

Mingling with Marg

Sighs and sad sayings as people return unwillingly from a short vacation...with emphasis on sleep, play, and minor studying, per usual...Big social event of vacation here in Lincoln was the Blue Barron dance last Friday...Lots of the Lincolmites were there, such as Beta Bob Aden and AOPi Ruth Wilbur; Sig Ep Gene Zuspahn and Theta Eleanor Farrell; Lieut. John Osborne and his wife from California, (she was formerly Sally Peltier); ATO Kent Tupper and Jean Gosnell; Sigma Nu Bus Knight and Delta Gamma Jerry Wallace...Besides that dance, lots of the kids with time on their hands went to the Park such as Theta Mary Rosborough and ATO George Jom and ATO Ray Roland with DG Betty Rathburn... Picnics and such also came off, here and everywhere thruout vacation...Bob Gannon, Beta, was with Nancy Halligan, who goes to school at St. Mary's...the big party of the weekend is the Corn Cob-Tassel dance tomorrow (Friday) night at the Union...Carl Colby and his band will furnish the big music...among "those there's" will be Alpha Xi Delta Marjory Manchester and "Tommy" Dorsey; Zeta Beta Tau Bob Coen and Sigma Delta Tau Selma Hill; Tri Delta Pris Wicks and Acacia Elton Wiley; Sig Ep John Scofield and Delta Gamma Virginia Wheeler; Alpha Phi Pat Prime and Phi Psi Jack Reddick...it'll be a big affair, so call your best girl for the best informal party of the year...At the tea dance today the kiddies lacked the usual up-an-attem...

Sigma Xi to hear Dr. L. J. Stadler

Missouri geneticist to speak on heredity

Dr. L. J. Stadler, principal geneticist for the bureau of plant industry of the U. S. department of agriculture, will address a public Sigma Xi program on Tuesday April 18. He will talk on "The Experimental Alteration of Heredity."

The visiting scientist is an associate on the staff of the University of Missouri, and his address here will be of importance to agriculturalists and eugenicists interested in the heredity of plants.

AT THE HEAD OF THE CLASS of 1940

DICK de BROWN

Publicity shy? . . . beware! For a newspaperman on the loose is Dick de Brown, Beta school of journalism junior from Lincoln. He not only handles publicity for the Student Council, and Kosmet Klub's spring show "Alias Aladdin" (that's the second send-off we've given 'em) but he's also treasurer of Sigma Delta Chi, and "tops" as news editor of THE DAILY NEBRASKAN. One of Dick's favorite sports, ski-ing, doesn't stand much of a chance here, but his activities give him a top-rating in the class of '40 that isn't a matter of chance. And your top-rating among your friends isn't a matter of chance either if you treat them to "food and fun" at the

HOTEL CAPITAL

Jones accepts Wisconsin award

Will continue research in public utility field

Herschel Jones of Hastings, assistant instructor of economics, has accepted a fellowship at Wisconsin university. He will work in the department of economics for his doctor's degree, and will continue research in the field of public utilities.

Howard B. Kaltenborn of Waco, who received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Nebraska, attended Wisconsin university on a similar fellowship last year.

Jones received his bachelor's degree from Antioch college and his master's degree from Nebraska in 1937. He has continued with graduate work and has served as an assistant instructor since.

Supervised utility study. He supervised a study of the

Jewel Tea interviewer to meet seniors here

John Paterson Currie, chief of the personnel division for the Jewel Tea company, will be here Tuesday and Wednesday, April 18 and 19, to interview seniors interested in merchandising, accounting, and secretarial work. Group meetings will be held at 9 and 1:30 on both days.

Mr. Currie, a former Harvard instructor, is an outstanding figure in personnel work. For this reason, juniors as well as seniors are invited to attend the meetings. Arrangements may be made in Professor Bullock's office.

state's municipal water and electric systems under the direction of Dr. C. E. McNeill of the college of business administration. The two are now finishing another study of Nebraska utilities, dealing with electric power facilities. This study will reveal the relationship between the present facilities and the new public power and irrigation districts.

Bulletin.

The regular meeting of the Pershing Rifles will be held at Nebraska hall this afternoon at 5:00. Members are requested to be present. Members of the tanksterettes floating group will practice tonight at 8:15.

Y.M.C.A. cabinet plans dinner meeting tonight

Members of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet will hold a dinner meeting tonight at 6 o'clock in the Y rooms of the Temple. Purpose of the meeting is to lay plans for a membership drive and to discuss the program, which is now being arranged for the rest of the year.

Sculpturer to lecture

Bernard Frazier of Lawrence, Kas., will return to the university Saturday morning at 10:30 to give a sculpturing demonstration for fine art students and members of the Saturday morning children's classes.

FOR THE FIRST TIME! The Amazing Story STALIN'S SECRET OPERATIONS IN SPAIN

A revealing document by the only general to escape the Red Army purge

Russia was in Spain—deeper than anyone knew. Why did Stalin intervene? How? Who were his secret agents? What did Stalin get out of it? In the Post this week, General W. G. Krivitsky, former head of Stalin's secret service in Europe, unmasks the major mystery of the Spanish war, reveals a reign of terror never before suspected. First of several articles.

Stalin's Hand in Spain

The Author

W. G. KRIVITSKY

This former general in the Red Army, after two attempts on his life, is now hiding in the U. S. As Chief of the Soviet Military Intelligence in Western Europe, he was on the inside of every major international step taken by the Kremlin. He is the only man now alive and free to tell this story.

DID YOU EVER TELL A SMALL LIE...too successfully?

Mr. Burroughs was trapped. How could he match the colorful war record of the man next door, a hero to all the boys in the neighborhood? In an off-guard moment, Mr. B admitted a few little war experiences himself. He didn't realize he was lighting a fuse he couldn't let go of!... An amusing story for all well-meaning prevaricators.

Mr. Burroughs Tells a Lie

by RICHARD THRUENSEN

JOE Mc CARTHY WINS BALL GAMES EVEN IN HIS SLEEP!

He's baseball's most successful manager—and he never played in a big-league game! This week's Post tells you about the man who keeps the Yankees on top; how he won pennants in both leagues, three world series in a row—one of them with an "invalid" pitcher; and why they think he hatches his craftiest ideas when he's asleep!

Busher Joe McCarthy

by JOE WILLIAMS

Mr. Whalen whips up a World's Fair

Here's the story of how Grover Whalen sold businessmen and statesmen on his Flushing Meadow empire. Turn to Money Makes the Fair Co.

by FORREST DAVIS

ALSO—BROADWAY'S LIGHTEST JOB MAKES HIM RICH. You know those fancy electric signs on Broadway? Jack Alexander tells you about a Young Man of Manhattan who ran $50, and an idea about them, into a million-dollar business. See page 20.

THE WITCH DOCTOR OF ROSY RIDGE. A new short story by MacKinlay Kantor... THE SHERIFF TAKES STEPS. Dancing steps—and without music! M. G. Chute shows you what that led to... PLUS short stories, articles, serials, fun and cartoons.