

SOCIETY—

Delta Delta Delta takes social spotlight for week

Actives to entertain regional head

The Tri Deltas take the social spotlight for activity during this week with a tea on Thursday afternoon given by the active members for Mrs. Chester M. Schrepferman of Denver, district president of the sorority; and for the new housemother, Mrs. Lauprin D. Chase. Invitations have been issued to two hundred and fifty people. Doris DeLong, active president; Mrs. L. O. True, Alliance, president; Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Schrepferman, Mrs. I. E. O. Pace, Mrs. Lester Buckley, Miss May Pershing and Miss Mary Chapin will be in the receiving line.

Still on the subject of chapter officers we find that the Thetas are anticipating the arrival, in November, of Mrs. Donald B. Sinclair, Grand President of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mrs. Sinclair is coming from Toronto, Canada.

And now week-end activities are coming into prominence. We find the Pi Phi actives planning a big house party for the pledges on Saturday evening—but the theme is a deep dark secret. The only answer to all our coaxing was just:

"Come and see!"

The Phi Delt's are holding open house on Saturday night from nine to twelve.

The DU's are having a big open house-party on Saturday night after the Nebraska-Baylor game.

The Sigma Nu's will have an hour dance with the Alpha Chi's on Friday night; on Saturday night they have an exchange dinner and hour dance scheduled with the Kappas. Following the Baylor game on Saturday they are holding open house.

The Alpha Phi pledge tea will be held on Sunday, October 22nd, from three to five o'clock for the house chaperons, active presidents and the pledges of other houses.

More marital news comes to us in the engagement announcement of Charlotte Utt, of Omaha—AOPI who graduated in June—to Paul Floyd, Oklahoma City. The wedding will be December 16th.

Monday seems to have been full of activity for certain fraternity pledges who celebrated with much fervor, ostensibly because "sneak night" is now forbidden to sorority pledges—and the boys were doing double duty. The Chi Phi pledges left behind them complete destruction. The actives were left without food, water or heat. The pledges took the water meter, oil burner regulator and the lighting attachments. And heaping indignity upon injury the pledges also took all the clothes they could find.

The Sigma Chi actives cooked dinner themselves on Monday night; the pledges took the cook. The boys went to Omaha and attended the dance at which Glen Gray played.

The Beta pledges, although not in such vicious moods, also went to Omaha—and are repenting their rashness today.

And now to official business:

The pledges at the AOPI house elected Dorothy Latsch, president; Elaine Steinhauer, vice-president; Marcia Beckman, secretary; and Pat Rosenbaum, treasurer.

The University Riding Club will hold a meeting at 5 p. m. Friday in room 315 in the Student Union. Officers will be elected and plans for the fall horse show made. The tentative date for the latter is a week before Thanksgiving.

KEEP POSTED ON THE NEW ARROW SHIRTS — THIS WEEK'S POST

ENJOY THIS WEEK'S POST

WHO...

- at 64, is England's Man of the Hour?
- scented the Nazi danger from the start and became the implacable enemy of Britain's policy of "appeasement"?
- was so feared for his brilliance they said, "There will hardly be room for him in Parliament at 30 or in England at 40"?
- fought in Cuba, India, Egypt and South Africa; became a world hero at 25 for his daring escape from a prison camp?
- bottled up Germany in 1914 by mobilizing Britain's Navy, on his own initiative, before the official declaration of war?
- personally took the blame for Britain's disastrous expedition against the Dardanelles?
- was once tabbed "too clever to be trusted," and yet now is the one man in whom the whole Empire puts its faith?

For years he has been the greatest single force in English political life. But how well do you know him as a person? An American friend and noted commentator brings you a memorable and intimate portrait of him in this week's Post.

Old Man in a Hurry by VINCENT SHEEAN

Author of "Personal History" and "Not Peace But a Sword"

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

GOLD & CO

CARDIGAN FLATTERER By Mary Muffet 10.95

Sage undergrads and career carvers are tucking Mary Muffet's plaid banded cardigan dress into their wardrobes because it's such a fashion scoop.

With princess lines in bright shades of wool bedecked with color drenched plaid, 9 to 17.

SAIL HALF A SHIP TO PORT? FANTASTIC!

On the nine millionth wave the freighter Flora Wyatt split in two, leaving John Orde with only the jagged bow of a ship to command!... If you like sea yarns, turn to Richard Howells Watkins' story, Half a Ship, in this week's Post.

NEWEST TRICK IN FOOTBALL

Are those kicks that suddenly bounce out of bounds in the coffin corner sheer luck? No, sir! Football's slickest trick is making 'em bounce out. Here's the story of the system that is putting The Foot Back in Football. Franny Murray, former Penn star, tells the story.

A FIGHTIN' PARSON GOES TO WAR

Roaring, red-headed Rev. Praxiteles Swan was in a mighty bad spot. Only the musketry stabbing red in the night showed him the position of those Yankees. The Preacher Learns to Pray, a story by Col. John W. Thomason, Jr.

CATTLE ROUNDUP—1940 STYLE

Don't let the movies kid you that cattle roundups mean wild-eyed steers stampeding ahead of yelping cowboys. Donald Hough, author of this article, Beef Comes From the Hills, takes you with him on a roundup in Montana and tells you what a steer's life is really like before he becomes steak.

MR. ENOCH SETS HIS CAP FOR REVENGE

Mr. Enoch, the gaudy gnome in Room 607, certainly looked like a fugitive from a chain-gang picture. So Mr. Caldwell, the new hotel manager, decided to oops him out. A riotous story, Clothes Make the Man, by Nunnally Johnson.

GENTLEMEN PREFER HOOPSKIRTS

Della used enough chicken fencing in building her hoopskirt to take care of twenty brooders. But it was worth it. Wasn't she to meet a polished gentleman—with a fine black beard and a gold tooth in his smile? M. G. Chute brings you the romantic story of The Lady and the Guinea Hen.

WHAT IS A FOREIGNER?

What happens when a family comes from Europe to make its fortune in America? How do the children, and the children's children, rate as citizens? Louis Adamic traces a significant history of one such family, in The Woman From Croatia.