Husker nine meets K-State in two games

NU out for first win in conference play; fifteen men make trip

Nebraska's baseball team will be seeking their first win in Big Six competition when they meet the Kansas State nine this afternoon at Manhattan. A second game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Lloyd Schmadeke will probably pitch the first game for the Huskers, while Ruhe Denning will work Saturday. Others in Friday's lineup besides Schmadeke will likely be Alvin Schmode, catcher; Tom Moates, first base; Dow Wilson, second base; Frank Rubino, third base; Bernie LaMaster, shortstop;

Among the stars of the Wildcats' nine are football men Elmer "Butch" Nieman and Jim Brock. Nieman is a slugging sophomore outfielder, while Brock, his back-field mate last fall, is the one dependable pitcher for the team.

Batting order for the K-Staters includes third baseman Lee Townsend, shortstop Meade Harris, left fielder and basketball star Ervin Langvardt, who is replacing Bill Duitman, injured in the early part of the season.

Graham at first.

Ken Graham, sophomore member of the football and basketball teams will be at first base, Ernie Miller will be at second, and Max Turman will catch one of the games.

Melvin Seelye, another sophomore football and basketball performer, will catch the other game, while Brock's best help in the pitching department will probably come from Fred Eystone.

The 15 players making the trip or Nebraska are:

Rubino, Oliver Horak, LeMaster, Lance Ray, Wilson and Moates, infielders; Tegmeier, McDermott, Harris and Lawrence Anderson, outfielders; Schmode, and Richard Oyce, catchers; and Bill Brune Denning and Schmadeke, pitchers

Haskell, ex-Sooner sprint ace, is dead

Ernest Haskell, who starred as sprinter on Oklahoma track teams of 1937 and 1938, died Wednesday of blood poisoning at Wichita.

Haskell, who was graduated at 22 from the school of chemical engineering, was co-holder of the school's 100 yard dash record of 9.7 seconds. He was a nephew of the Sooner baseball coach, Lawrence "Jap" Haskell.

Ames, Nebraska tennis teams play today Iowa State golfers face NU Saturday

Schulz joins netmen for Cyclone meet

Nebraska's tennis team engages in its second match of the season this afternoon as the Huskers take on Ames at the Lincoln Tennis club at 3:00.

The lineup which tied Kansas State 3-3 last Saturday will be slightly changed, what with Bill Reedy, usual No. 2 man, playing only in the doubles. Reedy has a civil service examination Saturday for which to prepare.

The change will move Irv Kukulkin up a notch from No. 3 and, likewise Jim Hemsworth from No. 4. The new man will be sophomore Don Schulz, who will take over the No. 4 spot. Harold Rundle, as usual, will be No. 1.

Hemsworth and Reedy, and Kukulkin and Rundle will compose the Huskers' two doubles teams.

AMES, Iowa, April 27.—Coach Harry Schmidt announced today that he will take Don Beresford, Bruce Griffing, Bob Menze and Joe Martin to Lincoln tomorrow to meet the University of Nebraska tennis team.

Saturday the team will journey to Manhattan, Kas., to engage Kansas State.

Beresford will play No. 1 position; Griffing, No. 2; Menze, No. 3, and Martin, No. 4. Griffing and Beresford will team as the No. 1 doubles team, and Menze and Martin will be teammates.

NU trackmen go to Drake for Relays

Simmons, weight men given best chance

Eighteen Nebraska Cornhuskers and their coaches left yesterday for Des Moines to attend the Drake Relays, nationally famous track meet.

Nebraska's best chances appear to be in the 440 hurdles where Bob Simmons, star quarter miler and hurdler is entered, and in the weight events, with Bob Mills, Edsel Wibbels, and Ray Prochaska entered.

Huskers Mills and Wibbels will be in the fight for first place, what with Elmer Hackney, K-State ace, competing at Colorado and Michigan's Bill Watson, who did 54-1 3/4, Saturday, entered at the Penn Relays.

Leading the parade of stars at the Des Moines carnival will be Billy Brown, brilliant Louisiana State sophomore, who did 9.6 in the 100, 25-5 in the broad jump, and 6-3 in the high jump in one day; Fred Wolcott, Rice's hurdler, and John Borican, Negro sensation who will go out for a new 1,000 yard world's record in a special race.

Spring medley—Bob Simmons, 440; Lloyd Wright and Harwin Dawson, 220; Paul Owen, 880.
Distance medley—Elwood Pankonin, 440; Owen or John Brownlee, 880; Al Kuper, 1/2 mile; Brownlee, or Delman Moore, mile.
Two mile relay—Owen, Kuper, Brownlee, Moore.
Four mile relay—Kuper, Brownlee, Moore and Owen or LeRoy Walker.
880 yard relay—Simmons, Dawson, Jack Dodd and Wright.
440 yard hurdles—Simmons.
120 yard high hurdles—Frank Tallman, Ralph Worden.
Shot and discus—Bob Mills, Edsel Wibbels, Raymond Prochaska.
Vault—Ted Legate, Bob Neumann, Harold Scott.
Broad jump—Scott, Neumann, Dawson.

Billy Hall leads potent Cyclones

Bill Mowbray, Husker captain, added a 73 yesterday to his 75 of Wednesday for a 36 hole mark of 148, the best qualifying score of the week. Jim Beltzer was on his heels, putting a 75 beside his 74 of Wednesday for 149. Paul Jones has a 154, with a 77 on both days, as he was having a little trouble with his drives and puts.

Don Million will play Wally Spomer and Don Anderson in an 18 hole, three cornered match this afternoon as qualifying play ends. Million was one up on the other men at the end of 18 holes.

Mowbray, whose play this week has shown improvement will go against the No. 1 man of Ames, Capt. Billy Hall, formerly Iowa state amateur champion, and third high individual as a sophomore in last year's conference championships.

Another member of the Cyclone team will be sophomore Tom Hoak, Des Moines sophomore star, who has been state junior champion and state amateur medalist. He holds the Wakonda course record in Des Moines with a 66.

The other two members of the team will probably be Bob Schreiber and Russel Vifquain, both juniors, and lettermen from last year.

As I See It

That 53-4 1/2 effort which Elmer Hackney got off yesterday was a mighty nice throw, but it happens that one Mr. Bill Watson, Michigan's ace colored track star, turned in a 54-1 1/4 mark last Saturday, which is the best any man in this country has turned in since the balmy days of John Lyman and Jack Torrance, the boy who ate a dozen barbecued beef sandwiches at the last A. A. U. meet in Lincoln.

Watson also did 158 feet in the discus, just for the fun of it. What a shot put field that will be at Lincoln July 4 with Watson, Hackney, Anderson and Wohle of Stanford and Ryan of Columbia. Every one of them has bettered 52 feet.

Notice one of our fair haired baseball teams, Creighton Prep, took it on the chin from Central. . . . Prep lost 12-2. . . . And Lincoln High and Fremont battled in Wednesday's drizzle to a 0-0 tie in nine innings before the game was called. . . . Nonetheless that Lincoln-Prep game here Saturday ought to be a real scrap. . . . Max Hall, brother of Iowa State's star golfer, Billy Hall, is the best frosh linksman at Ames.

Congratulations are in order for an old pal of ours. . . . Dick Kelly, sports editor of the Daily Californian has been elected men's secretary for the 1939 class at California.
