Symphony - -

ments exist, but such a title is misleading, for the symphony leaves nothing unsaid.

One of the most attractive concertos written by the dynamic modern composer, Ravel, is the concerto for piano and orchestra, which will be played by Houghton Furr and the orchestra. The complete program follows:

Howard Kibickpatrick, Fosterlann (founded on a theme by Stephen Foster).
Karl Goldmark, Concerto in A minor;

Allegro moderato, Air, Moderato; Henry Brahinsky.

Franz Schubert, Symphony in B minor;

Allegro, Andante con moto.

Paul Creston, Partita for flute and solo violin; Preamble, Sarabande, Barlesk, Air, Tarantella; Don Hartman and Margaret Forler.

Maurice Ravel, Concerto for Piano and Orchestra; Houghton Furr and orchestra.

NUDE NOGGIN

Latest money making freak stunt to supplement the gold fish and phonograph record eating contests of collegians comes from Ohio State. Last week Ernest R. Tennenbaum, a sophomore, had his hair clipped off neatly and smoothly for a $5 bill donated by his Tau Epsilon brethren if he'd go thru with the dare. Hair tonic manufacturers will prosper as never before if this idea goes the way of the gold fish gulping contests.

Ohio State starts new loan system

Fund to aid students thru emergency needs

COLUMBUS, O. (I.P.) Delayed checks from home need no longer cause worries for Ohio State university students, thanks to a new loan fund now being set up by the Council of Fraternity Presidents.

No ordinary loan fund is this. It's expected to help take care of expenses for students not contemplated in the monthly allowance. Sudden need for a new book, shortage of cash for transportation home at vacation time, unexpected medical or dental bills, shortage of funds for fees—these needs no longer will send students hunting loans from more fortunate classmates.

Any student past the freshman year will be eligible for a loan up to $50, provided he has established his "credit rating"—a classroom average of 2.25 or better out of a possible four points.

Loans will be made for one quarter only, and a service charge of one dollar per loan will cover expenses, including interest.

Funds will be provided for by the fraternities, but the loans will be extended to independents and Greeks alike, provided they meet all other requirements.

Each fraternity will pay three dollars a year toward the loan fund, making a total of $150 available the first year. But with a quarterly turnover, this will mean at least $450 in loans. And the fund will increase at the rate of $150 per year, plus the interest earned, until it is large enough to meet all legitimate demands.

Brilliant teachers to staff N'western

Holcombe to lecture at Institute of Democracy

EVANSTON, ILL. (IP). Ten visiting professors who have achieved outstanding success in the study of politics, sociology, economics, philosophy, psychology, history, and education, will form the instructional staff of the newly established Institute of Democracy at Northwestern university, this summer.

The basic course for the institute students, "Contemporary Problems of Democracies," will be taught by Dr. Arthur N. Holcombe, chairman of the department of government at Harvard university and former president of the American Political Science association.

Dr. Edward Alsworth Ross, world famous sociologist, will emerge from retirement as professor emeritus at the University of Wisconsin to teach an institute course in "Social Problems of Democracy." Dr. Ross is a former president of the American Sociology society, and is known as the father of modern sociology.

Kentucky frats abolish Hell Week

Initiation practices confined to houses

LEXINGTON, Ky.—Fraternity "Hell Week" at the University of Kentucky has gone the way of other obsolete institutions. Dr. T. T. Jones, dean of men at that institution, appointed a committee which has presented a regulatory program which completely eliminates public exhibitionism, confines informal initiation practices strictly to chapter houses and grounds, prohibits "Hell week" activities from interfering with classwork of students, and makes mandatory the cessation of all hazing activities, each week night, at 12 o'clock.

The University of Kentucky's attitude is in line with that of leading educational institutions of the country as a step toward the eventual complete elimination of this out-moded institution of "Hell week."
