And in this corner!—1939! The fleeting hours of '38 rought comfort and pain to Cornhusker fans, for the nine touring cagers, besides shinnying up next to starlets and touring studios upped and won themselves a couple of swell basketball games, then dropped two to the same teams they conquered.

New Years eve may have seen next fall's footballers resolving to carry off conference and intersectional laurels come next football season ... we hope so!

Oklahoma's Sooners traveled some 1500 miles to drop their first game of the 1939 season to Tennessee 17 to 0, with Corn-huskers a bit disappointed. Re-ports that Vol Coach Neyland had tried to get the Biffer to re-lay information on the Sooners had Nebraskans strongly antivolunteer.

Charlie Brock showed west coast fans that his bid for All American honors the past season was no bluff, but Dan Hill and Ki Aldrich lived up to their names also, so no one will be able to tell which of the three is the best center until they meet in pro games, which they may do.
Bitsy Grant bobbed up to cart
