

Mingling with Marg

Initiation days over for some... which means lots of new crested jewelry, corsages of all sorts, and the Tasty filled with happy faced girls... and next week will probably finish off the list of that sort of thing... in the meantime, we seek to "cover" the various parties of the week-end... knowing, of course, that those very best informal gatherings which might make good aren't printable... but a mighty good dance was held at the Union Friday... s a w Kappa Jean Humphrey and DU Ed McConnell, a n d Rozanne Sheehan and Harry Epper- sen also Kappa-DU... and SDT's Betty Beeson, Sarah Smeerin, and Florence Meyerson were there with Bob Silverman, Jerry Milder, Zeta Beta Tau's, and Si Simon... also noticed that Theta Betty Jane Duetsch was with ATO Max Meyer, and Kappa Marian Bowers was with Kappa Sig Dick Hitchcock... all of this leaving Casanova Joe Laughlin out of the picture... and last night at the Sig Ep Blue party were AOPi Betty Clarke and Ed Steckley, Kappa Betty Ann Nichols and Jack Burns, Kappa Delts Doris Grabow and Marjorie Douglas there with Clinton Coyle and Bob White... Alpha Xi Delta Eleanor Collier with Clint Jurgensen... Gamma Phi Peggy West and D o n B e n s o n... AOPi Ruth Yourd and Frosty Wilson... Delta Gamma Helen Jane Anderson and ATO Ralph Worden... and another big party last night was at the Sigma Alpha Mu house... and Harriet Byron, SDT, was there with Bud Kalin, and Marian Rubnitz with Max Prostack... back for a week end visit is Theta Louise Mackay... and in the Drug, that rising young lawyer George Hirmon was seen with Janet Long... Health Week at the Sigma Kappa house brings, among other amusing incidents, the lingo which the pestered pledges give on answering the phone... also here for a short stay is Gig Wallace, DG... and with parties, visitors and celebrations, we conclude for the day... Kappa Sigma announces the pledging of Fred Harms of Lincoln.

BARB NOTES

Loomis Hall girls, out in ag district, were hosts to AGR at an hour dance Friday night, while at the same time Rosa Bouton Hall was entertaining the boys from the 1313 Club... They had to get along without Tim "Gabby" Higgins, however, for that gentleman was out on a little private party of his own which pretty well covered the town.

Saturday night dance notes—very evident oversupply of joes on the floor... George Gostas, Man-About-Town socialite, swinging the rounds... Pal Sleuth John Stuart was also doing some fancy circulating... Art Henrickson, editor of the Bulletin, steady with Alberta Timmas... Man-A-Bout-Town Erle Constable doing the usual routines with Eugenia Cleve. the steady... they spent most of their time commuting between the Towne club dinner dance and the shindig downstairs.

Harriet Lewis, president of the Towne club and Bob Simmons were noticeable by their presence in the Union Saturday night... also noticed that Francis Woodard and his usual steady, Maxine Maddy, were not among those getting around together.

Schultz to show color films of field work today

C. Bertrand Schultz, assistant director of the university museum, will show color movies of last summer's paleontological field work in Morrill hall auditorium this afternoon at 3:45. The pictures were presented to a capacity audience last Sunday, and are being shown again at the request of Omaha groups. Henry Reider will play several numbers on the bonaphone. The public is invited.

AAUW gives scholarships

Coeds will receive $50 awards at honors convo

Scholarships of $50 each will be awarded several university coeds by the Lincoln branch of the American Association of University Women at the honors day convocation, April 18. The awards will go to recommended sophomore or junior women who are registered for at least 12 hours of work, are wholly or in part self supporting, and who have a scholastic average of 88 percent.

Application blanks may be obtained from the office of Miss Elsie Ford Piper, acting dean of women, and must be filed with her not later than Saturday noon, March 18. Each applicant will meet with the scholarship committee in Ellen Smith hall between

Best dressed man filings close midnight March 13

Fellows, you needn't be a Clark Gable or a P. B. K. to be a B. D. O. C. You needn't be a fraternity man or a Joe College. It's the way you dress that counts! You don't have to look like a dandy, but if you know how to dress and when to dress, you're a likely candidate for B. D. O. C.

Over 20 male students have entered the B. D. O. C. contest sponsored by Harvey Bros. and the Daily Nebraskan. Prospective entrants have little time left to enter the competition as the deadline 4 and 6 p. m. either Wednesday or Thursday, March 22 or 23.

Recommendations of the applicant will be required from two persons, one a member of the faculty and the other not connected with the school. They are to be sent to Dr. Elda Walker of the department of botany, chairman of the committee, not later than noon, March 18.

for all nomination blanks is midnight, March 13.

During the next week, all candidates for the title of best dressed man on the Nebraska campus will be under close scrutiny by the committee of seven popular coeds who are judging the contest. In order to acquaint Judges Marian Kidd, June Bierbower, Jeanne Newell, Barbara Meyer, Patricia Lahr, Velna Ekwall and Janet Harris with the contenders, a meeting will be held in the Student Union faculty lounge, Tuesday, March 14, at 7:30. The decision of the committee will be announced in the spring fashion edition of the Daily Nebraskan, March 23.

In addition to the right to bear the B. D. O. C. title, the winner will receive $75 in clothing from the firm sponsoring the competition and the admiration of countless coeds who yearn to be seen with a B. D. O. C.
