BY MARY ANNA COCKLE.

Classes today and in between them a coke at the Student Union. . . Johnny Upson looking lost without Jessica. . . Willard Mertz Fiji with his old steady, Ann Kinder. . . Beta Duke Nolte, once a heart flutter about the campus taking the vows with D. G. Betty Mumford Oct. 6. . . K. K. G. Dorothy Ann Koenig minus a Beta pin these days and N. U. minus Jim Armstrong. . . Howard Marshall, Sigma Nu pretty boy once again fancy free. . . Phi Psi Maynard Schwartz chatting with Pat Woods, Theta, on the Union steps. . . D. U. Howie Lynch staggering neath the weight of volumes of law college. . . Phi Phi Betty Dolphin sporting the Alpha Sig pin of George Graham. . . Shall we go on?

Understand that D. U. Neal Felber has taken an entirely different attitude toward the dating situation this year. To quote Neal: "My first two years in college have been spent pursuing. My last two I intend to be pursued." Neal concedes however, that each of his feminine admirers will be given a fair chance. Oh deah me!

We hate to be pessimistic about what four years in college will do for you, but those in the know claim that a Kappa alum trekked to Chicago this summer to a wedding, with some business of her own to take care of on the side. She'd be darned if people would get away with this "always a bridesmaid but never a bride" stuff with her. Plans, we heard, fell through. Our next word concerning the man in question came from Boulder, Colo., where Kappa pledge Mariella Bennett was seen everywhere with the aforesaid gent.

And while we're on the subject of Colorado you might be interested to hear that Jack Hyland's Beta pin which Alpha Phi Marry Bremers annexed last month spent some time on a D. G. pledge's sweater this summer in Colo. Or should we tell tales out of school?

Molly Woodward, K. K. G., seems to be doing up the Sigma Chi house in fine shape. Not long ago Dick Faytinger was at her home when the conversation drifted around to the dozen gardenias she had received that day. Friend Molly was much put out when her little brother solved the mystery of the flowers by disclosing they had come from another Sigma Chi. Today we find Molly coking in the morning with Bill Butts and this afternoon with Jack Moore. Wow!

About half the A. T. O. chapter tripped over to the Theta house Tuesday p. m. to renew old friendships and what not. A tussle ensued (we shan't attempt to describe it) and Don Moss and several of his chums much besmeared with lipstick of all flavors made a hasty exit.

Phi Delt pledge Chuck Oldfather has his hands full already. It seems that two years ago Theta Tess Cassidy and a Lincoln high queen, Mary Adelaide Hansen were vying for the young man's affections. But Chuck was downright suave about it all and kept his two loves from actual encounter. Now, with the smoke of rush week clearing up we find Mary Adelaide settled at the Theta house as a pledge and Tess, an upper-classman having full sway.

Hasn't it been batted about that Kappa Delt Evelyn Hopkins had pretty well balled and chained Sigma Nu Jim Anderson? Rumor has it the young man was planning a big evening in Omaha with a gal from another house. But then that was only rumor.

Pfff went the romance of Pi Phi Jane Shaw and Sig Alph Burdette Wortman, who have been that way about each other for nigh onto two years now. It all started from a little incident at a YWCA camp this summer, and all the king's horses couldn't make Janie check

K. U. to inaugurate new chancellor Saturday

The University of Kansas will inaugurate a new chancellor at an informal convocation Saturday morning. Deane W. Malott will be the ninth to head the school. Saturday will be his first appearance before the student body.

back into the Sig Alph house again.

Jeannie Newell, Kappa pres., Nebraska sweetheart and sech appears to have a monopoly on Frank Coufal, one of the handsomer boys at the Sigma Chi shack. But now we hear that Sigma Nu Bill Mowbray aspires to bat in that league. Dunno.

And speaking of Sigma Nu's, the Tri Delt house is about ready to tub Olive Speith, erstwhile beauty queen. Dick Ryan's five armed star has been bouncing back and forth all summer and now it's on to stay, we hear. Hmmm!

That's all for now. See you at the midget auto races Friday eve.

Long's store now holds post office

School of Music takes over old Temple room

Due to lack of space for several music classes the space in the Temple formerly used by the university post office has been taken over by the school of music.

The post office has been moved to Long's Nebraska bookstore, and new offices have been arranged for those ministers who formerly occupied part of the post office room. Mr. H. Erck, Lutheran pastor, now has his office in room 102A of the Temple, and Mr. R. E. Rangler, Lutheran secretary, shares an office with Mr. W. G. Rembold, Evangelical pastor in what used to be the entrance to the university Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Besides acquiring the university post office the interior of the bookstore has been entirely redecorated. A structural glass front has been added to improve the appearance of the building. The interior is now soundproof, and is lit by a system of semi-indirect lighting.

ENGINEERS

For over twenty-five years Long's has furnished engineering and architectural students, in addition to professional draftsmen and architects, the finest precision drawing instruments at absolutely the lowest prices in the mid-west. Our intimate knowledge of drawing instruments and allied supplies has only been possible through a close relationship with the faculty members of the engineering department.

We invite your inspection.
