

Moon makes love; movies make-or break-morals

Pins, cigars reappear —and Oldfield delivers the Towne club a lecture

Anyone who has been around at all lately knows there's been a lovely moon most every night. I saw it myself...on the way to the library. It may be moon-love...anyway the Theta Xi boys received the cigars from their president, John Nottelmann. The girl who has his pin is Rachel McDonald. She goes to ag. Claude Deats, another Theta Xi, also passed the cigars, and his girl is Florence Turnball. Wonder if she has his Delta Sigma Pi pin too? Visiting here at her home chapter is Augusta French, Phi Mu. She is the one, you remember, who played the lead in "The Women" on Broadway. It is the same part that Norma Shearer played in the movie of the same title.

If you have any questions you would like to ask about Hollywood or its celebrities you should have been at the Towne club meeting last night. Barney Oldfield was there to do the answering. One question: "Do you think that movies affect the morals of college students?" Answer: "That depends on whether they sit on the main floor or in the balcony."

Pat Woods, Theta is wearing Grant Thomas' Sigma Chi pin and that reminds... Jean Reed, Theta, has had Don Moore's Kappa Sig pin for a long time now and still no candy for the sisters.

It looks like an Acacia alum, Bob Teten, from Texas, is cutting in on the Rilla Mae Nevin, Alpha Xi Delt, and Wayne Farber romance. Two consecutive nights at the Turnpike with Bob is a pretty good start.

Since John Thornberg, Phi Gam, didn't pass the candy with Irene Eversman, AOPi, the Phi Gam pledges went over to the AOPi house and took Irene to dinner at the Union. Threat or inducement they didn't say.

Pledge officers at the Kappa Delta house: President, Zelma Mae Peterson; vice president, Clarice Worley; and secretary-treasurer, Bonnie Belle Rixstine.

New officers at the Beta Sig house: President, Eldred Winter and social chairman, Don Meixel.

A.W.S. holds tea tomorrow

Women's board invites activity minded girls

A. W. S. board members will entertain at its annual all-activities tea tomorrow afternoon in Ellen Smith hall from 3:30 to 5 p. m. All women interested in university activities, particularly freshman women, are invited.

The various activities will have separate rooms in the building in which they will show exhibits of the work done in their group. An officer of each organization will have charge of its exhibit and will explain the activity.

In the receiving line will be the presidents of the different women's organizations, Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, and Mrs. Ada Westover, assistant to the dean. The presidents are: Selma Hill, Tassels; A. W. S., Virginia Clemans; Y. W., Priscilla Wicks; Coed Counselors, Fern Steuteville; and W. A. A., Helen Kovanda.

Jean Hooper, A. W. S. member, is in charge of the tea. The Tassels will serve in their uniforms.

Players—

Take It With You," presented by the Players last year; Grace Hill of Omaha, Barbara Birk of Lincoln, and Edgar Cooper of Jacksonville, Ill. All four are seniors.

To select four.

Five productions will be given this year, the remaining four to be selected from the following nationally acclaimed dramas: "It Can't Happen Here," by Sinclair Lewis; "Post Mortem," Noel Coward; "Mice and Men," John Steinbeck; "What a Life," by Clifford Goldsmith; "Bachelor Born," by Ian Hay; "Family Portrait," by Lenore Coffee and William J. Cowen; "The Gentle People," by Irwin Shaw, and one of the outstanding classical plays, possibly a Greek drama. The public is invited to make known their preferences.

Armand Hunter, business manager for the Players, announced Tuesday that the ticket selling campaign in the city will end Friday night. Tassels are again in charge of the selling campaign. The goal this year is 1,500 tickets, 700 of which have already been sold to students and members of the faculty. Reservations can be made by calling the box office at the Temple.

The staff in charge of dramatic productions this year includes Miss H. Alice Howell, director; Herbert Yenne, assistant director; Hunter, business manager, and Delford Brummer, stage technician and scene designer.

Glamour girls don't make good wives!

"What does that child of 19 know about making a home? She's never done anything but enjoy herself. Why, she can't even cook a hamburger—and she thinks having a baby would 'spoil her tennis'!"

That's what people said when Nancy Barr, society glamour girl, married hard-working young Toby Stearns. And what, they wondered, would happen when Toby woke up and realized the truth? . . . Turn to page 5 of this week's Post.
