Yale gridders win over Harvards, 13-6

Huskers end spring drills Saturday

Hopp leads winners in third-quarter rally; Losers score late

Biff Jones' Yale squad did an about-face yesterday afternoon and defeated the Harvard team 13-6, as Harry Hopp led the Eli's in a third period scoring flurry.

The win was Yale's fourth against six for Harvard. The Huskers will finish the spring season Saturday as the two teams go against each other on the stadium field, weather permitting. The game will be open to the public, and is scheduled to get under way at 2.

Biff started Yale's first string against Harvard's reserves and in the second quarter the Eli's subs and Harvard's first team took over. However, it was not until the third ten minute period that the scoring came.

George Porter's quick kick went out of bounds on Harvard's 30, and in two plays the Eli's scored. Big Bob Kahler rounded end to the 19 yard line, and then Harry Hopp sliced through tackle to score standing up. Bus Knight fumbled the pass from center for the extra point, and Adna Dobson, who was converting, was smeared behind the line as he attempted to carry the ball over.

Pass scores.

Next tally came later in the quarter on a fancy 37 yard pass play from the same Hopp to Jack Ashburn. Ashburn made a leaping catch on the Eli's 10, and broke way from two pursuers to score. Kahler and Hopp had previously brought the ball from their own 46 on two plays to the Eli 37. Hopp kicked the extra point.

Late in the last period the Crimson squad drove 73 yards in two plays for their only touchdown. Jack Vincent scored on a sparkling 38 yard dash, after Bob Luther had got away to the last man on a 35 yard run. Vike Francis attempted placekick for the extra point but the south upright of the goal posts.

The period ended immediately afterward, but Biff gave the Harvards the ball on their own 40 and on the second play Butch Luther sprinted 56 yards for a touchdown. Francis made the extra point.

Harvard holds.

Other serious scoring threats were in the first quarter when, after an exchange of kicks, Hopp and Kahler led an Eli march to the Harvard ten. The Crimson failed to gain on the first play. Kahler rounded end for seven on the next, but Harry Hopp got only about a yard on the next two attempts, and the Eli's took the ball on downs.

Near the end of the second quarter Harvard drove to Yale's 28 yard line, but Vike Francis attempted placekick from the 35 failed. Francis was kicking against the wind. Lineups:

Girls' intramural cage tourney starts round two

Bouton Hall will meet the Lincoln Independent team and Delta Gamma will meet the Wilson Hall team in the second round of the girls intramural basketball tournament tonight.

Frosh upset varsity, 5-4, in baseball

Ackerman triples with two on to win in eleventh inning

The freshmen upset the dope yesterday afternoon when they defeated a mixed varsity squad, 5-4, in a closely contested 11 inning game, when shortstop Ackerman tripled in the 11th with two men on base.

The freshmen played like a veteran team, collecting eight hits off the offerings of Atwood, Brune and Tegtmeyer, and making but three errors.

A strong northerly wind kept both teams on edge, and several long flies were blown out of reach of the outfielders.

45 men play.

Coaches Knight and Lewandowski substituted quite freely yesterday afternoon. Knight used 23 men and the freshmen coach 22 players during the tussle.

Phelps, substitute varsity second sacker, and Ackerman, freshman shortstop, each connected for a three base hit.

Bob Carey, Sid Held and Ernie Swanson pitched for the winners.

quarter of the card with the picture included. I took the remaining three fourths and stuck it back into my pocket deciding that it would never do to vote two times because I would only have half a card left. With ballot in hand, I sat myself down to vote. It was really quite a trying experience for I had to argue for five minutes with some Joe who hired himself out to nine possible innocents. I finally convinced him that I could vote only once for the orator.

After pondering over the three candidates I made my decision. I voted for all three. Impartially, you know.

Then came the letdown. A culmination of years of patriotic desire to drop my own ballot in the box was for naught. The vanguard of the votes, the bulldog of the ballots, took my ballot from

Golf, tennis teams meet Kansas State

Both matches slated on Saturday afternoon

Nebraska's golf and tennis teams take on Kansas State in both sports tomorrow. Husker tennisists are favored, while golf looks like a tossup.

Gregg McBride's tennis team opens its 1939 tennis season at the Lincoln Tennis Club courts against Kansas State at 3:30 Saturday afternoon.

Leading the Huskers against the invaders will be veterans Harold Rundle, Will Reedy and Irving Kuklin. Rundle, runnerup in last year's Big Six championships, and state champion, is expected to come through to a victory.

Reedy is a senior, having laid out of competition last year. Kuklin is also a senior, while Rundle is a junior.

Other member of the team may be chosen from Bill Davis, Brock; Leon Davis, Hastings, or Harry Epperson, Sioux City.

Anderson has 79.

Don Anderson, Omaha, was the only golf aspirant who turned in an 18 hole qualifying round yesterday, getting a 79. Several men played only 9 holes in tryouts for Kansas State, who will face the Huskers at the Lincoln Country Club Saturday afternoon.

Leading the invaders will be Kenneth Nordstrom, ace football center, who has shot rounds of 66, 68 and 75 in the three opening matches of the year for his team. His dual with Bill Mowbray, ace of the Husker team, who last Saturday won over conference champion Billy Craig of Oklahoma promises to be the feature of the match.

Yes, elections aren't what they used to be. The old fire, the old punch—well, something is missing. How can you have an impressive election when you only vote once?

But then, what if no one voted? After all, just think what my ballot would do if there was a three way tie for orator. You are right, it would give each one another vote and it would still be a tie!
