

Sam Schwartzkopf to captain Huskers in Baylor tussle

Bears to present tough team in game with N. U. Saturday

BY JOHN M'DERMOTT.

Sam Schwartzkopf, senior tackle from Lincoln was named to lead the Huskers against the Baylor Bruins, in the second home game of the year next Saturday. Sam majored two years ago, and injuries kept him on the sidelines most of last season, as he won a minor award last year. The Huskers confined their activity last night to viewing the Iowa-State pictures. The Scarlet then went outdoors garbed in sweat shirts and took a light drill in passing against Baylor formations. No change has been made in the first team lineup, remaining as it was against the Cyclones last week.

Minor injuries were sustained by three of the Huskers, Bus Knight has a sore shoulder, Hermie Rohrig has a bad leg, and George Seemann's knee was giving him trouble. All three took part in the workout and it is expected that they will be in top form for the game Saturday.

Beat Arkansas.

The Baylor Bears won their opening Southwest conference game against Arkansas last Saturday at Waco, Tex. Although the Bears entered the game the underdog they outplayed the Porkers, 15-3, and managed to break up the Arkansas passing game. Baylor has a great forward wall this year and have been giving their backs plenty of support. The Bears have won their first three games and will be hot after a victory over the Big Six threat, the Cornhuskers. Len Aken, 215 pound running guard, Bob Taylor, 190 lb. right guard, and Bob Nelson, touted as the leading center in the Southwest, were the standouts against the Razorbacks. Jack Wilson, sophomore left halfback, and Jim Witt, junior

Milburn Knight, ex-NU wrestler dies after mishap

Milburn Knight, star 118 pound wrestler here three years ago, died in a Fremont hospital Saturday night after a railroad accident late Friday. Knight, a Union Pacific employe, lost both legs in the accident.

He and his brother Jim Knight, came to Nebraska U. from Abraham Lincoln high school in Council Bluffs. Milburn attended school here two years, winning a major letter in wrestling his sophomore year when he was second high scorer on the team, with brother Jim coming in first to beat him. Milburn was undefeated in dual competition that year. Jim Knight, one of the greatest wrestlers in Husker history, was graduated last year.

right half, were the offensive aces for the Bears. Each counted a touchdown to put the Bruins out in front.

Bears Tough.

A. J. Lewandowski scouted the game for the Huskers and claims that they will be one plenty tough team to beat. The Huskers will have a long workout today and will continue tomorrow and Thursday in an attempt to remedy the many mistakes that were committed at Ames Saturday.

Baylor has a large team this season, boasting a 41 man squad that is rated as huge and tough, so the Huskers have another tough week-end ahead of them. Aerials which have been sparingly used in the last two tussles are expected to be uncorked in an attempt to stem the first Southwestern representative to play on the Husker lot for some time.

Newkirk calls golf candidates

Golf coach Ed Newkirk has issued a call to all candidates for both the varsity and freshman football teams to report at 12:30 tomorrow afternoon for a meeting in the coliseum.

Newkirk urges any man interested in freshman or varsity golf to attend the get-together, at which a definite meeting time for all candidates will be made.

Barb I-M results

Barb intramural results of last week were: Commanders 12, Johnson Hall 0 in League 1. Juggernauts 12, 330 Club 0, and Pal Club 1, ACBC 0 in League 2. In League 3, Hitler's Playboys, 13, Hoosier Hot Shots 0.

Husker gymnasts open official drill Monday Prospects bright with four lettermen back

Official practice for the Husker gymnastics team opened Monday, although a large number of candidates have been reporting to Coach Charley Miller for pre-season drills ever since the beginning of school.

Four lettermen, the most any Husker team has had returning since the sport was started here five years ago, are reporting. Roy Proffitt, two year letterman, and ace of the team last year, Gay Cadwell, another two year veteran, and Jake Geier and Stan Southwick, both of whom lettered for the first time last year, are the veterans. Ray Griffen, who lost out last year because of an early season injury, is also back.

Johnson looks good.

New material is headed by Guy Johnson, a fine prospect, who was all-university champion last year. The other most promising new men are Ken McAferty, Harold Buxton and Abe Grossman.

Coach Miller has asked that any freshman or upperclassman interested in the sport, no matter whether he thinks he is varsity material or not, report for practice. The turnout at this time is already larger than any the school has ever had.

Other men who have been reporting are Robert Anderson, Harry Rinder, Floyd Howard, Lee Glissman, R. E. Samuelson, Paul Bolstad, Charles Smrkovsky, John Kuppinger and Ray Rolland.

