

Stop, obey law, campus cop warns scampering students

"Most of the students drive carefully and their cars are usually in good shape," Sgt. Regler told the NEBRASKAN yesterday as students once more created the annual university traffic problem with their vehicles ranging from Buick eights to model T's.

The campus cop suggested the following points to help students keep the campus safe:

- Do not walk against the red light.
- Do not jay walk.
- Use cross walks.
- Obey stop signs.
- Do not double park to unload passengers.
- Use the yellow line and unloading zones.

Regler pointed out that Lt. R. O. Bennet at the traffic division of the police department, has often listed the crossing from social sciences to Temple as "public enemy number one."

The campus police force has a great deal to do in protecting property on the campus. During the summer they watch for fire hazards, and during the school year they keep an eye on the parking areas of both the city and college campuses.

"Help us keep our 100 percent safety record," Sgt. Regler requests. "We have never had a serious accident on the campus."

Pharmacists elect three Nebraskans

Burt, Bukey, Lyman win governing posts

Three members of the university college of pharmacy staff were elected to national offices at the recent meetings of the American Pharmaceutical association and the American Association of colleges of Pharmacy held at Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. J. B. Burt, chairman of the department of pharmacy, was nominated vice president of the pharmaceutical association. The election will be held this fall. He was also elected chairman of the scientific section of the association, and was appointed a member of the long range policy committee which was created at this year's convention.

Buckey made vice-chairman. Dr. F. S. Bukey, research associate on the pharmacy staff, was advanced from secretary to vice-chairman of the conference of chemistry teachers of the American Association of College of Pharmacy.

Dean R. A. Lyman was nominated to the governing board of the American Pharmaceutical association, and was re-elected editor of the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education.

'Union Aids Social Life'

Van Sant tells frosh of leisure activities

"There are four phases in university life," said K. F. Van Sant, in addressing the freshman lecture groups Thursday. These are, namely, the instructional, the service, the research and the cultural divisions. The Student Union deals mainly with the latter, helping the student to improve his social life.

Many activities are offered by the Union to give the student an interesting place to while away leisure time, and gain something in so doing. The Union sponsors book reviews frequently in the Book Nook, offers music for the person who enjoys passing a few restful hours in that way. There are always pictures on the wall, constantly rotated, brought for people too busy to see the fine exhibit at Morrill hall.

"It offers tournaments of bridge in the game rooms, and ping pong in the ping pong room in the basement. Many an enjoyable hour is spent at the tea or evening dances in the beautiful ballroom. There are ample places for meetings and banquets, should you be needing such a spot. And one may find much pleasure 'coking' or dining in one of the various eating places of the Union."

"To sum it all up, the Union is yours. It was built for you, so why not get the most from it?" Mr. Van Sant concluded.

Humor magazine offers freshman education issue

Freshmen!!! Do you know what to do if your blind date has buck teeth? Embarrassing situations sometimes arise when the only way out is to be swallowed up in the floor, but there are better ways. In the initial issue of the Awgwan dedicated to the bewildered-freshmen will be given the answer to this question and several other tried and true embarrassing situations, in an etiquette column especially for freshmen.

Another feature of this issue will be a feature on the age-old problem of hour dances under the title of "Isn't This Hour Dance?" written by Margaret Krause. "Innovation" will be a new column on the latest swing records by Bob Hemphill.

The gore column will spot-light the freshman pledges and their ramblings. The more choice morsels of gossip will be about the upperclassmen.

"Freshman bewilderment will be

War topics feature additions to library

Among the new books recently received by the library is "Government Price Policy in the United State During the World War," by Herbert Stein. The topic covered in the book is particularly timely.

"Foundations of Democracy," a and Robert A. Taft; "Constitutionalism and the Changing World," by C. H. McIlwain, and "World Federation," by Oscar Newfang also apply to the present war situation.

Other books listed are: Myself When Young, by Margot, Countess of Oxford and Asquith. An Autobiography, by Margot, Countess of Oxford and Asquith. My Ireland, by Lord E. J. M. D. P. Dunsany. Sweden, A Modern Democracy on Ancient Foundations, by Nils Herlitz. Toward a Dimensional Healtam, by Charles M. Perry. From Morality to Religion, by W. G. DeBurgh. Deutsche Nationalerziehung, Grundformen und Methodik, by Von Walloritz. An Essay on Critical Appreciation, by R. W. Church. The Sculptured Courtesan, by Ben Field. The Poet's Defense, by J. Bronowski. Captain Maryat and the Old Navy, by Christopher Lloyd. New Jersey, A Guide to Its Present and Past, compiled by Federal Writer's Project. Europe's Discovery of South Africa, by Rev. Sidney R. Welch.

the theme of the cover and will be carried throughout the issue dedicated to the frosh," says Editor Betty Roach.

Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Kappa Nu fraternities unite

Lambda Chi Alpha and Theta Kappa Nu fraternities' plans have been approved for the uniting of the two under the name of Lambda Chi Alpha. This word has been received by the local chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha from the international president.

The united fraternities will have approximately 100 under-graduate chapters, will be the fourth largest Greek letter social fraternity, and will be represented in 39 states of the United States and in one province in Canada.

Lambda Chi Alpha was established at Nebraska in 1921 when the local fraternity Kappa Delta Phi was chartered. It now has approximately 350 members.

Conventions approve move.

Proposals for the amalgamation of the two organizations were approved by Lambda Chi Alpha at its biennial assembly late in August in San Francisco and at a special convention of Theta Kappa Nu in Birmingham, Ala., late in August. Several members of Theta Kappa Nu have been elected to the governing board of Lambda Chi Alpha.

Prior to the union, Lambda Chi Alpha had 79 functioning chapters in addition to one group, granted a charter at the San Francisco assembly. Theta Kappa Nu had 37 chapters.

Founded in 1909 at Boston university, Lambda Chi Alpha had grown from a law society started a number of years before. Its early growth was in New England, New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, but it quickly spread to all parts of the United States. It crossed the border in 1926, founding a chapter at the University of Toronto.

Indianapolis headquarters.

Lambda Chi Alpha maintains international headquarters in the Circle Tower in Indianapolis, Ind., in charge of a full time executive secretary. Three traveling secretaries spend their entire time during the college year visiting and assisting under-graduate chapters.

Another recent absorption, announced early in August, was that by Alpha Sigma Phi of Phi Pi Phi.

As Seen in Harper's Bazaar
NOW... Belle-Sharmer Stockings
IN ALL LEG SIZES
WITH ACTION STRAIN BANISHED!

STRAIN-EASE... A MARVELOUS NEW FEATURE DOES IT!

• No more sudden runs when you run to the bus. No more garter strain . . . action strain . . . knee strain. And the prettiest legs you ever flaunted at your public. Strain-Ease does it! This marvelous new Belle-Sharmer fashioning stretches when you walk or run, stoop or bend . . . takes the strain off your stockings and your budget.

Belle-Sharmer's famous individual sizing gives you perfect fit in width and length as well as foot size. It also gives you . . . in Strain-Ease . . . just the right amount of stretch for your particular needs. No more and no less! There's a Belle-Sharmer leg size for you . . . with individual Strain-Ease protection . . . So come in soon! Here, exclusively, of course.

$1 and up

Your Foot Size Has a Number . . . Your Leg Size Has a Name

BREV . . . for snalls

MODITE . . . for middlings

DUCHESS . . . for dolls

Rudge & Guenzel Co.

SAVE 25 to 50%
BUY USED BOOKS
LABORATORY SETS
for ALL CLASSES

10% DISCOUNT ON ALL NEW TEXTS

Post Office Sub-Station

