

Society

Variety of entertainment came this week-end—with people whipping from house party to dance—or to one of Lincoln's epidemic of emotion pictures... at the Sub dance were Betty Widener—Chi O—back-for-a-visit, and Ed Steeves—Sigma Nu... and another Chi O, Margaret Jane Pyle and her Kappa Sig love (and I do mean love) Ricard Clark... at the Sig Alpha house party were Pat Pi Phi Peterson and Bill Shock... and Fleeta Sherwood—AOPI—with Forest Wilke... Wilma Grinstead, Chi Omega, grinning at her SAE date... at the most unique party—the Sigma Chi Dog-house party... were Marg Moller-Kappa and Frankie Soufal... and the decorations there snag all prizes... at the Beta party were Paul Bradley and Marj Theta Houser... and Marion Gibson, DG, and Johnny Weingarten... Verna Kappa Ray and John ATO Mason played at the park, that night... many people—specially Sigma Nu's and their dates—were at the country club... oncoming excitement predicts a fashion show to be given in the Union ballroom Wed aft... and Herbie Kay at the Turnpike—to be heard by Ruth Yourd, AOPI, and Harold Brown, Phi Delt—more later... the Sig Ep house party is Friday night, and the Phi Gam's do their bit Saturday... the SDT's have a huge exchange dinner planned with the ZBT's... and what do you have planned?

Sigma Delta Tau's who went to the Aksarben ball Saturday night were Harriet Byron, Betty Beeson and Jane Goetz.

Noticeably missing from the S. A. E. party Saturday night were Beth Howley, Rita Alger and Betty Ray, which goes to show you how times have changed. At any rate, Ray Smith was there in all his glory making a good imitation of "Harpo" Marx or any good moron, with his flaxen wig and loose-jointed actions, much to Marney Phi Beemer's disgust.

Some of last year's social lights back for a spin the past weekend were Ann Hoffman, Kappa, with Sig Alpha Schaefer; Oolie Kat Anderson made Dow Delt Wilson's life more enjoyable, and Likewise Suzi Harrison and Dick Smiley; Peggy Pascoe, Chi O, Butch Larsen, Acacia, tripping around; incidentally, Peg also receives a phone call every week from Dick Brown, S. A. E. Innocent of last year who is working for Hormel Company in Austin, Minn. This brings to mind that Eloise Benjamin, AOPI Prom Girl, is pining away for her Kappa Sig love, Dean Kerl, who is in the east, and who makes it a business to send her a collection of crazy post cards.

Y to Hold Ag Forum

City Campus Discussion Planned Wednesday

Two meetings will highlight this week's Y.M.C.A. activities, according to C. D. Hayes, secretary of the organization.

The first will be held this evening in room 305, in Ag hall on the Ag campus. The Ag Y.M.C.A. freshman council will meet with all Ag college freshman men for an open forum discussion on campus problems. All first year men at the Ag college are urged to attend.

An address, "Sex and Personal Responsibility," by Dr. O. H. Werner of the teachers college will feature the regular weekly meeting of the members of the city campus "Y," Wednesday evening. The meeting will be held in the "Y" rooms in the Temple building. Mr. Hayes says that Dr. Werner's speech will be a common approach to a problem that confronts every university man. A period for questions and answers will follow the talk.

Prof. Brackett Talks Before Ag Engineers

The Agricultural Engineering Society will meet in the Ag Engineering building at 7:30 tonight to hear Prof. E. E. Brackett speak on "Sights of the West of the Agricultural Engineer."

TYPEWRITERS
for Sale and Rent
NEBRASKA
TYPEWRITER CO.
130 No. 12th St. 03157
LINCOLN, NEBR.

1938 Directory Reaches Press

Address Book Goes On Sale in Fortnight

C. D. Hayes, of the campus Y. M. C. A., announced Monday that the Student Directory has gone to press and will be on sale within the next two weeks. The supplement to the directory, which will include information on students who have registered late, is being compiled now and will be ready for distribution a short time after the directory goes on sale.

UNION ACTIVITIES

Tuesday.
Upton Close "Japan Challenges the World," 7:30 ballroom.
Scabbard and Blade Meeting, 5:00 room 315.
Delta Phi Delta, 6:00 Parlor X.

The books will sell for 50 cents each and will be on sale in the Temple building, Union building, and at all of the book stores. They will contain the names, addresses, telephone numbers and rank of every student in the university along with other information concerning the campus.

Kirsch to Talk

Camera Club Hears Professors Today

Members of the Lincoln Camera club will hold a meeting in Gallery "A," Morrill hall today.

Dr. A. L. Lugin will greet the new members as the first part of the program. Prof. Kirsch will discuss "Your prints and the Annual Club Show," and Claude Pflger will talk about "Color Photography, Good and Bad." These talks will be followed by about 90 color photographs, made in Canada and the Pacific Southwest, by Earl Bruning of Scottsbluff. These

Czech Students Plan Sunday Morning Hike

All university students of Czech descent are invited to a Sunday morning hike and breakfast at Antelope Park. Those interested in attending should call B3935 by Friday evening.

photographs are important because of the brilliant color Mr. Bruning is able to translate to the slides.

Immediately following the meeting there will be a four group "free for all" and get together. This is to be something new and the details are being kept secret.

Lady from Barrow

A winsome young lady from Barrow
Hated ties that were stringy and narrow,
But she'd fall for the gent
Who showed thrift and good sense
And always wore neckwear by Arrow.

ARROW TIES ARE SMART

SEE THIS WEEK'S POST

page 92

Read the story of—and by—
"PUDGE" HEFFELFINGER
All-Time, All-American Guard..

AT 52, TOO ROUGH FOR FOOTBALL AT YALE!

THE ONE and only "Heff," sometimes called "the greatest football player of all time," highlights his fifty years (yes, we said fifty!) on the gridiron, compares modern and old-time football tactics, and rates the great post-war stars. You'll enjoy every line of this story from the man who says he was barred—at 52—from scrimmaging the Yale Varsity—because he was too rough! Don't miss it! It's on page 14 of your Post this week.

Nobody Put Me on My Back

by W. W. (Pudge)

HEFFELFINGER

with GEORGE TREVOR

"I'M HEADIN' WEST!"

THAT DARK NIGHT, when he ran away from home and his merciless father, Ray Talcott had but one thought: I'll head West! I'll grow up there, get tough and come back with a gun! A lonely, desperate youngster bound for the Indian country of the 70's; Sashay along with him and meet his partner, Springtime, the cow puncher; and Doctor Antelope; Maribel, the artful sneak-thief; sly, foxy old Uncle Coon; and some of the most picturesque rogues and plainmen that ever crossed sagebrush.

Begin this new novel of adventure

BITTER CREEK

by JAMES BOYD

Author of "Drums," "Roll River" and "Long Hunt"

ALSO "I SWEAR I'LL LOVE NO ONE!"

To gain one hour of society, Alice Gower stole a dress from the shop where she modeled, walked right into an exclusive Washington café and waited for something to happen. It did. Read A Little Number in Pique, by JOSEPH HERGESHEIMER.

HOW TO LIVE IN U. S. ON $7 A YEAR. Ben Lucien Burman tells you in Shanty Boat Coming Down, the story of a strangely primitive life right here in America which few of us have ever explored... Also a short story of Near East intrigue by Arthur Tuckerman; a swell fox-hunting story by Robert Murphy; a backstage yarn about a Noodler (guitar-player to you) by Horatio Winslow... Articles, editorials, poetry and cartoons.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST