DAILY NEBRASKAN

THREE

Patrons of this summer's national A. A. U track championships which will be held in Lincoln should be treated to a battle royal in the shot put—what with Elmer Hackney of Kansas State, Bill Watson of Michigan and Francis Ryan of Columbia as three of the leading contenders.

Hack beat Watson in the Illinois Relays, but his best toss, 51-6 isn't as good as the 51-8 3-8 Watson got in setting a new Big Ten indoor record last Saturday. Ryan, meanwhile, has bettered 51 feet this year, and is considered by easterners as a sure shot for the national collegiate championship this year.

Another easterner, Danny Taylor, has transferred from Boston College to New York U., and does better than 50 feet, although that won't have much of a chance to show up what with about a dozen other shot putters in the country doing that well. Oddity of it all is that no American, since the one and only Sam Francis, has been the leading shot putter in the world. Hans Woelke, the German who was No. 1 man at the last Olympics, is still around, and had the best put in the world last year, but Sam, at the time he turned professional, was probably the world's best shot putter, and seemed to be only hitting his stride when he ended his amateur career.

Woelke, best in the world at present, is in a class by himself in Germany, but 50 foot shot putters, and, even more so, 48 foot shot putters, are a dime a dozen in this country. It's much the same situation as existed in tennis when Fred Perry was dominating things—England had the best tennis player in the world, but if a series of matches had been arranged by the ten or twenty best Americans and the ten or twenty best Englishmen, the States' boys would have won, hands down.

Tsk, tsk, ex-Husker football stars turn to basketball court

Nebraska U. football greats have turned to basketball, for the week, at least. This week sees Lloyd Cardwell, Sam Francis, Chaley Brock, Bernie Scherer and Bill Callihan in exhibition games. Oppose crack pro team.

Last night the boys opposed the New York Shamrocks, a crack professional team at Columbus, Brock's home town. The game was sponsored by the milk and health fund, featured such Shamrock stars as Edgar "Chief" Rankin, Columbus Indian, and Pick Dehner, Illinois captain and all Big Ten center this year. Friday night the ex-Huskies play in Grand Island.

The Husker crew boasts a wealth of ability. Francis was considered a better basketball than football player when he was an all stater in Kansas. Cardy was one of the best centers in the state during his high school career. Charley led Columbus to the state championship five years ago as he was named all state center, and Scherer was at one time a member of the Husker basketball squad. Callihan scored 12 points against a powerful Nebraska freshman team in a game recently.

Men's glee club appears on Lincoln high program

Featuring Don Hartman, freshman, as flute soloist, the University of Nebraska men's glee club will present a double assembly at Lincoln high school Thursday morning.

The program will consist of classical and popular numbers which the glee club has sung throughout the year. William G. Tempel will conduct and Warren Hammel will act as accompanist.

'Pernicious Anemia?' not Husker gymnasts

Nebraska U. athletic teams haven't been bringing home the bacon, trophies, or what have you, generally speaking but there's one exception—the gymnastics team, which has won the only sports title a Nebraska team has won this year.

Four members of Charley Miller's gymnastics team, which won the Rocky Mountain A. A. U. title recently, are shown above. Left to right, they are Don Seidel, Columbus; Gay Cadwell, Broken Bow; Jake Geier, Lincoln; Roy Proffitt, Hastings. Stan Southwick, Friend, made the trip west, also, while Roy Griffin, the other team member, was forced to stay at home because of an injury.

Proffitt, a junior, was high point man of the season for the Huskers, and was high point man of the meet at Greeley as he took first on the flying rings, and tied for second in tumbling and in the parallel bars.

Nebraska has the only gymnastics team in the Big Six, so has to seek its competition in the Rocky Mountain and Big Ten areas. Exclusive of the A. A. U. meet, the team competed in 12 matches, winning nine of them. Two losses were to Minnesota, one

Phi Lambda Upsilon takes eleven new members

Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemical fraternity, has announced the acceptance of eleven new members. Four undergraduates, George P. Mueller, Jr. of Lincoln, Richard E. Schlueter of Kenesaw, Nebr., Melvin G. Schwab of Sutton, all juniors, and Ralph E. Miegel of Kansas City Mo., senior, are among the new members. All undergraduates are elected on a scholarship basis equal to Phi Beta Kappa.

The graduates are Donald G. Cain of Lincoln, Oliver De Garmo of Trenton, Nebraska, Gerald A. Griess of Kearney, Hugh A. Hamilton of Sioux Falls, S. D., Floyd H. Kahyer of Marion, Iowa, William A. Mitchell of Lincoln, and Jack F. Morgan of Wayne, Nebraska.

Brown University authorities have reported unusual success of a "vagabonding" scheme—a plan by which students may drop in to various courses in which they are not registered to watch experiments and listen to lectures.

Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star of the best teams in the country, while the other was at the hands of Greeley State Teachers, who finished behind the Huskers in the Rocky Mountain meet.

Prospects are bright for next year, since the only senior on the team is Seidel. Most promising among the freshman is Guy Johnson, whom Coach Miller says is farther along than most frosh who report for gymnastics.

Adam enters Luke in national wrestle meet

Wrestling coach Jerry Adam announced last night that he was entering Bill Luke, senior grappler in the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association's wrestling championships at Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster, Pa., Friday and Saturday.

Luke, a 136 pounder, will be accompanied by Adam and Dr. R. G. Clapp, chairman of physical education at Nebraska and chairman of the national wrestling rules committee.

