Huskers prep for Baylor

Pitt rated first in two rankings

Pittsburgh, the team whose players seem to have forgotten about "de-emphasization" there, has the honor this week of ranking first in both the Associated Press poll, and the Azzi-Ratem rankings.

Oklahoma, Big Six champion is listed at third on both polls, while the Azzi-Ratem system lists Tulane second, and the AP names Notre Dame as the second best team. Nebraska's Cornhuskers rate 16th in both cases.

The teams after Oklahoma in the AP ratings are Tulane, Tennessee, Michigan, Southern Cal., Alabama, Texas A. & M., and Ohio State in the first ten. Oregon, Cornell, Duke, North Carolina, Carnegie Tech, Nebraska, Mississippi, SMU, Baylor, and St. Mary's are the next ten.

Biff works footballers on offense

Coach Biff Jones put his Nebraska Cornhuskers through an offensive drill last night in preparation for Saturday's game with the Bears from Baylor.

The Biffer gave special attention to deceptive plays for use against the big Baylor line, which averages over 200 pounds. The team worked on their aerial game too, which they haven't used to any extent since the opener against Indiana. Nebraska's offense has made only 23 points in three games.

Hermie Rohrig, Harry Hopp and Kenny Simmons were doing most of the tossing, and George Seeman, Ray Prochaska, Fred Preston, Roy Petsch, Butch Luther, Bob Ludwick, Bob Kahler and Bob DeFrutter, the ends and backs were doing the receiving.

Three members of the squad were in sweat clothes and did no contact work. Rohrig is nursing an injured leg and a sore foot and confined his activities to passing and returning punts.

Bus Knight is having trouble with his right shoulder and watched most of the practice from the sidelines. Tall Forrest Behm, tackle, has a sore back which kept him out of the rough work. The trio should be ready to go against Baylor Saturday, though.

The freshmen, under the direction of Coach A. J. Lewandowski, were running through Baylor plays, and will use them tonight against the varsity.

Oggel speaks before YWCA vespers group

Rev. M. V. Oggel, minister of Westminister Presbyterian church, was the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. Vespers yesterday. The text of his meditation was Bible study.

Soph Bill Cook looks like 'find' for Coach Weir

Bill Cook, North Loup sophomore, who won the two mile race against Iowa State Saturday, was running the first two mile race he ever ran in competition when he sprinted in the stretch to nose out Llewellyn Hughes, Iowa State captain in 10:01.6.

Coach Ed Weir, who gathered up a two mile team to compete at Iowa State in a short time because of his late arrival here from Europe, believes Cook is a comer. Cook did very little racing in high school, but trained arduously last summer and came back this fall in fine fettle.

SUCH a cool morning that we couldn't help lingering over those fluffy delights known as mittens, displayed in our glove section, street floor. Real angora that's soft as a whisper, and in heavenly pastel shades. 4.50, and lucky the gal that buys them. If you're pulling strings on the budget, don't pass by, for we've other mitts at 1.95, and socks to match at $1.

A lot of talk about the wasp going on, so we asked our corsetiere just what a young 'un was going to do, who just wouldn't lace herself up the back like grandmother. We found the answer was very simple, for there are girdles made with the new higher waistline that diminish the waistline measurably. From $2 to $5.

Furs are always beautiful, and this year is no exception. We've a selection of jackets to please the most exacting, and coats we display with rightful pride. Do see them, and remember that a fur coat is an investment, and you're right to choose a store where you can shop with confidence.

Nothing pep's up a woman like a new hat. So if the telephone has refused to ring for you this week, remember that much quoted line about other fish in the sea, and turn up in a perky hat, very happy about the whole thing. 2.95 and up, Second Floor.

MILLER & PAINE

by June Bierbower

The movies of the Iowa State game are to be shown tonight in the Union ballroom, and the management has just one announcement to make. And that concerns—God bless 'em—the Husker football players who attended last week's show, and heckled announcer-impressario Sam Schwartzkopf as he ran the films. Said management wants it quieter this week.

Jim "Sweet" Lalanne, North Carolina backfield star, and Ken Kavanaugh, the sensational pass-catching end from Louisiana State are cousins... Dick Hyland, writing in the Los Angeles Times says right halfback Bob Robertson may become the most valuable man on the Southern Cal team... Robertson played at Omaha Central... Indiana is the only team in the Big Ten which hasn't won or tied for the Western Conference title.

Knox college, the original "Old Siwash," has been selected as the location for a series of "Old Siwash" motion pictures.