Luke helping.

Pete Kreisler, letterman of two years ago; Bill Luke, wrestling star for three years, and the returning lettermen are helping Miller with the new men this fall. The practice schedule has been changed, with workouts being held from 3 until 6 instead of from 4:30 until 6 in order to prevent crowding on the coliseum stage, where the team practices.

This year's schedule has not been arranged as yet, since the Huskers who compete with Big Ten and Big Seven teams in the absence of Big Six competition, have to wait until those first two leagues make out their schedules. However, meets are certain with Minnesota and Iowa, with whom the Huskers have home and home agreements.

To enter AAU regional.

They will enter the Rocky Mountain AAU meet again, having won it four out of the last five years, and will also probably face Colorado U. and Greeley Teachers in dual meets. Coach Miller hopes to take a team east to meet Chicago U. and Illinois, but the Huskers will not face Gustavus Adolphus or Carleton, last year's foes.

More interest than ever is being shown in the team this year, and Miller attributes it to the exhibitions his men give between halves of basketball games. New stunts are being worked on for presentation this winter.

two years of football for the Huskers had it not been for Harry Van Liew, United Air Lines pilot.

Van Liew was spending his vacation at Lake Okoboji, where Seemann spends his summers. George was determined to quit school—he had finished his sophomore year—and take up flying. Van Liew talked him into finishing his education before becoming a pilot, so Seemann, after staying out a year to rest an injured knee, came back last fall and stepped into a regular's position, and became a star.

Phi Gams lose to Delts, 7 to 4

by Earl Hart.

Yesterday's feature touchball game saw the downfall of the Phi Gams, league 4 leader, as the DTD outfit eked out a victory, 7-4.

Kappa Sigma finally pulled out of the loss column by defeating Zeta Zeta Tau, 12-0. The contest between Aacia and the ATOs was postponed.

In league 1 the Betas whipped the Sig Alphas, 1-0, in an overtime game. Theta Xi won over Alpha Sigma Phi, 2-0, on a safety. The AGR-Phi Sigma Kappa fray was also postponed.

League 2's Phi Psis poured on the steam to overwhelm Delta Upsilon. In another overtime game SAM edged Delta Theta Phi, 1-0. Sigma Nu forfeited to Pi Kappa Alpha.

The Sig Ep-Phi Delt affair, only league 3 contest scheduled, was postponed until tonight on account of darkness.

Despite its present low standing, the University of Chicago grid team has won more Big Ten championships than any other team.

All of a sudden this Baylor game, which Biff Jones scheduled two years ago to take Iowa's place for one season on the Husker schedule has assumed quite a bit of importance. Baylor won their first two games against easy competition, and with none too impressive scores, but Saturday they walloped an Arkansas team which had beaten Texas Christian.

The Huskers beat Minnesota, but a none-too-good showing against Iowa State will take Nebraska down in the eyes of the guys who make predictions about such things as football games, and all in all, what would have looked like, on paper, a fairly easy game for Nebraska now is wide-open affair because of the Bears' win over Arkansas.

Baylor's end W. J. Wimpee is studying for the ministry... Baylor is a Baptist school... When it comes to all-American picking this boy Tom Harmon of Michigan will have to be seen... Harmon, the Bill DeCorvont of high school football three years ago at Gary, Indiana, is proving he was no flash in the high school pan... He scored exactly 27 points against Iowa Saturday... and as you remember the score of the Iowa-Michigan game was 27-7, Michigan.

A knee injury which Elmer Hackney suffered in the first four minutes of the K-State game against Colorado, will keep Hack out of the lineup for at least two weeks, according to Coach Wes Fry, and if the Oberlin Ogre is out that long it looks as though K-State will have to give up about all the hope they ever had about figuring in the Big Six title race because Saturday they play Missouri, and the next week end they face the Huskers. Hackney suffered torn ligaments in his right knee, and there were some reports after the game that he would be out for the season.

Our nomination for the nation's number 1 team, or at least as a candidate for that title, is Texas A. & M... the Aggies rolled up 33 points in the first half against Villanova, then let the easterners get 7 in the second half... Villanova hadn't lost a game in more than two years... and we see our Fightin' Irish won another one on a place kick, this time an extra point instead of a field goal... they had some of that luck of old Erin to go with their fight Saturday, too, when Jack Sanders missed his placekick for what would have been the tying point of the game in the last minute of play.