Chi O's play Theta's in basketball today

Wibbels bids for pitching position

Soph chucker reports; Knight to move team outside this week

Edsel Wibbels, sophomore football and track man who starred in Lincoln amateur baseball circles last summer as a fireball pitcher, has reported for baseball practice, and is considered to be a strong contender for a pitching job with the Huskers.

Coach Wilbur Knight plans to move his team outside from the coliseum this week, where he will get a better look at the candidates. On the basis of fall practice in the main, and with little chance to see what other players are capable of at present, the following 30 men look like varsity prospects:

Pitchers: Reuben Denning, letterman; Lloyd Schmadeke, letterman; Oscar Tegtmeier, William Brune, Floyd Green, Cliff Milnar.

Catchers: Tom Moster, Alvin Schmode, Dick Joyce; first base: Dale Ganz, Oliver Horak, Oscar Tegtmeier, Harlan Muth; second base: Dow Wilson, letterman, Merlin Schoening, Julius Wolta.

Shortstop: Bernie LeMaster, Lance Ray, Harold Grovert; third base: Frank Rubino, Vernon Thomsen, Don Moore, Art Grovert; outfielders: Del Harris, John McDermott, letterman; William Brune, Lawrence Anderson, Keith McGraw, Randall Sims, Kenneth Smith, Leonard Van Buskirk.

Others who have showed up well in indoor practice this spring are:

William Heming, catcher; Ray Atwood, pitcher; Howard Bruner, second base; Ray Eeman, third base; Paul Hardman, first base; Jim Lettler, pitcher; Eldon McIlravy, second base; Don Moore, third base.

Fred Nolze, first base and pitcher; Bill Perry, outfield; Carl Eapp, outfield; John Roddy, second base; Harold Scholz, outfield; Paul Soidan, outfield; Roger Van Buskirk, outfield; Sumner West, catcher; Vernon Wiebusch, second base; Charles Worrall, pitcher.

SAE's jump to top I-M spot

Betas climb to third; Sig Eps drop to second

Sigma Alpha Epsilon jumped into first position in the Intramural standings by virtue of their winning the basketball title in class A.

They replaced the former league leaders, Sigma Phi Epsilon, who dropped into second place. Beta Theta Pi which was tied for fifth jumped into third position closely followed by Phi Delta Theta and Alpha Tau Omega respectively.

Handball is the intramural sport on the calendar now, and will be completed soon. It is played on a tournament type basis with each team playing one contest and the winner advancing to meet the winner of the bracket below.

Total standings and points up to date:

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 555; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 500; Beta Theta Pi, 445; Phi Delta Theta, 438; Alpha Tau Omega, 428; Phi Gamma Delta, 408; Phi Kappa Psi, 405; Sigma Nu, 363; Kappa Sigma, 325; Alpha Gamma Rho, 325; Pi Kappa Alpha, 316; Farm House, 305; Sigma Chi, 281; Chi Phi, 254.
Alpha Sigma Phi, 230; Acacia, 220; Delta Upsilon, 201; Theta Xi, 200; Phi Sigma Kappa, 200; Sigma Alpha Mu, 155; Delta Tau Delta, 190; Zeta Beta Tau, 188; Delta Sigma Phi, 165; Beta Sigma Psi, 155; Xi Psi Phi, 152; Lambda Chi Alpha, 140; Theta Chi, 118; Delta Sigma Phi, 111; and Phi Alpha Delta, 0.

"Phog" Allen, University of Kansas basketball coach, has on his freshman team two players who are sons of men who played on the first college team he coached.

Linemen get attention in grid practice

Team moves outside again; Braasch fills in for injured Prochaska

Back into the open after being rained in Saturday, Biff Jones put his gridders thru a stiff two hour practice session on the practice field yesterday afternoon.

Linemen received the bulk of the attention as the huskies grunted and shoved as they dug into their blocking assignments under the watchful eyes of Link Lyman, Bill Pfeiff, Paul Amen and Bob Mills.

The brunt of the work fell on the shoulders of the ends and tackles as Paul Amen, former Husker wingman and now assistant end coach gave his proteges pointers. Standouts among the flankmen were Bob Kahler, Bob Ludwig, George Seeman, Glenn Schluckebier, and Don Waddick. Ray Prochaska watched the workout from the sidelines because of an injured ankle.

After the initial drills the team divided into the Harvard and Yale squads and ran thru the already familiar plays. Passing received its share of stress with Hermie Rohrig, Harry Hopp, George Porter, John Sandall, Jack Vincent and Donald Rubottom flipping the oval with better than usual early season accuracy.

Personnel of the Yale and Harvard squads remained almost the same as has been the case, the only changes being that Vernon Braasch was filling the injured Ray Prochaska's end position, and John Sandall filling in at Hermie Rohrig's backfield spot on the Harvard squad. Hermie was having a little trouble with a minor leg injury.

Wegner takes 46 second fall in Ag meet

145 pound Don Wegner pinned his opponent in 46 seconds last night to take the quickest win in the Ag college wrestling finals.

Results of other matches were:
128 pounds: Ralph Hennings pinned Miskel in 4:45 with half nelson and arm lock.
136 pounds: Lyle Clark pinned Farewell in 4:44 with stopper front headlock.
155 pounds: Harlan Qualfett defeated Harold Walkup in two extra periods.
165 pounds: Bill Kiester pinned E. Robinson in 2:45 with reverse body lock and leg hook.
175 pounds: Dick Robinson pinned Nelson with half nelson, body lock in 2:40.
Heavyweight: Norman Bosselman pinned Lewis in 3:01 with half nelson, body lock.
