

SOCIETY

A BIG WEEKEND the outlook of the last two school days... headlined by Phi Mu formal Friday and the Interfraternity Ball Saturday... and Sunday night dinners at the Beta and ATO houses... you'll see Jane Allen, Tri Delta, at the ball with Ray Rolland, ATO, and Polly Jo Taylor, Alpha Chi with Jim Foreman, Sigma Chi... and slight mixup is connected with one of the Sigma Chi brothers, Carl Cleveland, who is not yet back from his exam-week vacation, but when he comes, he has a date for the ball with Eunice Halm, Alpha Chi, and also another girl... some dual personality... on the waxing warmer list for the day are Bill Shofstall, Beta and Ruth Iverson, Tri Delta... add to that Bob McCorkindale, Sig Ep, and Betty Lou Wentz, Alpha Phi... and Du Bob Luther, again, with Marguerite Young, Chi Omega... back for a visit for a day or two is Theta Virginia Smith, who last year, you remember, started wearing the Sigma Nu pin of Paul Wertz... the usual crowd did their two-stepping at the matinee dance, a new face was that of Dotty Kutcher, Kappa, who danced with lots of the boys... and DU Ed May, of the gift-fruit Mays, was alone thar... Phi Psi's say that their new dog—Darnit is on the verg of Gosh Darnits...

At a recent election of Sig Ep, Dwan Green was made president, Harry Seagren, vice president, Francis Morris, secretary, Julian Eors, historian, and Milton Mastalir, comptroller.

A new pledge at Chi Phi is George Lonie, from Bayard.

Honor Barb girls at tea today

9 Ag, 24 city women have necessary points

Nine girls from ag college will be among the 33 Barb women to be honored this afternoon at the Barb A. W. S. tea in the Union. Girls who have earned 50 or more activity points will be awarded pins and those with 35 points will be recognized.

Velma Ekwall, Barb A. W. S. president, will present the pins and awards based upon the records of the points committee headed by Jenette Swenson. The tea will be in parlors Y and X and begins at 3:30. Pins will be given at 5 o'clock. Betty Ann Duff and Rosalie Stuart are in charge of the arrangements. Sponsors Miss Gertrude Goering and Miss Margaret Cannell will pour. Piano music will be played during the ceremony by Elizabeth Hansen.

Cornhusker picture deadline set for Feb. 3

Pictures for the Cornhusker must be returned to Townsend studios by Friday, Feb. 3. Unless they are returned by this time the pictures will not be published.

Michigan education calls N. U. conclave success

Dr. E. J. Johnston, principal of the University of Michigan high school, who has been at the University of Nebraska the past week speaking at daily conferences on "The Evaluation of Secondary School Standards," said Wednesday that he was particularly well pleased with the accomplishment and enthusiasm shown the program.

His meetings were held in the Union building under the sponsorship of the Nebraska committee of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The co-operative programs have been staged for the benefit of Nebraska teachers.

Group to discuss Fascism, dictator

International Relations club will hear Angelino

First meeting of the semester for the International Relations club tonight features a discussion of fascism and Mussolini by Henry Angelino.

The affair, which is a dinner meeting with discussion afterward, will begin at 6:00, although Angelino's talk and later discussion will not open until around 6:30, so that those who do not wish to attend the dinner may be present for the forum later.

Dr. Ponce Vargas of Chile was to have talked on her native country, but her appearance has been temporarily delayed because of her concern over the recent disastrous earthquake in her native country.

Plans will be laid for the Mississippi Valley International Relations conference in Omaha, March 17-18. New books received for the club by Prof. Norman Hill, sponsor, will be on display.

Other teams which may come through include Zeta Beta Tau, Alpha Sigma Phi, Theta Chi, and Sigma Alpha Mu. In tonight's games the Betas meet the Alpha Sigs, Zeta Beta Tau the Phi Gams, and Sigma Alpha Mu the Theta Chis.

In order to finish the basketball slate earlier than last year, games have been scheduled for Saturday afternoons in addition to those scheduled during the week. Class B basketball will not start until next Tuesday night.

Petz Gives Eligibility Rules.

Decisions as to eligibility of players for "A" or "B" competition will be based on the following rule, according to Intramural Director H. G. Petz: "A player who has represented his organization on the class 'A' team cannot become a member of the class 'B' team unless he played only in the first scheduled class 'A' game and then transfers to the class 'B' team before the second class 'A' game is played. A player is permitted to go from a class 'B' team to a class 'A' team at any time but cannot return to the class 'B' team except as previously stated."

Engineers view film of aluminum process

Members of the student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers watched the transition of aluminum from ore to the finished product last night when they viewed a film, loaned by the Aluminum Company of America, dealing with the subject of aluminum manufacturing.
