

Date Dress Dark Horse Comes Thru for Coeds On Nebraska Campus

By Marian Bremers.

The many house parties, open houses, and dances are always making it necessary for Nebraska coeds to have the latest in date dresses. Theta Franny Wrightsman has a wine and teal crepe that will make the fellows take notice. It has a flare skirt and trim of rhinestones and champagne buttons. With her brunette coloring Rosanne Sheehan of Kappa Kappa Gamma looks lovely in a hunter's green wool dress trimmed in multicolored tufts of candlewick yarn.

Another brunette, Marion Stone from Kappa Delta wears a rust wool, button-up-the-back dress decorated with yarn flower embroidery. Ash blond Alpha Chi Val Harper accents her fairness by appearing in a black wool dress trimmed in gold kid plus a skunk chubby jacket. Then Donna Bullis who is an auburn haired Alpha Phi is perfect in olive green wool with braid of the same material on the front and brown accessories.

Nan Talbot, Delta Gamma, brought unusual brown angora wool dress which is quite plain but striking. Stripes of black and green are used in Alpha Xi Delta's Martha Long's shirtwaist dress which is accented by a wide green suede belt.

Wool, Wool, Everywhere.

Nelle Lippitt, A. O. Pi accents her teal date dress with a large coral pin at the neckline, while Alpha Chi Delta's Bora uses a rhinestones clip on her teal monastic style dress.

Smooth Ginny Smith of Theta chooses a maroon wool having detachable plaid vest and white pique collar and bright silver buttons. Black velvet for dates is the choice of Doris Grabow, Kappa Delta pledge, Kappa Betty Jane Hopewell looks perk in a light blue chashemere knit dress, as does Alpha Phi Janice Lee Morrison in her pale blue knit dress with China blue accessories. Again teal appears, this time in Theta Lois Keller's crepe dress of teal, wine and black. Maxine Kingsbury, Delta Gamma, with the auburn hair and blue eyes is a picture in her dark rose wool accented with gold buttons and black accessories.

Plaid makes a lovely dress for Betty Gronquist, Alpha Xi Delta, when combined in yellow, green and blue. Hazel Wisner of Alpha Omicron Pi will cause many complimentary glances when she appears in her mustard sheer wool dress embroidered in yarn, while Chi Omega Margaret Jane Pyle is darling in a black crepe woven with white yarn.

"The so-called social sciences are not sciences at all in any manner analogous to the natural sciences," Dr. Harold W. Woods, president of Princeton university, adds that science has helped the man in the street but little in deciding how he should vote.

It's "Hoops My Dear" as Gay Nineties Bring Back Ribbons, Ostrich Plumes, Petticoats in Feminine Fripperies

By Helen JK Severa.

It's hoops, my dear, and a riot of blinds... a black ribbon about your neck and an ostrich feather in your hair... the demurely daring petticoat formal and something just the suggestion of a bustle... and a miff to keep your hands warm! All to take you back to the gay nineties! New monastic type formals with yards and yards of material and wide waist belt feminine touch.

The Honorary Colonel was there... but no one knew who she was... at Hovland Swanson's formal fashion show, Tuesday night. Her disguise was made perfect by a black mask, and her colonial costume was correct to the last detail. Her honorary highness introduced the fashion show...

N. U. Grad Pleads Red Cross Cause

Esther Gaylord, who was graduated from Nebraska in 1931, now looks out appealingly at readers throughout the United States from the new Red Cross roll call poster which was painted by Lawrence Wilbur to urge Americans to "join" between now and Thanksgiving.

Esther was "tops" as a Nebraska coed. Not only was she a Phi Beta Kappa; she was a Martar Board, Tassel, student council member, A. W. S. president, sophomore attendant to the May queen, and president of Mystic Fish. Now she has turned to modeling in John Powers agency in New York, posing as the charming housewife, the woman whose baby is sick or whose husband died without leaving any insurance.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gaylord of Lincoln, she has two cousins, Betty and Bob McGeechin, now attending Nebraska.

partment to the news. According to this then-active member of the O. T. C., the cadets were marching from 12:30 until 5 o'clock, covering most of downtown Lincoln several times.

During the evening the strict discipline of the preceding months was realized, and the O. T. C. cadets were given leave from their quarters in the then-unfinished Social Science hall. Most of the cadets joined the street dancing near the old capitol, where several blocks of H street were roped off for the dancing.

The false report which preceded the actual signing of the Armistice by 48 hours server in the most part to build up more intense feeling at the time of the real action. Members of the faculty and alumni who had friends or relatives at the front or in camp have recollection of definite feelings of relaxation from the emotional tension of the later stages of the war.

Members of the O. T. C. who had nursed hopes of being sent "across" were at first disappointed

White Chiffon Sets Off Morgan

Jean Morgan, Alpha Phi, Nebraska Sweetheart candidate, sets off her dark hair and eyes with a white chiffon formal, softly draped... gold sequin girdle, gold sequin cap and twisted gold satin cloth sandals... all from Gold's.

Union Fireplace Proves Its Worth

"Dan" Touches Match To First Official Fire

Contrary to popular opinion, the fireplace in the Student Union lounge really works! Students who happened into the lounge yesterday were surprised and perhaps received a tinge of homesickness when they were greeted by a blazing fire in the heretofore unused fireplace.

Credit for the cheery fire belongs directly to Dan, the student Union janitor. Dan, a modest sort of a fellow, refused to accept credit for the performance, however and merely commented, "Heck, it wasn't anything, I just chopped up a few old boxes and there you are."

Dan further proved to be the man of the hour by promising bigger and better fires in the future and pooh-foed the reporter's suggestion that this was one of the better fires. "This first fire is merely in the nature of a preview but fires in the future will be of the old fashioned log variety and should prove popular to the students," Dan commented.

Dr. Louise Pound is in Washington, D. C., this weekend attending the annual meeting of the executive committee of the American association of university women of which organization she is a national vice-president. She meets with other special committees at Chicago and Baltimore.
