Waugh, Cunningham head new honoraries

Janet Lau masked as vice-president

Mary Steuteville, Faith Medlar to be secretary, treasurer of honorary

The 14 outstanding women who will bear the black mask of Mortar Board for the coming year will be led by President Elizabeth Waugh, Lincoln Kappa Kappa Gamma, masked by retiring president Phyllis Chamberlain in the first excitement of Ivy Day's masking.

Second to have the "success symbol" slipped over her eyes was Janet Lau, Delta Gamma of Lincoln, and vice-president, followed by Mary Steuteville, Alpha Xi Delta from South Sioux City.

Miss Steuteville, masked by Harriet Cummer, to be secretary, is in the arts and science college. Her activities include vice presidency of A. W. S., Tassels, former news editor of the DAILY NEBRASKAN, junior-senior prom committee, Vestals of the Lamp, Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, and Alpha Xi Delta.

Faith Medlar to be treasurer.

Faith Medlar of Lincoln, received the mask for treasurer, and Peggy Sherburne, also of Lincoln, will serve as historian.

Nine other junior women leading in campus activities were masked as the serious-faced Mortar Boards moved in and out of the crowd and "pounced upon their prey" amid the delighted shrieks of spectators.

They are: Virginia Clemans, Helen Kovanda, Mary Jo Henn, Jean Hooper, Selma Hill, Marian Kidd, Melva Kime, Fern Steuteville, twin sister of the new secretary, and Priscilla Wicks.

The new president has been a member of the A. W. S. board, W. A. A. council, vice-president of the W. A. A., a member of the junior-senior prom committee and Vestals of the Lamp, arts and science honorary.

Has been on Cornhusker staff.

Vice-President Lau, masked by Frances Boldman, is a member of the student council, A. W. S. board and Vestals of the Lamp; has been a staff editor of the Cornhusker, regimental sponsor for the R. O. T. C., and rush chairman for Delta Gamma.

Masked by Josephine Rubnitz, treasurer, Medlar is a member of Coed Counsellor board, Y. W. C. A. cabinet, Vestals of the Lamp and barb A. W. S. board. Peggy Sherburne, masked by Barbara Rosewater, is a member of Farmers Fair board, Tassels, A. W. S. board, home economics board, Phi Upsilon Omicron and Omicron Nu.

Clemans president of A. W. S.

Virginia Clemans, Lincoln Pi Beta Phi, is president of the A. W. S. board, Tassels, on the Cornhusker staff and Y. W. C. A. staff, a member of junior-senior prom committee, R. O. T. C. sponsors club and Coed Counsellors. She was masked by Virginia

Art Hill chosen new secretary; Fred Stiner tapped as treasurer

Thirteen crimson gowned seniors, tired of their four long years of work to attain membership into the highest men's honorary on the Nebraska campus, turned over the priceless keys of their secret archives to 13 enthusiastic juniors, ready to carry on the duties, as the traditional tappings of Innocents ended the gala Ivy day festivities, yesterday afternoon.

In a drama that brought cries and tears of enthusiasm from a crowd of anxious students and parents, each new member, after being tapped by outgoing Innocents, took his place in the organization which fosters campus traditions and is supreme in the word of the activity man.

Boucher tapped first.

In an atmosphere that was tense with anticipation, the 13 members of the society surrounded and tapped their first new member—Chancellor C. S. Boucher. Surrounded by active and honorary members of the society he was led to the dais to receive an honorary membership in the Innocents.

Tapped as president of the 36th society of Innocents was Roger Cunningham, college of agriculture See INNOCENTS, Page 6.
