

A.T.O. cops league three championship

Sigma Nu, Phi Psi, D.U., S.A.E., Z.B.T., 330 club also win in i-m softball

Alpha Tau Omega swept thru Sigma Chi 16 to 8 last night to cop the championship in league three of the intramural softball tournament, thereby earning the right to enter the playoff for the final championship.

Sid White pitched the A.T.O.'s to victory with Bill Wiley behind the plate. The A. T. O. team went undefeated thru their league defeating Chi Phi and Zeta Beta Tau, before winning from the Sigma Chi's.

In league one, Sigma Nu nipped Farm House 4 to 2 to jump into the lead with one game to go. Bruce Campbell and George Galloway were the batteries for the winners. Phi Kappa Psi beat Alpha Gamma Rho 4 to 3 in a thriller which was in the air until the last inning was over. Warren Radtke and Chet Bowers led the Phi Psi attack.

S. A. E. wins.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon won from Alpha Sigma Phi 6 to 4 in league two, with final play scheduled for Wednesday. Harold Osborne pitched for the SAE's and Bruce Duncan caught.

Delta Upsilon won from Pi Kappa Alpha 6 to 2 in the only game played in league two, while Kappa Sigma forfeited to Zeta Beta Tau in league three.

In barb play Saturday, the 330 club forfeited to Gately's in the lone game played.

Cagers drill for intrasquad games

Tilts scheduled for nights of May 3, 8, 10

Coach W. H. Browne last night sent his basketball charges thru their last spring drill of the season preparatory to playing the three intrasquad games which will end spring cage work.

Browne has been working his players on fundamentals and offensive and defensive phases of the game, last night's workout being the ninth of the season.

First game of the three is scheduled for Wednesday night, while the others will be Monday, May 8, and Wednesday, May 10.

Nebraska Tennis Team Plays Two Tie Matches

Lincoln Journal.

they are: Will Reedy, Denver; Jim Hensworth, Lincoln; Harold Rundle, Lincoln; Irving Kuklin, Lincoln. Rundle was runnerup in the Big Six singles division last spring, and paired with Johnny Dietrich to win the doubles crown. He is also state singles champion, and doubles champion along with freshman John Huston. Conference meet this year will be at Ames May 20.

Don Harrison gives up athletics

Ex-Pitter says ten years in field enough

Don Harrison, former Pittsburgh university athletic director and important cog in the Panther's successful football elevens, has given up any connection with the athletic game according to a statement made at the Penn relays last week end.

"Ten years of high pressure athletics is enough for me. I have no intention of returning," stated the former Pitt director.

Harrison is familiar to Nebraska football fans as he spoke to several Husker rallies on the eve of the long awaited yearly Pitt-Nebraska battle here.

He resigned at Pittsburgh two years ago after several controversies with Dr. John Bain Sutherland, and is now head of the English department of the Pitt extension center at Erie, Pa.

First on new field.

The games will be the first varsity games on the new baseball diamond, the previous inaugural against Iowa State having been rained out.

The Huskers, who have dropped 11 of their 12 games this year, four of them conference tilts, lost by scores of 6-3 and 6-5 to Kansas State, losing the first by virtue of a home run by Langvart with two men on base, and the second mainly through three hit pitching by Fred Eyestone.
