

Gamma Phi's tea begins social week

The Gamma Phi Betas started the week's social activity very pleasantly with a tea at the chapter house on Sunday, October 15. The Gamma Phi Beta pledges were hostesses to the house chaperons, active presidents and pledges from all the houses on the campus. Mary Jean Lauvetz, pledge president; Maxine Wertman, active president; Mrs. L. C. Wicks, house chaperon and Mrs. Allen Wilson, alumna advisor were in the receiving line. Pouring the first hour were Mrs. C. S. Hamilton and Mrs. Dorothy Fraser; the second hour Mrs. W. G. Tempel and Mrs. Clifford Hicks. Charlotte Perry played the piano.

Founder's Day.

Founder's day was celebrated yesterday in the Alpha Chi Omega house. The charter members of the local chapter were present for the program planned. Actives and pledges wore ribbons in the chapter colors under their pins in honor of the occasion.

Warren Fagger, PKA alumnus, drove down from Kearney, Nebraska, to spend the week-end with Lillian Luttgen, Alpha Phi.

Delta Delta Delta will hold open house next Saturday after the Baylor game from four until six p. m.

The DUs announce Dean Kahlin as a new pledge.

Kappa Alpha Theta pledge officers elected last week are: Barbara York, president; Phyllis Andersen, secretary.

Dairy teams away.

Business on the west coast draws Clare Grandon, Otto Pfeifer, and Russel Pfeifer, AGR's dairy judging team. They were awarded a three week trip to San Francisco after successfully competing in a dairy judging contest. Also vacating the AGR house for at least one week are Eric Thor, Keith Gilmore and Edwin Rousek, livestock judging team who traveled Kansas City-way last week end. Floyd Hansmire traveled as far as Kansas City as delegate to the Future Farmers of America meeting.

Lutheran girls meet.

First meeting of the year for the Lutheran girls club was held on Sunday, October 15th at 3 p. m. Officers for the coming year were elected. They are: Helen Bamesberger, president; Geraldine Buls, vice president; Beth Harms, secretary and Frieda Miller treasurer. Following their business meeting the group hiked out to Antelope park for a weiner roast.

Delta Delta Delta initiated Lillian Roberts and Ruth Iverson on Saturday, October 14th.

The University Riding Club met at Shreve's stables Saturday and had their first workout of the year.

Social event of interest to many university students is the marriage of Jean Cook, Theta from Wausa and Robert Eby, Delt, from Rochester, N. Y. on Saturday, October 14th in a simple ceremony at the home of relatives. The bride wore an attractive green afternoon dress. There were no attendants. Among Theta guests were: Peggy Cowan, accompanist, Lois Keller, and Mrs. Cox, Theta house-mother. Lois Keller was hostess Thursday night at a shower for the bride held at the University Club.

Among college marriages in the near future are Flora Albin, Tri Delt and Bill Gray, Delt, who are to be married on November 25th at Randolph Field chapel; Bill graduates on November 24th.

Frances Woodard and Maxine Maddy passed cigars and candy at the Towne Club-Barb Union exchange dinner, last night.

The University of Chicago roundtable was the first program series on any network produced without use of scripts.

Instruction - -

(Continued from page 1.)

they had been changed from 64 inches minimum height to 62, and 115 to 100 pounds as a minimum weight.

In the near future the enrollees will make arrangements for dual flight instructions for the first semester. It is required that after the student has successfully passed the physical examinations that he go to the university and take out a life and accident insurance policy, the cost of which has been included in the forty dollar fee already paid. The student is not officially enrolled until the policy has been made out. The policy has a five thousand dollar coverage for death, accident, and hospitalization.

Dean Ferguson, director of the flying school, stated that this is purely a precautionary measure, as in the past years experience there have been no major crackups nor any fatal or serious injury to the student pilots.

Blockade - -

(Continued from page 1.)

of 1912 when Italy grabbed Libya from the decaying Ottoman empire.

Russia wanted Turkish assent to a program of: recognition of the Polish conquest, establishment of a neutral Balkan bloc under Russian, or German and Russian leadership, and "redrawing" of Rumanian boundaries to give Russia Bessarabia and Bulgaria a southern slice. Turkey replied with the reminder that she could mobilize nearly 2,000,000 men.

