

DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

Z-408

VOL. XXXVIII. NO. 33.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1938

Symphony Will Make Debut Today

Herb Schmidt Joins Group in Schumann's 'A Minor' Concerto

Conducted by Don A. Lentz, the University Symphony will make its initial appearance of the season this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the coliseum. A diversified program will be presented by the 80-piece ensemble as well as by the guest artist, Herbert Schmidt of the school of music.

Mr. Schmidt, a fine Mozartist, will join Mr. Lentz and the orchestra to play the "Concerto in A Minor" by Robert Schumann. Mr. Lentz's program is made up of 19th century composers, who more than their predecessors or successors, are easy to enjoy and exit over.

The symphony will open the pro-

(Continued on Page 4.)

Pan-Hel Awards Filing Opens

Greek Women Offer Five Scholarships

Inaugurating a new idea, the Lincoln Pan-Hellenic association will award its five $35 scholarships to sophomore and junior Greek women at the annual Pan-Hellenic Scholarship tea which will be held Nov. 18 in the Union. Formerly the scholarships have been given in the spring.

Applicants for the scholarships must obtain the blanks at Ellen Smith hall from the dean of women and return them with requested information before Nov. 10.

Eligible for the scholarships are junior and sophomore women, belonging to sororities who are partially self supporting, who are carrying 12 hours, have an average that is at least 85. A personal appearance of each applicant before the scholarship committee will be requested on Nov. 13 and 14.

Head of the Pan-Hellenic committee which awards the scholarships is Mrs. Francis Drath.

Tassels Usher At Concert Today

Members of Tassels will report today to usher at the first concert of the University symphony orchestra in the coliseum at the times appointed to them at the last Tassel meeting. Ushering will be done in uniform.

Fun Board Calls Skits

Monday Afternoon Set As Entry Deadline

The Coll-Agri-Fun board has set 5:00 Monday, Oct. 31, as the deadline for entries of skits. All persons or organizations participating in Coll-Agri-Fun Dec. 3 must have an outline of their skit presented at Dean Burr's office, accompanied by the names and telephone numbers of two persons qualified to represent the act.

The skit itself is to be presented for approval and classification by the Coll-Agri-Fun board of managers on Nov. 1 or 2. The board is encouraging speedy action and for this reason a dress rehearsal is being held Nov. 21.

Judging of the skits and curtain acts will depend on the quality of performance, time required and interest of the action rather than originality.

The following prizes will be given: High skit, Coll-Agri-Fun cup; second high skit, $4.00; high curtain act, $3.00; second high act, $2.00.

Each skit accepted and presented in at least two rehearsals and the night of Coll-Agri-Fun will receive $2.00. Each curtain act will receive $1.00 under the same conditions.

Further information may be obtained from some member of the Coll-Agri-Fun board. Those on the board are: Lois Lichliter, manager; Carroll Garey, co-manager and publicity chairman; Louise Turner, secretary; Marian Smhara, treasurer; Ray Cruise and George Gooding.

'N' Stamp Sellers Check In Monday

Final checkin of 'N' stamp money will be held at Ellen Smith hall Monday between 3:30 and 5:30. Prizes will be awarded to the winning team and to individuals.

In case of a tie prizes will be awarded according to the number of stamps sold and not according to money turned in. Prizes will not be awarded Monday, but later.

Five Enter State Tests For Oxford

Prospective Rhodes Scholars Take Exams Set for December

The University of Nebraska Rhodes scholarship committee announced Friday morning the names of five students who were chosen from a list of applicants to represent the university at the state competition scheduled for some time in December. The men named are Robert G. Simmons, jr., John Loos, John R. Dudgeon, Dean A. Worcester, jr., and William G. Hollister.

Each year thirty-two college men from the United States are awarded these scholarships good for two years attendance at the University of Oxford. Winners are judged according to their scholastic attainments, moral character, and physical vigor.

Worcester, who is senior in the college of arts and sciences, is editor of the "N" book and a member of Palladian literary society, Corn Cobs, the Barb Union, the publications board and the Barb Council.

Hollister received his A.B. degree from the university in 1937 from the college of arts and sciences and is at the present time enrolled as a freshman in the college of medicine. He is a member

(Continued on Page 4.)

Counselors Hold Dinner Thursday

Hobby Groups Prepare Program for Event

Preparations are under way for the annual Coed Counselor dinner at 6:15 Thursday night in the Union ballroom where counselors, entertain their little sisters and affiliated freshman women for the purpose of promoting friendship between affiliated and unaffiliated freshmen.

Following the dinner will be a brief program consisting of a speech of welcome by the president, Virginia Fleetwood, musical numbers, a tap dance by the dance hobby group, and a brief skit by the dramatics hobby group.

Special guests of the Coed Counselors will be their faculty sponsors, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, and Miss Letta Clark.

Price of the dinner tickets is 35 cents. They may be obtained from any Coed Counselor or Coed Counselor board member.

Delta Gamma, Sigma Nu Win Display Compet Awards

Temple Picks Soloists

Four Students, Guests Take Lead in Messiah

From 16 candidates, four university students have been chosen to sing solos in this year's annual "Messiah" concert to be presented Sunday afternoon, December 11.

According to an announcement made by William G. Tempel, Louise Stapleton and Martha McGee will share the soprano roles, while William Miller and Dale Ganz will divide the bass numbers. It is hoped that the participation of student soloists will increase the interest in the presentation as a student activity. However, the contralto and tenor solo will be sung by guest singers of national renown.

