

NU opens Big Six season at Ames

Daily grid experts pick winners

Five DAILY gridiron experts muttered the magic words over their gazing football and came forth with their predictions for Saturday's stadium classics.

The most reputable gazer, June Bierbower, says it's the Huskers over Iowa State, Oklahoma over Texas, Mizzou over Washington, Minnesota over Purdue, the Panthers over Duke, and Arkansas over Baylor.

John McDermott, DAILY sports writer, and Earl Hunt, another sports dopest are entirely in accord with Bierbower's predictions. However Editor Nieman states that it will be Texas over Oklahoma, Duke over Pitt, and Baylor to top Arkansas.

Ed Wittenburg, staff member and avid football fan, agrees with Nieman except that he thinks Oklahoma will smother Texas.

Two barb grid tilts played

Two Barb 1-M games were played yesterday. The Y. M. C. A. rallied in the fourth quarter for a 6-0 victory over Stratford, as Bill Luke passed to Victor Bradshaw for the score.

Baldwin Hall ran up a 33-0 victory over Brown Palace in the Barb game. Bill Lowry scored twice while Clark Rice tossed touchdown passes to Joe Shoughnessy and Ted Reiger, and scored a touchdown and extra point. Clark was responsible for the extra point while Shaughnessy made the tag for a safety. The Commanders and John Hall game which was to have been played yesterday was called off.

Frosh teams to perform tomorrow

by Earl Hunt.

Nebraska's freshman footballers make their 1939 debut this afternoon at 4 p. m. in an intra-squad game on the regular playing field. No admission will be charged.

One outfit will be composed of the three elevens which have been engaged in scrimmaging the varsity this season. The other bunch will include men who have been playing among themselves on the freshman field. This does not mean that the first-mentioned team is the better of the two. With nearly 150 frosh gridders in suit it is hard to tell where to place the men. This contest will give the long-awaited chance to potential Devey O'Briens, Marshall Goldbergs, or Charley Brocks who may have been overlooked.

All staters included.

Fans today will get a chance to look at some of the youngsters who may be tomorrow's leaders. They will see all-staters Gene Grace from Neligh at full and Ernie Weeks of Omaha Central playing halfback. Kansas' all-state tackle Bob McNutt and Fred Metheny, former Lincoln high quarterback, are other high school stars who will strut their stuff.

Some of the first-year men expected to see lots of action are the Brady brothers, Sid and Dale, from Bethany, Rother of Scotia, and Kronick, a Sioux City Iowan, backs; Kathol of Hartington, Davis of Hastings, ends; Saklar from Omaha South, a tackle; Sauer of Lincoln and Czirr of Hardy at center; Schwartz of Casper, Wyo., and Irick of Lincoln, guards.

35 GRIDDERS LEAVE TONIGHT; HUSKERS FAVORED SATURDAY

Iowa State team pointing for tomorrow's game; Five new faces may be in NU starting lineup

Coach Biff Jones and 35 Nebraska football players leave this evening for Ames, Ia., where they will meet the Iowa State Cyclones as the Huskers face their first hurdle in regaining the Big Six football championship, which they lost to Oklahoma.

The Huskers, fresh from a 6-0 victory over Minnesota, are favored to win easily, but Iowa State has been pointing for this game, figuring a possible Husker letdown. The Cyclones would like nothing better than to paste two defeats in a row on Nebraska, having won 8-7 at Lincoln last fall.

Loses stars.

Iowa State has lost most of last year's stars, but Jim Yeager has two teams which he figures are about on a par. Gone are Everett Kischer, George Bazik, Gordon Reupke, Charles Heilmann, Paul Morin, Clyde Shugart and Ed Bock by graduation, and Henry Wilder because of injuries.

Biff Jones has been using a different lineup this week than that which started against Indiana and Minnesota. Game Capt. Jack Ashburn has replaced Ray Prochaska at right end, Sam Schwartzkopf is at Forrest Behm's old right tackle post, Bob Burruss is at center in place of Bob Ramey, Eddie Schwartzkopf is at Hub Monsky's left guard position, and Royal Kahler has taken over Clarence Herndon's left tackle post. That lineup averages only 190-1-7, slightly over three pounds less than last week's, with Ashburn and Ed Schwartzkopf taking the poundage down although Kahler, the biggest man on the squad at 210, will be starting.

