

Mingling with Marg

Dull days packed very full of nothing, especially society... which means, we suppose, lots of study—or sleep—or play... on the other hand, such forthcoming events as the Prom, and the ATO and Kappa Delta formals bring great anticipation... an unusual event, concerning the Prom, took place at the Sig Ep-Pi Phi hour dance the other night, when John Scofield asked Mary Bell Bates to the Prom, one of the few dates ever resulting from an hour dance acquaintance, we think... It's on again and off again with the affair of Sigma Kappa Gerry Hubbard and Duke Finnigan, who have now decided that the whole thing is definitely off again... but on again it is—or do we dare say it, knowing how hearts change overnight, with Alpha Phi Pat Jensen and ATO Claude Wilson... they are dating now, and Phi Delta Culver Brooks is none too happy about the whole thing... steadies are really steady when the girls have the boys dine at their sorority for dinner, as Martha Whelan and Jane Ellis, Tri Deltas, had Ed Segrist, Chi Phi, and Bob Adams, DU, at their house the other night... and the mention of Chi Phi brings to mind that during Preparation Week (Health to some, Hell to most), their pledges were sent to bring back a blonde... and they did bring a very charming Peggy—from one of the Uni Terrace houses... It seems that a highly prized baseball bat belonging to the Sigma Chi's was taken by error to the A O Pi house, and when they returned it, the boys presented them with a flag... raving about what a good stiff sport skiing is, is blonde Delta Gamma Gerry Wallace... "Good morning, John," provoked by the ad in yesterday's rag, has been the by-word of countless gals with any kind of blonde hair to countless boys with any sort of a brief case... and now that B. D. O. C. is revealed, many of the boys are sprucing up fit to kill—who will be the winnah... and today is the day of the tea dance at five...

PI K A announces the pledging of Stanley Lind of Lexington. There were candy and cigars Monday night at the Alpha Chi and Sig Alph houses when Marion Cushing and Ralph Bristol turned out the treats.

Alex McKie, a national officer of Pi K A, visited their chapter last Saturday and Sunday.

Studio group acts tonight

Two plays scheduled for Temple stage at 7

A double-header is scheduled for the Studio theater program tonight at 7:00 in the Temple. Combined with "Slave of Two Faces," an allegorical fantasy, will be four scenes from "The Women." Claire Booth's embarrassingly accurate portrayal of the deadlier species.

Because there are so many parts in this glorified feminine cat-sion, each girl will have several parts, with the exception of Jean Morgan, who will portray Mrs. Stephen Haynes, the nice wife who manages to hold her man, in spite of the strenuous efforts of Crystal, played by Hollis French. When not husband-snatching, Miss French will take the parts of a broken-down countess and a gossiping manicurist.

Rowena Beadle plays gossip.

Chief scandal-monger will be Rowena Beadle as Sylvia. Tex-Roselle Rounds will take parts of Peggy, who is being renovated, and a hair-dresser. Nancy, an authoress, will be played by Barbara Birk, and Miriam, a friend of Mary Haynes, will be played by Grace Elizabeth Hill.

In "Slave of Two Faces" Verne Geisinger will be Life; parts of the two girls will be taken by Tex-Roselle Rounds and Barbara Birk.

Attendance is limited to those students who are taking speech courses, according to Richard Rider, director of the Studio theater.

IS THE U.S. PREVENTING (or provoking) A NEW WORLD WAR?

► What one country worries Europe most today? Germany? Italy? Russia? Japan? No, the answer is the United States. A brilliant foreign correspondent reaches this conclusion after gathering evidence from behind the European scene, where statesmen fear that Uncle Sam may upset the bomb racks. See Uncle Sam Scares Europe, by Demaree Bess.

They toy with DEATH UNDER THE RIVER

► "Sand hogs" have their choice of three quick, easy ways to die. They can be drowned, trapped by fire, killed by compressed air. No wonder they call river tunneling a man's job—a crazy man's! Here's the story of the young mechanic who licked a job no old-timer would touch. You Can't Stop a Guy Like That, says Borden Chase.

THE SPY they wouldn't believe

► It was March, 1936... and Hitler was moving into the Rhineland. Would he back down if France mobilized? Only one Frenchman knew—and the Army wouldn't believe him! A dramatic story of espionage: Crisis by William C. White.

20 years old, and the "FIGHTIN'EST GAL IN ALL ARIZONA!"

Here's a new kind of heroine—slim young Phoebe Titus, who had reddish-chestnut hair and a ready hand with a Sharps rifle. Fighting her own way through Arizona of the 60's... a land overrun by Apache raiders, Mexican bandits, gamblers, murderers, and riffraff from the States. Fearing no man in the Southwest—yet finding there the one man she could love.

(Continued from Page 1) and philosophical sense. He admits of faith in the philosophical principals on which the sects of modern Buddhism are based and subscribes to the teachings of Buddhism on the basis of sound reasoning rather than on basis of miraculous happenings.

Learned to slow up heart beat.

During his studies of the Yogi practices Bernard learned to stop breathing for an indefinite length of time, go without sleeping, slow up his heart beat and halt the flow of blood to a segregated vein at will. He also mastered the feat of living on four hours of sleep eating only one meal a day. In the way of explanation he states that "it is only a question of training the body to renew itself as it does in sleep while wide awake."

In his forthcoming book "Penthouse of the Gods" will be described the unusual accounts of his adventures and some of the results of the studies he made of this land and its religion.

Admission to Theos Bernard's lectures will be ten cents per person.
