DAILY NEBRASKAN

THREE

As I See It

by June Bierbower

Wednesday afternoon Biff Jones' Huskers go out for their first work of spring drills, and, as per usual, there will be little monkey business when the boys start.

First game of next year is Sept. 29 at Bloomington against Bo McMillan's Hoosiers, and with fall drills beginning Sept. 10, most of the work before the Hoosier game will have to be done this spring. The 700 mile trip to Bloomington will cut the Huskers out of at least a day of practice next fall, too.

Saturday's exhibition four lap relay by frosh relay team members must have been fine news to Husker football as well as track followers. Three members of the team which set a new freshman relay mark of 1:51.5 seconds for the indoor track are footballers. The fourth, Red Littler, ace of the outfit, was some shakes as a grid star in high school, although he has given the game up now. Jack Bengler and Bob DeFruiter, who ran first and third for the team, are halfbacks, and DeFruiter, looked last fall as though he would furnish lots of competition for Jack Dodd's old position. George Able the remaining team member is a 200 pound tackle, but is one of the best sprinters in school.

The boys in the hinterlands really "got hot" last week... after Jim McNatt of Oklahoma poured in 29 points against Iowa State a week ago Friday, Howard Engelman of K. U. followed with 27 against the Sooners... Bill Menke of Indiana, a sophomore as is Engelman, made 28 points against Minnesota, and Captain Jimmy Hull of Ohio State got 27 against Wisconsin... Pitt's basketball squad sounds about like the footballers... take Straloski, Mil-anovich and Vujnovic for a sample... Pitt has added baseball as a major sport this year for the first time in recent years... Paul Fagler, Kansas State halfback and sprinter, has another football season left although this is his last track season... He was out of football in 1937 because of a knee operation, but came back to school and competed in varsity track last spring... As a sophomore he was a member of the 1936 football team and the next spring's track squad... Herb Scheffler, Oklahoma's basketball center, was an all-American semi-pro first baseman in 1937, and will report for baseball as soon as the cage season ends.

calfe vigorously said that "communists, fascists and nazis will all use the constitution as a shield while they bite at the very hearts of democracy."

Metcalfe made clear that he was speaking as a private citizen and was not voicing the opinions of the committee. He became attached to the investigating committee because of the inside knowledge he had gained as a reporter and as a member of the German-American bund.

Nazis Number Half Million. The speaker estimated that there were at least 1/2 million nazi followers and the fascist and communist organizations numbered nearly a quarter of a million each.

Propaganda is the most dangerous weapon of the movements and not war machines, Metcalfe declared. The evidence of this propaganda lies largely in the major urban centers, especially along the seaboard, but he warned the people of the plains area must keep a constant vigilance for their appearance.

HUSKERS DROP 41-28 CAGE TILT AT AMES

NU holds Big Six swim fest this weekend

Ames favored to repeat as title winners; Hagelin main Nebraska threat

Nebraska plays host to the conference swimming teams this weekend as Iowa State, Oklahoma, Kansas State, and Kansas come to the coliseum in the annual splash carnival to decide the Big Six championship.

Iowa State, the defending titleholder, enters the meet odds on favorites to repeat their feat by virtue of their decisive wins over the Huskers, Kansas, and Kansas State already this year. Oklahoma and Nebraska offer the only serious threat to Iowa State supremacy. Both boast substantial victories over K-State, while Nebraska has an added victory over Kansas to its credit.

Middle Distance, Diving Best.

Main Nebraska strength lies in the middle distance, and diving events. Pete Hagelin, student coach, along with Houghton Furr, and Bob Chatt if he is well, give the Huskers strength in the 220 and 440, all having victories over conference teams. Ralph Worden, sophomore diving sensation, has lost only one out of six contests, none of these in the conference. Jarrett of Oklahoma, last years diving champ, fell to Novak of K-State, who in turn lost to Worden.

Only four of last years winners are returning this season in an attempt to retain their crowns. George Haldeman, Iowa State, is the only doublewinner who returns holding both the 50 yard freestyle and 150 yard backstroke titles. Another Cyclone champ, back to retain his title is Gene Armstrong conference backstroke veteran. Jarrett of Oklahoma comes back with the toughest assignment of the group in the diving.

Fletcher Spicer was Nebraska's only first place winner last year, copping the 220 yard freestyle event, and high point man for the Huskers in the meet. His place will be capably filled by Pete Hagelin in the meet Friday and Saturday.

Dick McClymont named senior football manager

Dick McClymont, Holdrege, is senior manager of the 1939 Husker football team, according to Coach Biff Jones Monday.