Others same.

The remainder of the starting lineup will be the same, with George Seemann at left end and Warren Alfson at right tackle. Roy Petsch, Herman Rohrig, Walter Luther and Vike Francis will probably start in the backfield again, although Bus Knight has been working at his position because of a shoulder injury to Petsch. Ramey has been bothered all week by a leg injury, while Prochaska and Henry Rohn, second string fullback, are also still bothered by injuries suffered in the Minnesota game.

The probable starting line for the Cyclones averages but 188 4-7. Martin Boswell, captain, and Bill Bliss at ends; Bob Moody and Bernie Mickelson at tackles; Tom Smith and Ernie Mueller, guards, and Jack West, center, are the linemen. Moody won a freshman numeral at Nebraska three years ago and hails from Omaha.

Backs listed.

The backfield includes Lindsay Vinsel, 185; Jack Wallace, 165; Don Griswold, 170, and Merle Osborne, 210. Bill Lechtenberg, 185 pounder may start at fullback instead of Osborne.

Yeager's second team includes Douglas Graves, 170, and John Heggen, 180, at ends; Melvin Happe, 205, and Bill Taylor, 200, at tackles; Duncan Glab, 165, and Laverne Lewis, 175, guards; Bob Kirkpatrick, center 185; Joe Taylor, 185, John Bowers 170, Bob Seaburg, 175, and either Osborne or Lechtenberg. Seaburg and Wallace are both sopomores, and alternate in sparking the Ames offense.

NU squad.

Huskers making the trip are: Ashburn, Alfson, Abel, Burruss, Behm, DeFruiter, Dobson, Francis, Herndon, Herrmann, Hopp, R. Kahler, B. Kahler, Kelley, Knight, Knickrehm, Ludwick, Luther, Meier, Monsky, Muskin, Petsch, Porter, Preston, J. Prochaska R. Prochaska, Ramey, Rohn, Rohrig, S. Schwartzkopf, E. Schwartzkopf, Seemann, Simmons, Stearns, and Thompson.

Formal...

Jo Smith and Marvin Kruse, ag juniors, it was announced by Keith Gilmore, president of ag executive board, today.

The formal, set for October 27 in the student activities building, is ag's big fall party, with all ag men and women getting out their best overalls and gingham to get together for an evening of fun and to select their Farmers Formal queen, elected by vote of the men present from among the senior ag girls on the campus.

Voting for the queen will take place the evening of the Formal, with ag men casting their votes as they arrive. Climax of the party will be the presentation of the queen and her attendants in a colorful ceremony.

All ag students are cordially invited to take part in the Formal and to attend the evening's fun, the co-chairmen emphasized. They pointed out that the Formal gives all ag students an opportunity to attend an all-ag party.

New York City's four municipal colleges enroll more than 52,000 students yearly.

Phi Sigs, Delts win

The Phi Sig touchballers, led by Knoll, passed and ran their way to a 26-0 victory over the Alpha Sigs in a League I game which had been postponed earlier. Knoll scored two touchdowns, both on kickoffs, Buchholz and Kuska accounting for one piece on passes.

League 4's Delta Tau Delta won by forfeit from the Kappa Sigs. Next League games will be Monday, Oct. 16.

The Ohio university football team was undefeated in a home football game from 1927 to 1937.

A new campus shirt By Arrow

THE GORDON DOVER with button-down roll collar

THE distinctive feature of this fine oxford shirt is the cut of the collar. The points are longer and taper back broadly towards the yoke. The button points are so placed to effect an outward roll of the collar, achieving that desirable casual appearance. College men will especially appreciate this shirt for wear with tweeds and rough finish clothes.

Ask your Arrow dealer for the Arrow Dover $2. It's new and on the way in. In white, blue, also patterns. Sanforized-Shrunk (fabric shrinkage less than 1%). All sleeve lengths and neck sizes.
