Dear Diary: Another week-of-it-all well underway... with reminiscences of the weekend still uppermost... like hay-hay time at Kappa Sig Barn dance... DU pledge party so good that one of the boys pulled down plaster try-to get a souvenir decoration... Club livened by one of the younger set, Gene (Paul's brother) Bradley, giving Mary Rosborough, Theta, low-down of swath he expects to cut in the future... floor at Beta house being sprawled upon by an Alpha Phi... Eilnor Rickle, Pi Phi, in the drug, as one of the "gals came back"... Martha Whelan, Tri Delt, the choice for All-American girl, presented at the Lincoln theater... everybody dropping in at the Sigma Alpha Mu house party, and dates like Mickey Krasne, SDT, and Morrie Lipp, Selma Hill and Harriet Byron, SDT's, with Norman Bordy and Ray Brown... Fran Timbers, Cay Deurmyer, Marie Anderson, Virginia Geister, Virginia Wheeler, part of the guest list at the Sunday night dinner at Sigma Chi... Kappa Sig Don Schultz remarking about the dim lights at the house, making the basement a dark room, where anything might develop... a steady to start this week-end in the Beta and Kappa house... Alpha Phi, Marni Bremers, lauding her cagey new lamp... firesides planned for game-listening this week-end, so order you candy and popcorn, kiddies...

More week end reviewing. At the Pi K. A. house party, the decorations on first floor consisted of pink elephants of every size, and description, and one lone green snake that Bud Rapp made all by himself. From the chandeliers were streamers of garnet and gold, the fraternity colors.

The Kappa sigs outdid themselves in trying to make everyone feel at home, especially that little room down in the basement. But the main floor certainly carried out the motif. Bales of hay were used instead of chairs, chickens were around in coops, and the costumes of the whole crowd added the finishing touches. Afterwards, in one of their funnier moods, two couples from the party went down in front of the T. P., and tied a rope onto a lamp post, and held it across the sidewalk, charging admission to go by. But that didn't last too long, for some of the patrons didn't want to pay too badly.

At the Delt hard times house party gunny sacks were placed over the windows to give it that real look, and running around loose was George Rosen with quite a bit of lipstick scattered thither and yon on his beaming pan, Oolie Anderson, Theta, and Dow Wilson came together, but didn't seem to stay together all evening. About 11:30 the place was vacated with the exception of the chaperons, and it's still a

A.I.E.E. To Hear Frank Phelps

Discussion of Electric Lifts Set Tomorrow

"The Application of Direct Current to Modern Electric Elevators" is the title of the address to be given by Frank E. Phelps, undergraduate student in electrical engineering, before a meeting of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers which will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 206 of mechanical engineering hall.

Following Phelps' address, W. S. Laird, salesman for General Electric, will discuss the points brought out by the speaker. After the discussion the group will go to the Stuart building where it will inspect the installation of a modern electric elevator under the direction of George Wertz, operating engineer of the building.

"EASY TO KILL?"

ONLY ONE WOMAN in this quiet, innocent English village scented murder—cold-blooded, cunning murder. "It's very easy to kill," she told Luke Fitzwilliam, "if no one suspects you." But before she could name the killer, she, too, was struck down. And Luke, just back from police duty in the Straits Settlements, found himself facing a new kind of menace—"accidental" death... You'll find the first installment of this mystery thriller on page 5 of your Post.
