

Mingling With Marg

Still we get news of the big excitements that went on Monday night—which seemed to be the approved night of play for seniors... besides the Delta Gammas, so also went the Kappa Delt seniors, who stole the dinners of the underclassmen, then had a little get-together for their own dinner at the Capitol... and Alpha Chi seniors stole the silver, then piled the dorm beds full of soapflakes until the wheezes of the "gals at home" made the house sound like a whooping cough epidemic... and since this is the logical time of the year, we find many people settling down to go steady, and also a new pinning... a late reported candy passing, also a long awaited one, is that of AOPV Virginia Rapp and Kappa Sig Doug Hall... the pinning is that of Kappa Ibs Waugh and Beta John Brownlee... and the new steady combinations will probably be big surprises to all of you... Delta Gamma Betty Reece and Sig Alpha Hi Messmore are "in the groove" of steady-goers... and Kappas take the night for several deciding at once... Betty Ray and ATO Bun Nichols, and Mary Virginia Knowles and Sigma Nu Ed Steeves (of Beechnut fame, adv.) have all decided it's the thing to do come spring... in the Theta house, the latest steady there is that of Betty Lou Griffiths and DU-BDOC (adv.) Joe Stevens... also at the DU house, there was a huge tubbing for Lloyd Grimm for not passing cigars and candy with Pi Phi Frannie Williams... another tubbing went on at the Alpha Phi house to "abolish a general nuisance," as the girls put it—and the gal was Ruth Winkler... new romance has come into the life of three DU's, and they say that the feeling is mutual—the lads are Dick Young, Neal Felber, and Bob Nelson—the gals as yet undisclosed... and rumors have it that a couple of gals at the DG house are having an awful time trying to decide if they should keep any other pins than their anchors... among the approaching news of the week end, we hear of the Kappa Delt house party, with dancing on the terrace... weather permitting... and the next supper event is the annual May morning breakfast for mothers at the Union Sunday—lots of the gals, like Tri Delt Jane Allen, are bustling about now getting flowers and things in readiness... and the scene most on campus now are high school sneak groups and sloppy shirts on fellows...

State's business continues steady

Spurr finds prospects of slight recovery good

Nebraska business activity remained relatively unchanged in April, marking the third consecutive month of stabilization following the November-January sprint, figures compiled by W. A. Spurr, professor of statistics, indicate.

With the indices slightly topping the 1938 average and with bumper crops coupled with an expanded building program in prospect, Spurr feels the outlooks are bright for a continuation of the slight recovery shown this far.

Though business payments department store sales and building construction made more than average seasonal gains last month, all bullish tendencies were counterbalanced by the 8.7 per cent decline in postal revenues.

The monthly averages presented by Spurr's staff are based upon indices of seven important business barometers, weighted according to their economic value.

Alice Fletcher presents music convo today

The twenty-eight musical convocation will be presented by Alice Fletcher, soprano, today at 4, in the temple. Miss Fletcher, a student with Alma Wagner, will include oratorio and opera in her program, singing the well known and well loved "Jewel Song," from Gounod's great opera, "Faust." Numbers by Grieg, Sinding and a Swedish atmosphere will lend a Scandinavian flavor to the program, and Miss Fletcher will conclude her program with Curran's beautiful "Life." She will be accompanied by Margaret Lindgren.

Phi Tau Theta to hear Rev. Burke at banquet

Rev. Max Burke of the Second Baptist church of Lincoln will address the Phi Tau Theta, Methodist fraternity's annual spring banquet this Friday in the Union. Rev. Burke will speak on "Frontiers" in keeping with the theme, "Pioneering."

Toasts will be given by Al Davis, Clyde Klaeger, retiring president, Elmer Glenn and Dale Weese, past president. Chairman of the banquet committee is Warren Emerson and assisting him with the decorations is Ellis Dann.

Hicks writes article

"Equitable Claims Upon Recorded Mortgages in Probate Actions Superior to the Statute of Non-Claims" in the title of an article by Prof. Clifford M. Hicks of the department of business organization and management in the current issue of the Nebraska Law Bulletin.

Harry Pitcaithley is the surprise performer of the whole squad because of his startling improvement over last fall. Harry has picked up added speed and versatility and has been shifted to a forward position where he can utilize these new qualities.

Al Randall has also picked up added speed which combined with two fast freshman squad members, Sid Held and Hartman Goetze, gives Nebraska's offense an added drive and fast break not evidenced in previous years.

Sid Held and Don Fitz in the defense positions give the Huskers two tall rebound artists due to cause enemy quintets much trouble under the basket.

In reserve on this first squad are Les Livingston, former Hastings prepster, Irvin Yaffe, fireball of the Husker attack in the last few games of last season, and Charles Vacanti, frosh from Omaha Tech.

Others whose performance has suffered from lack of regular attendance and who will give the eight above plenty of competition when the regular season rolls around in the fall, include Bob Therien, Bruce Duncan, Herb Grote, Don Pollock, John Hay and Leonard Van Buskirk.

Duncan Therien and Van Buskirk were members of the B team last fall while Grote, Pollock and Hay were members of this year's frosh crop. Completing the group participating in spring drills are Leonard Uhlman, Allen Canfield, Leonard Dunker, Lyle King and Bob Garey.

Jerry Dutcher, freshman star from last winter, is staying out of spring practice to rest his injured knee, while Warren Radtke, another first year man is out for track.

The public is invited to the game which will start at 8 o'clock on the freshman floor.

Probable starting lineups:

Pitcaithley Van Buskirk
Goetze Hay
Randall Pollock
Held Duncan
Fitz Grote