Three junior managers, Kenneth Meyer, Omaha and Leslie Nekuda, Lincoln, were named; while the eight sophomore managers will be Frank Gilmore, Lincoln; George Yetter, Chicago Ill.; Jack McPhail, Omaha; Gene Richardson, Omaha; John Motl, Mullen; Ed Milder, Omaha; Melvin Kuska, Fairmont; Eugene Schroeder, Imperial.

Barb team wins over 'B' squad basketeers

Gately, winning basketball team in the barb intramural tournament, defeated the university B team 27 to 24 in a game between the two squads yesterday afternoon.

Intramural finals near

S.A.E., Phi Gam, Pi K.A., Phi Delt quints advance

Phi Gamma Delta defeated the Sig Alphas last night, 10 to 7, to claim advancement to the finals in Class B intramural basketball. Tolleson scored five points for the winners, while Keating ran up six tallies for the Sig Alphas.

Pi Kappa Alpha defeated the A. G. R. quintet 12 to 9, and will therefore meet the Theta Xi's in the other semi-final game of Class B. The winner of the latter game will clash with the Phi Gams then for the class championship. Anderson paced the Pi K. A.'s with 8 points.

In Class A, the Phi Deltas defeated the Betas 34 to 22 in one of the semi-finals matches. Goetze and King were outstanding for the Phi Deltas, while Held and Souders paced the Betas.

In the other Class A semi-finals game, the Sig Alphas won 33 to 25 over the Kappa Sigs. Callihan scored 16 points for the Kappa Sigs, while Duncan and Huston helped along the Sig Alpha score.

Pittsburgh U, Gophers resume grid relations

A three-game series between Pittsburgh and Minnesota to begin in 1941 marks the renewal of football relations between the two schools, who last met in 1934.

First two games are in Minneapolis on Oct. 18, 1941, and Sept. 26, 1942, and the third, whose date will be set later, is in Pittsburgh.

Minnesota won the only two times the schools have met on the gridiron. The Gophers won the first at Minneapolis in 1933, 7-3, and the second, which was in Pittsburgh, 19-7.

Gymnasts go to Colorado

Millermen to enter dual meets, A.A.U. compet

The Nebraska gymnastic team brings its 1939 season to a close this week by making a three day journey to Colorado. Thursday the Huskers meet Colorado university. Friday take on Greeley State Teachers, and Saturday compete in the Rocky Mountain A. A. U. at Greeley, Colo.

Coach Charlie Miller's team has won three of its five meets so far this year, taking a triangle meet from Iowa and Colorado and winning from Carleton and Gustavus Adolphus, while dropping a pair to Minnesota.

Those making the western trip are Roy Proffitt, Hastings; Gay Cadwell, Broken Bow; Jake Geier, Lincoln; Don Seidel, Columbus and Stan Southwick, Friend. Ray Giffin injured his shoulder in the Carleton meet last week, and will not accompany the squad.

The Huskers will be favorites to down Colorado again, but can expect more trouble from Greeley State Teachers. The latter and Colorado Aggies will offer the most opposition in the Rocky Mountain affair. Nebraska has twice won the A. A. U., once tied for first and last year wound up in third.

Cadwell and Proffitt are the best bets for the Huskers. In five meets this year Cadwell has been beaten in the side horse only once. Proffitt has rung up 13 first places during the year.

Architectural contest honors David Leavitt

David Leavitt, of Leigh, Nebr., junior in the department of architecture, was one of four students in the United States who received honorable mention in an architectural contest by the Beaux-Arts Institute of Design.

Out of a total of 125 problems submitted by students from the leading institutions over the country, Leavitt's drawing of a "funicular station terminal" was among the few accorded this recognition. He was awarded similar honors recently in other contests sponsored by the Institute.

Scarlet sinks deeper into fifth place

Big Six road jinx works again, cinching Iowa State's fourth position

Coach W. H. Browne's Nebraska cagers lost their seventh conference game last night as the league's road jinx worked again, and Ames came thru to a 41 to 28 victory over the Huskers. The Iowans led 16-10 at the half.

It was the last game of the season for Iowa State, and cinched at least a tie for fourth place in the conference standing for them.

Missouri	6	3	.667
Oklahoma	5	3	.625
Iowa State	5	5	.500
NEBRASKA	3	6	.333
Kansas State	2	7	.222

The Huskers went deeper into fifth place as a result of the licking, but can get a tie for fourth by defeating Oklahoma at Lincoln.

The Sooners must beat the Huskers and Kansas State, whom they play at Manhattan Monday, to get a tie for the conference crown.

Thursday night Missouri and Kansas, both tied for first place at present, with six wins and three defeats, play for at least a share of the title.
