

Mingling with Marg

Brrrr . . . naughty noses, frigid feet, buckled knuckles . . . all from the cold wave, as Will Weatherman would say . . . and yet the social whirl carries on . . . These big events are now bygone . . . the crowded Turnpike Saturday and Sunday nights . . . Beth Howley and Harold Schrag did the corner-twirling Saturday, and Sunday night Sig Alph Hi Mesmore was with Kappa Mary Lou Kelly, ATO Joe Laughlin and Kappa Marian Bowers, Sigma Nu Bob Livengood and Pi Phi Opal Stebbins, John Keating, Sig Alph, and Chi O Hope Drummond, Phi Delt Frank Burdell and Delta Gamma Jane Austin . . . at the DU buffet dinner were Ned Anderson and Hokey Weaver, Alpha Chi, visiting from Omaha, and Kappa Betty Kennedy with Bob Wekeser . . . at Sig Alph were Alpha Phi Gertrude Berggren and Bill Hinrichs, and Bob Burruss with Kappa Marj Ruyman . . . it seems that Howard Liston, Sig Ep pledge, has found it exceedingly embarrassing to carry a promised affair with a Denver gal when one Ruth Coordes, Gamma Phi pledge has been having her way about things of late . . . and also from the Gamma Phi house comes the news that Helen Kovanda, along with Lynn Meyers, won third place in a "jitterbug" contest and is therefore entitled to a six months subscription to COUNTRY GENTLE-

Lutheran students dine Saturday

Gamma Delta gives annual informal dinner

Nebraska alumni and Missouri synod Lutheran students are entertaining at their annual Gamma Delta informal banquet Saturday evening in parlors XYZ of the union.

Beta Sigma Psi, Lutheran sorority, will also be represented by musical entertainment furnished by the students. Featured speaker of the banquet will be Irwin Bernstrauch, member of the board of directors for the Lutheran Charities association of Greater Omaha. Bernstrauch, a Nebraska alumnus, will speak on the subject, "Publicity Work With Omaha Missions and Charities."

Seven committees are making preparations for the banquet. The committees and their members are: Tickets, Marvin Witman, Hyacinth Harseh, Ione Rossmiller, Frederick Worthmann; program, Dick Ostwald, Alma Glade, Rev. H. Erck; printing, Ruby Hodtwalker, Frieda Miller, Mildred Hodtwalker; art, Irma Bamesberger, Geraldene Buls, Ivan Sunderman, Helen Scheve, Charles Fenster, Bob Worthmann; entertainment, Dorothy Lemke, Harry Kammerlohr, Lila Myerott, Harry Uhrenholdt; welcome, Louise Klein, Don Meixel, Helen Bamesberger, Magdelene Roberts; publicity, Eldor Schulz, Otto Ruff, Barbara Romine. Tickets for the banquet are fifty cents.

Badminton finals to be played today

Pattersons go against Schwartz, Clements

The final game in the girls badminton tournament will be played this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the girl's gym. Winners of the fourth round are Seng-Stearns, Independent over Armstrong-Hakanson, Alpha Chi; Pattersons, Tri Delt over Schmidt-Mains, Bouton; Aitken-Mickey, Tri Delt over Alger-Williamson, Pi Phi, and Schwartz-Clements, Raymond Hall over Kellison-Swoboda.

Fifth round winners are Pattersons over Seng-Stearns, and Schwartz-Clements over Aitken-Mickey.

Rev. McConnell speaks at 'Y' vespers today

Rev. R. A. McConnell, of the First Plymouth Congregational church, will speak at Y. W. vespers today on "The Significance of Lent". Frances Keefer will play two piano solos and Mary Bullock will lead in the devotions.

A new course in historiography providing a basic knowledge of the historical method has been established at St. Lawrence university.

MAN-free . . . isn't that just too thrilling a prize . . . and thus another week-end of society has gone . . . with the Prom and several formals the next week the biggest events to plan for . . .

Yesterday at four, Miss Jane Van Sickle was married here in Lincoln to Rex Clemons. Mrs. Clemons was a Theta when in school, and her husband a Sig Alph.

Sunday afternoon university women entertained at a tea in Alice Loomis Hall. Another tea will be held in several weeks.

Sig Ep announces the pledging of Charles Bitner and Charles Aubert.

Dorothy Bumstead, of Omaha, Alpha Phi alumnae, was married Feb. 17, in Melbourne, Australia, to David Allen Cook. Mrs. Bumstead, who had been traveling in Australia with a theatrical company will make her home there.

Engineers debate utilities question

Discussion to be held in Union tomorrow night

The question of government versus private ownership of public utilities will be the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers tomorrow night at 7:30 in parlor C of the Union.

Clifford Thompson and Claude Tetherow, engineering juniors, have challenged Norman Sove and Ralph Iyata, engineering seniors, to a debate on the utilities question. Thompson and Tetherow will defend private ownership; while Sove and Iyata pre will present the case for government ownership.

Following the debate an open discussion, in which all members of the audience may participate, will be held. Everyone interested in the discussion topic has been invited to attend the meeting.

The guardians of the Dionne quintuplets have refused the Rollins college request for a stone

The Rag needs . . . You! Can you use extra spending money? Try your luck at selling advertising for the Daily Nebraskan. See Dick McGinnis, business manager, for places to go and people to see. You can boost the advertising record of the Rag and make money for yourself.

from the tot's nursery for inclusion in the southern college's famed walk of fame.

School administrators to hear CCC complaints

The C. C. C. boys will tell what they think the schools fail to do for them at the February meeting of the School Administration club to be held this evening at the Denton camp at 5 o'clock.

Also on the program are Gomer Jones, educational advisor, and E. J. Nelson, camp captain.

The Lincoln members will meet at 4:15 at Teachers college, room 125, to leave for the camp where they will eat with the boys before the meeting.

Cox's band to play at 'payoff' party

'Bicycle days of '98' chosen theme of affair

Johnny Cox and his orchestra will provide the rhythm for the annual Phi Upsilon Omicron, professional home economics sorority, "payoff" party in the Student activities building on Ag campus at 9 o'clock February 24.

The almost proverbial "bicycle days" of '98 will lend the theme for the "boy takes 'l" affair. Decorations will consist of snappy slogans interspersed with myriads of yellow daisies.

Managers of the affair are Jane Brackett, general manager; Gwen Jack, publicity chairman; Mary Gilbertson, decoration manager; and Lois Hammond is in charge of arrangements for a dinner for members of the group and dates preceding the party.

Tickets are on sale by members of Phi Upsilon Omicron. Admission charges will be forty cents for women and thirty-five for men. Attire can be formal or informal.

JOHN ROBERT POWERS, the head of the world's best known model agency, when booking his famous models for fashions, advertisers and artists, says "The call is for beauty, poise, personal charm . . . the perfect combination".

The Perfect Combination gets the call...

Chesterfields get the call from more and more smokers every day because of their refreshing mildness, better taste and pleasing aroma.

The perfect combination of Chesterfield's mild ripe American and aromatic Turkish tobaccos . . . the can't-be-copied blend . . . makes Chesterfield the cigarette that gives millions of men and women more smoking pleasure.

When you try them you will know why Chesterfields give more smoking pleasure, why THEY SATISFY

Chesterfield

...the blend that can't be copied

...a HAPPY COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

