Eli's threaten once as get to victor's 7 yard marker; Jones starts first teams

Harvard 7, Yale 0.

That is the way the score stood after 60 minutes of gruelling play in the first full length, professionally officiated scrimmage of the off-season training period.

Credit for the lone score goes to Willard Bunker, willowy end and former Lincoln high prepster, who made a falling catch in the end zone of Jack Vincent's 22 yard pass in the final quarter. The red-shirted Harvard aggregation had progressed to the Yale 7 yard marker three plays before only to lose the ball on downs. Marvin Thompson then intercepted a Yale pass on the Yale 22 yard line being downed in his tracks. On the next play Vincent flipped the oval to Bunker for the 6 points. Vincent then proceeded to put the ball through the middle of the uprights for the extra point.

Yales Threaten.

Yale threatened once in the third period but were not able to quite make the grade and hit pay dirt. Bob Kahler returned a Harvard punt from his own 40 to the Harvard 20 where Vike Francis nailed him and stopped his apparent touchdown gallop. From here they worked it down to the 7 only to see the Harvard line stiffen and stop them there.

Harvard scored again in an extra two minute period but the score did not go down on the official record. Hubert Knickreim blocked Don Rubottom's kick on the Yale 5 yard line and Howard Zorn fell on it in the end zone for this unofficial score.

Biff Jones started his two first strings in the scrimmage and substituted freely throughout the hour period.

Starting lineups:

Harvard	Yale

Track team faces Kansas Tomorrow

Weirmen go to Lawrence for season's first outdoor meet; 24 Huskers on trip

Nebraska's 1939 cinder squad, 24 strong, will leave Lincoln at noon today to face Bill Hargis's Kansas U. team at Lawrence Friday afternoon in the first outdoor meet of the season for Ed Weir's boys.

Foy out.

Captain Lyle Foy, Big Six champion in the 100 and 220, pulled a muscle at the Texas relays as did sophomore sprinter Dick Driscoll. Another soph, Darrel Mathes, is out with a bad knee.

On the Husker side of the fence, Elwood Pankonin, minor letterman in the 440, will miss the meet. Ailing feet will keep him on the sidelines for two weeks. Bob Beltz, promising sophomore quarter miler, has dropped out of school, while Maynard Swartz, sophomore javelin man is in the infirmary with a locked knee.

Wibbels in limelight.

Nebraska's best chance comes in the weight events where Bob Mills and Ed Wibbels figure to shine. The Huskers should also score heavily in the sprints, what with K. U.'s three best men out. Paul Masoner, ace K. U. hurdler, is favored in his events, although Bob Kahler may come through for the Huskers in the highs.

Curtiss paces victors with 413 series

Blood leads losers with 345 as teams turn in 1718-1601

Kappa Sigma's bowlers won the men's intramural bowling title last night as they downed Sigma Nu, 1718-1601, in the season's kegling finale.

Howard Curtiss, who turned in a 413 series, second highest of the season, with games of 212 and 201, led the Kappa Sigs to victory as their 1718 score was also second highest of the season, the Sigma Nu's having turned in a 1745 score a few nights ago.

Forrest Blood, with 202-143, 345, paced the losers, and but one man on each team fell below the 300 mark.

Sigma Nu.	Kappa Sigma.

Baseballers drop 6-1 tilt to Arizona

Knightmen lose season's inaugural as Wildcat hurler pitches 4-hit ball

Nebraska lost its opening baseball game of the season as Wilbur Knight's barnstorming Huskers took it on the nose from Arizona yesterday, 6-1.

Kenneth Heist, Wildcat hurler, allowed the Huskers but four hits in the first of a three game series, while the southwestern boys garnered ten base blows off Pitcher Lloyd Schmadeke of Nebraska.

Sophomore shortstop Bernie LeMaster scored Nebraska's only run on a wild throw in the sixth by Heist, who struck out nine batters. Arizona tallied once in the first, three times in the second, and twice in the fifth, but the Huskers held their opponents scoreless in the last four innings.

Nebraska, who had their first outdoor workout yesterday morning at Tucson, made four errors, while the Wildcats, who have been outside for several weeks, erred three times.

Rube Denning, "Diz Dean" of the Husker pitching staff, will probably take the mound for Nebraska in this afternoon's game.

Summary:
Nebraska 000 001 000-1 4 4
Arizona 130 020 000-6 10 3
Schmadeke and Moates; Heist and Charowhas.
