Minnesota Hangs Second Straight Felt of Year

Minnesota's 1938 powerhouse rolled over Nebraska's Cornhuskers yesterday, hanging up their second straight felt of the year by pushing 16 points up on the board to Nebraska's seven. A resume of the game by quarters follows:

Opening lineups:

Nebraska	Minnesota
Bob Kahler	Marinced
Mills	Pederson
Dobson	Bell
Brook	Elmer
Pfeiff	Tvedell
Belm	Schultz
Grimm	Nash
Phelps	Faus
Flock	Moore
Dodd	Buhler
Callihan	Christiansen

FIRST QUARTER.

Pfeiff kicked off to Nash, who returned 15 to his own 45. On a series of six plays, with Moore ripping off 22 yards on one, the Gophers sent Wilbur across for the first score, using only sheer power. Bell's kick was good. Nebraska kicked again and Minnesota ran thru 10 plays, where they found themselves on the Husker 27, fourth and 8. Bell's attempted field goal was wide. Dodd scampered 12 around end on Nebraska's first offensive play. Huskers couldn't penetrate Gopher wall and Phelps kicked, giving Minnesota ball on own 29. Nebraska second team goes in.

On a bad pass from center, Minnesota lost 22 yards, forcing a kick, giving Huskers the ball on own 46. Again stopped by Gopher line, Phelps took to the air, with his pass being hauled down by Franch, running it to Husker 41. Gopher line plays stopped. Quarter ended with Minnesota leading, 7 to 0.

SECOND QUARTER.

Franck kicked over Husker goal. Porter lost three at right end. Anderson kicked, Gophers returning ball to Scariot 38, from their pushing over second score in 11 plays, with Franck scoring; kick was good. Minnesota 14, Huskers 0.

Flock took the ball after kickoff return placed it on Husker 26, to Gopher 48 for 26 yard run. Husker attack bogged down, and Phelps, attempting to punt, fumbled, Gophers recovering on Husker 41. Minnesota marched to shadows of goal posts where valiant Husker defense held and took ball on downs. Callihan plunging for three as half ended, Minnesota 14, Nebraska 0.

THIRD QUARTER.

Minnesota kicked off, Husker attack bogged again, with Gophers taking charge on own 48. Husker line held, forcing Faust to kick over goal. Husker ball on own 20. Again Huskers tried to run, but were stopped. Phelps kicked to Gopher 41. Buhler kicked back after two plays were stopped. Phelps kicked back, with Gophers starting another march, climaxed by 22 yard pass to Husker 9.

Buhler, coming thru line, was handing ball to another back, when Dodd, streaking thru, stole the ball from the chunky fullback's hands and raced 88 yards thru Gopher lineup for Nebraska touchdown. Flock kicked goal, Minnesota 14, Nebraska 7.

Franck and Moore combined to run ball to Husker 44 after kickoff downed on Minnesota 38. Franck kicked over goal line. Porter lost 1 at tackle, then booted to Minnesota 46. Franck returning to 46. Minnesota fumbled after two plays, Nebraska recovering on Gopher 47. Husker hopes hit high mark.

FOURTH QUARTER.

Phelps passed to Wild Bill for 2. Phelps' pass intercepted and recovered to Husker 44. All hope for Gopher runner could have scored, had he cut outside his interference. Gophers pushed ball to Husker 17, where fourth down pass was knocked down by Phelps. After Dodd lost 8, Porter shoveled passed to Dodd, who was swarmed by Minnesota tacklers for a safety. Minnesota 16, Nebraska 7.

Porter kicked out to Minnesota 25. Christiansen returned to 45. Gopher attack carried to Husker 41, where it hit the rocks. Faust kicked over goal. Dodd picked up 18 around end. Husker attack again fails and Porter kicks to Gopher 30. Once again, with 1 minute and 50 seconds left, Nebraska got the ball, but Porter's pass was intercepted by Elmer, Minnesota center, who was brought down by Goetowski on Husker 18.

Minnesota on way to touchdown as gun sounded.

Minnesota 16, Nebraska 7.

Big Six Squads Break Even in Outside Tilts

Opponents Outscore Conference Squads.

Big Six conference teams broke even in yesterday's non-conference competition, altho outscored 109 to 60. Nebraska's seven remaining opponents scored four wins and three losses, scoring 115 points, giving 88. Iowa did not play.

In the Big Six, Oklahoma upset Rice and Laid by a 7 to 6 margin; Missouri tipped Colorado 14 to 7; Notre Dame walloped Kansas 52 to 0; Northwestern trampled Kansas State, 21 to 0; Iowa State rolled over Luther, 32 to 7, and Minnesota's Gophers whipped the Cornhuskers, 16 to 7.

Ohio State edged Indiana, 6 to 0 and Pitt steamrollered Pop Warner's Temple Owls, 28 to 0.

Next week, Huskers meet the Cyclones, and barring a letdown, should win handily, even tho the Yeager men have earned two wins in two games. Kansas, victor over Texas fell to pieces before a shifty Notre Dame eleven, to lower its prestige no little. Kansas State's loss was expected, altho by not such a wide margin.

Indiana's "pore little boys" showed plenty of quality in dipping their colors by only one touchdown, while Mizzou was expected to take Colorado by one or two touchdowns.
