number bought by the same organization this year reveal that nearly every fraternity on the campus is taking about 50 percent as many tickets as in the year 1937. Comparative figures for the last two years on the number purchased by sororities show about an even ratio between the two years.

Figures in the Daily Nebraskan survey, of course, presuppose that approximately the same number of students live in the individual fraternity house as lived there last year, and that about the same number will attend the football games from that house as there were last year.

Padding Blocs.

Only one conclusion can be reached by comparing the figures of the two years. That conclusion is that fraternities have been guilty of padding their lists and supplying athletic tickets to persons playing athletic tickets to persons not in that particular fraternity. Only a glance at the fraternity figures last year, however, was sufficient to see that many were guilty of the practice, and had been for many years.

When a demand for more than 5,500 student tickets was raised last year and Business Manager John K. Selleck missed his guess on the number of seats to reserve for student purposes, students in fraternities and sororities who were forced to take chair seats on the track, marched on the home of the general manager. Editorials blared forth against the practice.

Immediately following the football rally tonight there will be a Barb hour dance in the Student Union ballroom. The charge will be ten cents per person and the Union Capehart will furnish the music. Everyone is invited.

The dance is sponsored by the Barb Council. Bob Simmons is general chairman and Eric Constable will be treasurer. The Barb A.W.S. board, with Velma Ekwall in charge, is handling the arrangements for this week's dance and the Barb Interclub council is managing the publicity, for this opening dance of the year's series.

University 4-H Schedules Picnic

Group Holds Annual Event at Pioneer

The university 4-H club is holding its fifth annual fall picnic Sunday, Oct. 2, 3 p. m., in Pioneer park. All ag students are urged to come. Tickets may be obtained from Ruth Ann Sheldon, chairman of the ticket committee, at 25 cents a ticket. Tickets sales close 6 p. m. Friday.

Free transportation will be furnished from the campus to the park. Persons going to the picnic are asked to meet at Ag hall at 3 p. m.

Entertainment will be supplied by the Creative Activities club. Soft ball, horse shoe pitching and other outdoor games will be played in the afternoon. In the evening songs will be sung around the campfire after which the party will return home. It is expected to reach the campus by 9 o'clock.

Ed Rousek and Lois Lichtler, who are in charge of the affair, report that they are expecting over 300 students to attend the picnic. In holding this picnic the club is following the policy set forth by President Eric Thor at the first regular meeting. He said that one of the purposes of the club was to form a closer bond between the members of Ag college. It is hoped that this picnic will help the new students feel more at home on the campus.

Riflemen Elect Pledges Today

Officers to Select 40 New Members

Officers of Pershing Rifles will meet today at 11:00 a. m. to choose between 35 and 40 new members from the 60 basic military science students who tried out for membership Wednesday and Thursday.

Robert Nelson, captain of the military honorary, said that as a whole, this year's candidates were better versed in the manual of arms and in other aspects of the try-outs than previous groups.

Major Horan graded candidates on the manual of arms and Captain Hough passed on their personal appearance, hearing and military courtesy. Officers of Pershing Rifles then graded each candidate a second time.

Nelson said that in addition to the candidates to be admitted now, several other men will probably become members in the course of the school year.

The first business meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 4 when the company will be organized into a working order.

Nebraskan Gives Tips To Minnesota Trippers

Football Fan Exodus Rouses Timely Advice

The Minnesota-Nebraska football game, or rather, as all true Cornhuskers put it, the Nebraska-Minnesota football game, will last about two and a half hours. To observe 20 minutes of actual playing time, about 5,000 fans will spend 12 hours (all right, so you can make it in eight) going to St. Paul, 12 hours in coming back and a lot of energy during their stay.

Now everybody knows what to do during the game. Your conduct is decided there by (a) the fans surrounding you, (b) the good decisions of the referee, (c) the cheerleaders and (d) the game itself. The climax of the trip solves itself but it is the prelude and the aftermath of the game which cause complications. Hence there is a real vital need for this little tome on "What to Do Till the Kick-off or How to Get there and Back in one Piece."

If you haven't packed your toothbrush and other necessities yet, you'd better do that first and read this later.