The Finnish delegation is home consulting with their government and will soon "make another try" at negotiating with Russia. The Finns will grant naval bases on some islands, but don't want the Reds in the Aaland islands in the sea between them and the Swedes. The cash provision of the new

Dean Hosp opens Charm school

Dean of Women Helen Hosp will speak tonight at the first meeting of the year for Charm School, women's hobby group sponsored by the Coed Counselors. Miss Hosp's subject will be "A. B. C.'s of Courtesy," and all girls who plan to come are urged to bring pencil and paper. Ruth Clark, coed counselor sponsor, urges that every girl interested, no matter whether freshman or upperclassman, come.

Agnes Wanek will preside at the meeting which starts at 6:45 in Ellen Smith Hall. She will outline the programs of the year, and will explain the question box.

neutrality bill is to be restored. Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee has promised. The opposition to repeal of the embargo on arms has refused to stop debate on the bill, but hope for defeat of the repeal lies now with the House of Representatives, many observers feel.

Jugoslavia reported a budget surplus, the only Balkan state so financially sound. A number of German soldiers captured by the French state that the whistling bullets were their first indication that war had really begun. If the report, which came from London, is true, it may give a good indication of "how much in the dark" Hitler is keeping his people.

Singers - -

(Continued from page 1.)

- |                    |                     |
|--------------------|---------------------|
| Charlotte Snyder   | Bill Smutz          |
| Patricia Rosenbaum | Herbert Cecil       |
| Margaret Forry     | Ellsworth Thelander |
| Hazelmae Qele      | Bob Debord          |
| Rosemary Vondracek | Dale R. Ganz        |
| Irene Schultz      | Frank Mattoon       |
| Alviera Headden    | Jerry Fritzson      |
| Pat Prime          | Jim Dutton          |
| Verna Jean         | Lynn Meyers         |
| Kreascher          | Lynn Lundgren       |
| Betty Jo Alfred    | Gerald Davis        |
| Shirley M. Bonham  | Arlis Mathis        |
| Maxine Lavery      | Herbert Stutheit    |
| Margaret Peters    |                     |

Cony speaker seeks citizenship

Prince Zu Loewenstein to arrive here Monday

Prince Hubertus Zu Loewenstein, now lecturing at Washington State college, announced Saturday that he would seek American citizenship.

The prince, who is scheduled to arrive on the Nebraska campus next Monday, fled from Austria when that country was seized by Germany. He will speak Thursday, Oct. 26 on the topic of "The Role of United States as a European Sees It," before a university convocation.

The lecturer, who will remain here for a short stay as visiting Carnegie lecturer, is the author of "After Hitler's Fall," and "The Tragedy of A Nation."

Bizad honorary discusses plans at luncheon meeting

Members and faculty sponsors of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business administration fraternity, held a luncheon last week in the Union. Plans were discussed for future meetings and activities for the ensuing year.

The University of Nebraska
University Players
Present
Thornton Wilder's
"OUR TOWN"
This Week Tues.-Fri.
Oct. 17-20 7:30 each eve.
TEMPLE THEATRE
12th and R
The Pulitzer Prize Play of 1938
and
"One of the Great Plays of Our Day"

PERC WESTMORE

ANN SHERIDAN

PERC WESTMORE, make-up expert for Warner Bros., says it takes the right combination of color, line and contour to bring out the best features of all stars. Here you see him with glamorous ANN SHERIDAN who is currently starring in "THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES" a Warner Bros. picture

Chesterfield's

RIGHT COMBINATION
of the world's best cigarette tobaccos brings out the best features of each

All the fine American and Turkish tobaccos in Chesterfield's famous blend are known for some particular smoking quality...

and the way Chesterfield combines these fine tobaccos is why you get a milder, better-tasting smoke with a more pleasing aroma.

That is why, when you try them we believe you'll say...

They Satisfy

For your pleasure...
The Right Combination of the world's best cigarette tobaccos