Any university student is eligible to belong to the chorus but attendance at all rehearsals is required. Beginning Nov. 1, these practices will be held at 5 o'clock each Tuesday and Thursday in Morrill, room 220. An attendance of more than 300 students is desired.

Bengtson Speaks

Lexington Chamber Hears Geographer

Tuesday evening, Dr. N. A. Bengtson, chairman of the geography department, will discuss the Lexington chamber of commerce at their annual university night program on "The Significance of Central America to American Business and Political Policies." This lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides made from his own negatives. The following day he will speak before the joint meeting of the Women's clubs of that city on "Our Latin American Neighbors and their International Relationships."

Blocks of Ice, Tarzan Win Judges' Approval; Theta, S.A.E. Second

Seven blocks of ice and a 7 foot Tarzan yesterday won the annual homecoming decorations contest for Delta Gamma and Sigma Nu.

In the unique DG display "victory" was spelled out in glittering ice, while a Sigma Nu Tarzan swung to and fro dangling a tiger and emitting fierce yells until frosh lungs gave out.

Placing second in the sorority decoration contest division was Kappa Alpha Theta's "Fire" sketch. Third honors went to Chi Omega and their Cornhusker laundry. To Pi Beta Phi's "Tisket Tasket," and Alpha Chi Omega's "Heaven," went honorable mention.

Running Sigma Nu a close second, Sigma Alpha Epsilon's balloon was another stand out. Third place went to Sigma Phi Epsilon and the hunting display. Phi Delta Theta's "Schoolroom" and Phi Gamma Delta's "Swingaroo" were awarded honorable mention.

Judging committee, composed of Terry Townsend and Bill Newens, both commercial artists, rated contestants on the three points of idea, execution, and showmanship.

With a record breaking number of entrants in this year's contest, some 16 sororities and 18 fraternities competed in the contest.

Three hundred couples jammed their way last night into the Union ballroom to dance to the music of the Beck-Jungbluth orchestra at the Innocents Homecoming party. One of the biggest affairs of its kind on the campus, the party this year featured presentation of awards in the homecoming decorations contest.

To Stan Huffman, of Elgin, went the football bearing the autographs of the 1938 Husker squad and members of the coaching staff.

Vanderbilt Sees Madmen About to Rule World Destiny

International Reporter Quotes Hitler, Il Duce

By Tom Hicks.

Mad men are running the greater part of the world. If the people of the United States do not hold together, their destinies will be controlled by these machines. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., reporter of the world, made this prophecy as he concluded his speech at the coliseum, Friday night.

Vanderbilt's speech closed the two day convention of district 1, Nebraska State Teachers association.

Rosenlof Talks

Educator Makes State Speaking Tour

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, Teachers college, gave three lectures in Hastings recently. He spoke at the Hastings college chapel; also before school board members and teachers of Adams county and before the state W. C. T. U. convention. Thursday he was in Chadron talking before the general teachers meeting on "The Enlarging Horizon of Professional Responsibility" and before a section program on "Important Considerations in Curriculum Building." Chadron Rotary club heard him at their noon luncheon. On Friday he traveled to Omaha where he presided at a round table of the social studies section of the district teachers' convention.

More than 2,000 teachers heard him speak, thru arrangements of the Lincoln chamber of commerce. Officials declared the total attendance of 4,000 at business sessions of the convention this year, was the largest they have ever had.

Comments on World Affairs.

Despite his subject, "The Twelve Most Interesting Men I Have Interviewed," Vanderbilt was unable to keep from commenting on the world conditions. If Hitler fails to take Ukraine, he will turn on England and France. If he is successful, war will be postponed a while longer, Vanderbilt foresaw failure.

In an interview following his speech, he declared that America should arm immediately and cooperate with the western democracies. South America is about to become fascist. Japan will conquer China, mobilize her new subjects and move against her colonial neighbors.

Again in Twelve Men.

Speaking of the 12 most interesting men, he began, "After the crucifixion 12 men sold an idea to the world. Today, 12 men are again selling their ideas. Most of them want war."

He told of driving with Mussolini when il duce ran over a child. Mussolini did not stop. To the shocked Vanderbilt he said, "Never look back." Audaciously posing as a diplomat, Vanderbilt encountered Hitler, was told Germany will conquer the world "including your im-

(Continued on Page 4.)

Miss Bonnie Barks: 'Try for Trip to Kansas; Ball Tickets, Cokes by Picking Right Name'

Mascot Receives 1,000 Grill Room Names

"A trip to the Kansas game, with all expenses paid," barked Miss Bonnie, the coal black, wire haired Scotty, the Sweetheart of Student Union and sponsor of the name-the-room contest. "Why, even you might think of a name for the Student Union grill room that would win the name contest and the prize of the Kansas trip. And if the name you submit is a crackerjack but not quite the ultra-crackerjack you might get the second prize of two Military Ball or Mortar Board tickets or the third prize of 20 free cokes to be consumed in the watch-may-call-it. Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, it doesn't cost a cent; all you do is write in a name on a name blank, drop it in the name-box in the Student Union lobby, and call for your prize next Thursday."

"Easy, easy," cautioned Miss Bonnie's secretary. "Miss Bonnie used to be a barker for Gentry's Dog and Pony Show and every time she gets enthused about something she lapses into her barker's spiel."

Scotch Accent.

"Oi hev a perrrrfect roight to be (Continued on Page 4.)

