DePaul wins over Husker cagers, 37-33

Neu scores 17 points to lead Demons; Skrodski, Fitz, Kovanda foul out

Captain Bob Neu led DePaul's Demons to a 37-33 win over Nebraska Friday night, pouring in 17 points on five field goals and seven free tosses besides playing a sparkling floor game.

The Blue Demons jumped into an early 8-0 lead in the first five minutes of play, and the Huskers spent the rest of a dull first half nibbling at the lead.

Al Werner tied the count at 13-all after nearly 17 minutes had elapsed, but DePaul spurted again and led 17-14 at halftime.

Stan Szukala opened the second half with a side shot for the Demons, but Al Randall's free throw and basket along with two long beauties by Al Werner put the Huskers ahead 21-20 after 4 minutes as all the invaders could garner was a free throw by Neu.

Kovanda's fielder gave the Huskers their longest lead of the game, but the Demons jumped in front again as Tollstam and the inevitable Neu potted baskets. Don Fitz made a free throw and basket while Neu was converting two free throws on Bill Kovanda's foul to tie it 26-all. Szukala scored his fourth and last basket of the game, but the Huskers went into the lead for the last time on a free throw by Fitz, and Thomas' shot from behind the free throw circle with a little over 7 minutes to go.

Neu came thru again, and the Demons led from there on out, adding baskets by Sachs and Neu along with two free throws by Ed Norris while the best Nebraska could do was Bill Kovanda's fielder.

Most of the game's action came in the last minute and a half as Browne sent a stream of substitutes in and out to stretch the playing time. Coach Haggerty of DePaul furnished the sideline entertainment with a performance which rivaled any Phog Allen or Rube Hoy ever staged as he protested Browne's action.

Nebraska returns to Big Six play as they travel to Ames Monday night to meet Iowa State. Summary:

Simmons' last lap spurt brings victory

Lloyd Wright surprises to take 60 over Fagler Hackney heaves shot 51-6 to beat Bob Mills;

With anchor man Bob Simmons coming from behind to win in the crucial last event mile relay, Nebraska nosed out a strong Kansas State team 56 to 48 here yesterday afternoon.

Surprise win of the meet was capped by sophomore Lloyd Wright, Beatrice speedster, who nosed out Paul Fagler by three yards in the 60 yard dash. Lloyd competed yesterday for the first time this year.

Elmer "One Man Gang" Hackney lived up to his reputation as he heaved the shot 51 feet 6 inches to win that event from Bob Mills who made 49 feet 4 1/4 inches for second place. Edsel Wibbels gave Nebraska a third in the event with a toss of 46 feet 3 inches.

Bob Simmons came back after a week's layoff to register the best time in the Big Six this year, injured leg and all, as he won handily over Toole of K-State in 51.7 seconds. Bob Neumann, Harold Scott and Jack Dodd swept the pole vault for the Huskers, finishing in a three way tie for first.

Mehaffey wins high jump.

In the high jump event, Lester Mehaffey, elongated Wildcat, cleared 6 feet 1/4 inch, and easily nosed out Kahler and Chapin of Nebraska, and teammates Day and Jones.

Bob Kahler nosed out another Wildcat star as he breasted the tape inches ahead of Dick Hotchkiss in the 60 yard low hurdles Jack Dodd captured third place to give Nebraska an even break in the hurdles.

Favoring an injured knee, Harwin Dawson, conference broad jump champ, took his specialty, making 22 feet 6 1/2 inches. One jump was all he needed to win the event, passing all the rest of his turns to save his knee for the Big Six championships at Missouri next week. Bob Neumann copped second in the same event to give the Huskers much needed points.

Distance men topped the scoring in the meet as Charles Mitchell, State mile and two mile winner, got 10 points, and Al Kuper, Husker middle distance runner garnered 9 1/2 points for second scoring honors. Bob Kahler, Husker hurdler and jumper, grabbed 9 points for third place.

Red Littler led Jack Bengel, Bob DeFruiter and George Abel to the tape in that order in an exhibition freshman 50 yard dash during the

Furr, Hagelin star in easy swim victory

K-State gets but one win as Brown takes 50 yard freestyle event

Led by Houghton Furr and Student Coach Pete Hagelin, the Nebraska swimmers had little trouble doubling the score on Kansas State to take a 56 to 28 decision in the coliseum pool Saturday afternoon. It was the final Husker-duel prior to the Big Six meet Friday and Saturday, Mar. 3 and 4.

From the 300 yard medley relay to the closing 400 yard free style relay there was little doubt as to how the meet would come out. The Staters were able to cop only one first place, that in the 50 yard freestyle, when Harold Brown beat out Bob Simmons.

Furr and Hagelin tied for one first place and each garnered an individual first. Altho leading by some 10 yards in the 220 freestyle, Hagelin coasted to let his pupil cross the finish line with him.

Furr took the 440 freestyle by 20 yards over Ingraham of Kansas State, while Hagelin grabbed top honors in the 100 freestyle. In addition, the latter swam third on the winning freestyle relay squad.

The Huskers were without the services of a pair of mainstays in Bob Chatt and Ted Legate, who were ill. However Furr and Bob Simmons made up for this by appearing in their initial affairs. Simmons took second in the 50 freestyle and swam on the freestyle relay quartet.

Ralph Worden tallied 276.5 points to win the diving for the fifth time this year. Altho a sophomore, Worden has been defeated only once. Summaries:

300 yd. medley relay: Won by Nebraska (Van Horn, Rodenbeck and Younger). Time 3:30.8.

220 yd. freestyle: Tie for first between Hagelin (N) and Furr (N); third, Uhrin (KS). Time 2:49.4.

50 yd. freestyle: Won by Brown (KS); second, Simmons (N); third, Van Horn (N). Time 27 seconds.

Diving: Won by Worden (N); second, Novak (KS); third, Younger (N). 276.5 points.

100 yd. freestyle: Won by Hagelin (N); second, Brown (KS); third, Erickson (KS). Time 58.5.

150 yd. back stroke: Won by Van Horn (N); second, Lake (N); third, Smoll (KS). Time 1:56.4.

200 yd. breast stroke: Won by Rodenbeck (N); second, Carl (KS); third, Sipe (KS). Time 2:52.5.

400 yd. freestyle relay: Won by Nebraska (Younger, Simmons, Hagelin and Rodenbeck). Time 4:11.0.

As I See It by June Bierbower

Nebraska won its Kansas State track meet for the second consecutive year by virtue of a win in the relay. Last year the Huskers went into the final event with a 51-1-3 to 47-2-3 lead and held it as they came through in the relay, although a bad exchange at the end of the third and fourth laps nearly gave Bob Simmons too much of a handicap to overcome.

Simmons, who was out last week with a pulled tendon in his leg, came through again for the Huskers as he overtook the Wildcat runner on the last lap. Bob Beltz and Al Kuper had put the Huskers in front, but the Staters' third runner had pulled a little ahead of Elwood Pankonin. Had Nebraska lost the relay, they would have dropped the meet 53-51.

It was quite a day for the footballers. Hackney, Mills and Wibbels swept the shot; Bob Kahler scored nine points for the Huskers; Paul Fagler, K-State halfback, finished second in the 60; Jack Dodd tied for the first in the pole vault and came in third in the 60 lows.
