

Mingling with Marg

Early spring means an early fall—of grades . . . and temperature increase is accompanied by rise of heartbeat—or some such emotion . . . for since initiation, several pins are being worn "out" . . . such as that of Kappa Mickey Morrow wearing the Phi Psi pin of Lee Liggett . . . and Kappa Betty Lou Elliott with a Sig Alph pin from a Boulder lad . . . and back like a boomerang is the Beta pin of Jim Armstrong, which was on Alpha Chi Eunice Halm such a very short time ago . . . fancy turns to thoughts of varied love, or something . . . and on the spring-like Sunday a great many fun things happened . . . like Sig Alph hill fully occupied by Sig Alphas, all dressed up, and eyes to the sky, if you get the meaning . . . and at the airport watching all the big maneuvers were ATO's Bun Nichols and Jim Vierregg and Theta Virginia Anderson . . . and another pin on another Kappa is the Sigma Chi pin of Bob Fenton on Harriet Pugaey . . . and to go pins one better, Delta Gamma Ernie Jones and DU Bill Bergquist passed the candy and cigars last night, amidst lots of colorful honking and cloudy cigar smoke . . . In the Crib, on Sunday, all of the co-eds tripped out in their flashy new spring clothes—and colorful it was . . . saw more Phi Psi's that afternoon in the Crib than ever before—a regular turnout from their usual habitation of the Drug . . . and buzzing about in a smooth looking car was DG Gerry Wallace, Prom Girl, with Beta Dick Paul . . . they say that after the Sig Alph Bowery party, when the pledges had to sift thru the sawdust from the floor for a supposedly lost pin, they found three actives—only hearsay, of course . . . and at the Fiji house, the boys during Health week had quite a little fun seeing the pledges in three-cornered pants, if you see what I mean . . . Thursday nite the campus will deviate from the usual EDOC talk to see who the year's best dressed coed is—all of this revealed at the Coed Follies . . .

Mann to speak in Omaha Saturday

Noted exile discusses democracy of victory

"The Coming Victory of Democracy" will be the subject of an address to be given Saturday night in Omaha by Thomas Mann, famed exiled German author and winner of the 1929 Nobel prize.

Expelled in 1933 because he refused to kowtow to the Nazi regime, Mann has today become one of the leading standard bearers of democracy. Since his exile he has been granted honorary citizenships by several of the democratic nations.

Tickets for the lecture, which will be held in the Central High auditorium, may be obtained from Dr. Lydia Wagner, of the Germanic languages department, for $1 each.

Make-up slips must be turned in by tomorrow

Make up slips must be filed at the registrar's office by Wednesday evening to make the student eligible to appear among the honor students at the spring honors convocation. Any student with an incomplete, condition or no report after his name will be omitted from the programs.

To prevent complications, Dean Thompson's office requests students to personally check at the registrar's office to see if faculty members have filed the make ups.

Ag dairy contest set for Thursday

Entrants will judge products in auditorium

A dairy products judging contest, open to all ag students, will be held Thursday from 5 o'clock to 6 in the dairy auditorium. Experienced and inexperienced will be given equal chances by placement in different divisions.

Those who have received training in the Varsity dairy club's training school, which met yesterday, will be placed in the senior division and those with no training will be placed in a junior division.

The following students were elected last week to membership in the Varsity dairy club, which sponsors the judging contest: Freshman, Elton Newman and Elmer Cooper; Upper clasmen, Richard Cron, Lawrence Buller, Marvin Hoffman, August Dreier, Andrew Anderson, George Diehrichsen and Donald Wheeler.
